IN Debt on a Bond, the Defendant prayed Oyer of the Condition, and pleaded the Statute E. 6. against buying Offices concerning the Administration of Justice; and averred, That this Bond was given for the Purchase of the Office of Provost-Marshal in Jamaica, and that it concerned the Administration of Justice, and that Jamaica is Part of the Revenue and Possessions of the Crown of England: The Plaintiff replied, That Jamaica is an Island beyond the Seas, which was conquered from the Indians and Spaniards in Q. Elizabeth's Time, and the Inhabitants are governed by their own Laws, and not by the Laws of England: The Defendant rejoined, That before such Conquest they were governed by their own Laws; but since that, by the Laws of England: Shower argued for the Plaintiff, That on a Judgment in Jamaica, no Writ of Error lies here, but only an Appeal to the Council; and as they are not represented in our Parliament, so they are not bound by our Statutes, unless specially named. Vide And.
115. Pemberton contra argued, That by the Conquest of a Nation, its Liberties, Rights and Properties are quite lost; that by Consequence their Laws are lost too, for the Law is but the Rule and Guard of the other; those that conquer, cannot by their Victory lose their Laws, and become subject to others. Vide Vaugh.

they were not under the same Law. Et per Holt C. J. & Cur.

1st, In Case of an uninhabited Country newly found out by English Subjects, all Laws in Force in England are in Force there; so it seemed to be agreed.

2dly, Jamaica being conquered, and not pleaded to be Parcel of the Kingdom of England, but Part of the Possessions and Revenue of the Crown of England the Laws of England did not take Place there, until declared so by the Conqueror or his Successors. The Isle of Man and Ireland are Part of the Possessions of the Crown of England; yet retain their ancient Laws: * That in Davis 36. it is not pretended, That the Custom of Tanistry was determined by the Conquest of Ireland, but by the new Settlement made there after the Conquest: That it was impossible the Laws of this Nation, by mere Conquest, without more, should take Place in a conquered Country; because, for a Time, there must want Officers, without which our Laws can have no Force: That if our Law did take Place, yet they in Jamaica having Power to make new Laws, our general Laws may be altered by theirs in Particulars; also they held, That in the Case of an Infidel Country, their Laws by Conquest do not entirely cease, but only such as are against the Law of God; and that in such Cases where the Laws are rejected or silent, the conquered Country shall be governed according to the Rule of natural Equity, Judgment pro Quer.

A. possessed of a Term for 100 Years, grants the Land, Hebendum for 40 Years, to commence after his Death. This is a good new Lease ; and if H. possessed of a Term for 20 Years, grants the Tenements for nineteen Years, to commence after his Death, this will be good for so much of the twenty Years as shall be unexpired at the Time of his Death. Lease for a Year, and so from Year to Year, quamdiu, &c. what it is, and when it may be determined. Vide prox. p. When Lessor or Lessee at Will may determine his Will. Vide infra.

If A. demise Lands to B. for a Year, and so from Year to Year, this is not a Lease for two Years, and afterwards at Will ; but it is a Lease for every particular Year, and after the Year is begun, the Defendant cannot determine the Lease before the Year is ended. But in a Lease at Will, the Defendant may determine his Will after Payment of his Rent, at the End of a Quarter, but not the Beginning, lest the Lessor should lose his Rent. The Lessor cannot determine his Will in the Middle of a Quarter, without permitting the Tenant to have the Emblements. Ruled by Holt C. J. at Summer-Affizes at Lincoln, 1699.

IF H. holds Land at Will, rendering Rent quarterly, the Lessor may determine his Will when he pleases ; but if he determines it within a Quarter, he shall lose the Rent which should * have been paid for that Quarter in which he determines it. ## Legacy.

Legg versus Strudwick. Hill. 7 Ann. B. R.

IN Replevin the Defendant avowed, for that he being seised in Fee of the Locus in quo, demised the same to A. Habendum de anno in annum & sic ultra quamdiu ambabus partibus placeret, to commence from Ladyday 1703, rendering an annual Rent, payable quarterly. The Lessee entered, and died the 17th of December 1706. And the Rent for a Year and a Half ending at Christmas before was Arrear, for which the Lessor entered and distrained. To this the Plaintiff demurred. Et per Curiam it was held, first, That after the two Years, the Lessor or Lessee might determine; but if the Lessee held on, he was not then Tenant at Will, but for a Year certain; for his holding on must be taken to be an Agreement to the original Contract, and in Execution of it; and the first Contract was from Year to Year. 2dly, The third Year is not in the Nature of a distinct Interest, because it arises from the same executory Contract, and therefore the Lessor may distrain the third Year for the Rent of the second; and such an executory Contract as this, is not void by the Statute of Frauds, though it be for more than three Years, because there is hereby no Term for above two Years ever subsisting at the same Time; and there can be no Fraud to a Purchaser, for the utmost Interest that can be to bind him, can be only one Year. And Holt C. J. cited this Case coram Hale C. J. A Composition was agreed upon between the Parson and his Parishioners for Tithes quamdiu ambabus partibus placuerit. If the Parishioner ploughs and sows, the Parson shall not that Year recede, and demand Tithe in Kind, but must make his Election at the Beginning of the next Year; for the Parishioner would not perhaps have sowed his Land, but that he relied upon his Contract. *Cro. IT was held by Holt C. J. clearly, That a Devisee may maintain an Action at Common Law against a Tertenant for a Legacy devised out of Land; for where a Statute, as the Statute of Wills, give a Right, the Party by Consequence shall have an Action at Law to recover it.

Where a Time is annexed to the Legacy, and not to the Payment, and Legatee dies before that Time, 'tis lapsed. Hugh's Abr. 1 pt. 664. c. 14.

H. Bequeathed by his Will in these Words, viz. I give 100 l. a-piece to the two Children of J. S. at the End of ten Years after my Decease: The Children died within the ten Years. Et per Cowper Lord Chancellor, This is a lapsed Legacy, and shall not go to the Executors of the Children; for the Diversity is where the Bequest is to take Effect at a future Time, and where the Payment is to be made at a future Time. And though it was objected by Sir Thomas Powys, That this differed from the Case where a Man divided 100 l. to J. S. at his Age of twenty-one, because it is a Contingency whether he attain to that Age; but the Expiration of the ten Years is inevitable; yet the Lord Chancellor answered, That wherever the Time is annexed to the Legacy itself, and not to the Payment of it, if the Legatee dies before the Time of Payment, it is a lapsed Legacy in that Case. *Vide Dy. 59. b. 2 Vent. 342. H. Seifed in Fee, and indebted by Bonds, by Will gives Legacies to Children (whom he had otherwife provided for before) and devifes his Land to his eldeft Son in Tail. The eldeft Son being alfo Executor, pays the Bonds with the perfonal Estate; and now the Legatees brought a Bill to come againft the real Estate in the Place of the Bond Creditors, and be paid out of the Land. The Court feemed to admit, That if the Lands had defcended, the Legatees might have been relieved in this Manner; but fince the Teftator had devifed them, it was refolved, That they ought to be exempted; for it was as much the Teftator's Intention that the Devifee fhould have this Land as the other fhould have the Legacies, and a fpecifick Legacy is never broke into, in order to make good a pecuniary one. Alfo this Cafe is out of the Statute againft fraudulent Devifes, becaufe the Debts are paid, and the Children being otherwife provided for, are not in the Nature of Creditors. Nota; This Cafe was upon an Appeal from the Decree of the Matter of the Rolls, who held, That the real and perfonal Estate fhould be fo charged, that both the Debts and Legacies fhould be paid.

INDICTMENT for Compelling, Writing, Making and Collecting feveral Libels, in uno quorum continetur inter alia juxta tenorem & ad effectum fequenti, and then fetts out the Words. Upon Not Guilty pleaded, the Jury found the Defendant Guilty as to the Writing and the Collecting prout in indictment fupponitur & quoad omnia alia præter fcriptionem & collectionem Not Guilty: An Exception was taken in Arrest of Judgment, That inter alia fhewed there was something elfe which perhaps might, if it appeared, qualify the reft.

Et per Cur. Non allocatur; For if that had been the Cafe, the Defendant could not have been found guilty; and regularly, where a Man fpeaks Treafon, God fave the King will not excufe him. Vide 2 Ro. Rep. 89. And it is not neceffary to fet forth all the Libels; but if any Thing qualify that which is fet forth, it muft be given in Evidence.

2dly, It was agreed, ad effectum fequentem of itfelf had been naught; for the Court muft be Judge of the Words themfelves, and not of the Conftitution the Profecutor puts upon them; but juxta tenorem fequenti imports the very Words themfelves. Vide Co Entr. 116. Reg. 169. For the Tenor of a Thing is the Tranfcript: And Rokesby faid, the Words ad effectum were loofe and ufelefs Words; and the Words, juxta tenorem, being of a certain and more ftrict Signification, the Force of the latter was not hurt by the former, for Utile per inutile non vitiatur; quod Holt C. J. conceffit; and the Cafe of Saltaſhe, H. 33 & 34 Car. 2. B. R. Rot. 1154. was remembered and agreed, and all were of Opinion, That the Words, ad effectum, were corrected by the Words, juxta tenorem.

3dly, It was held, That the finding guilty of bare Writing and Collecting was criminal, not but that Collecting had been better out of the Cafe; for, per Holt C. J. Bare Copying out of a Libel, by one that is neither Contriver nor Compofer, is highly criminal; and as to this the Chief Juftice faid, the Effence of a Libel confifts not in the infamous Matter, for if a Man fpeaks fuch Words, unlefs the Words be put in Writing, he is not guilty of a Libel; but the Nature of

of a Libel confifts in putting this * infamous Matter into Writing; and therefore if Bear writ fuch Matter, he is a Libeller; for it was not a Libel till it was written; and in all Cafes where a Man does that Act, which makes a Thing to be what it is, he is and muft be conftrued to be the Doer of that Thing. This is feen in all Offences, from the higheft to the loweft.

* P. 418

If H. contrives any treasonable Matter, and another writes down the Contrivance, the Writer is as guilty as the Inventor. Where an Act of Parliament makes Sodomy Felony, and fays nothing of the Abettors, if B. fhould ftand by and hold the Door while A. committed Sodomy, B. would be as guilty of Felony as A. So in 3 Inf. 59. where an Act of Parliament makes any Thing Felony, though nothing be faid of the Accessaries in the Statute: So in the loweft Offences, where there are no Accessaries, but all are Principals, as if H. fhould hold A. while B. beats him, he is guilty of the Battery.

So in the principal Cafe, he that does that without which the Thing could not be what it is, viz. a Libel, cannot be conftrued to be innocent.

It is objected, That it is held in 9 Co. 59 Lamb's Cafe, That a Libeller muft be either the Contriv'r, Procurer, or the Publisher. But this ought to be expounded by Moor 813. where the Writer is held to be in Law a Contriver; and then that Ground of my Lord Coke's may be admitted to be Law; otherwise it will be doubtful; for if that Cafe be looked into, the Queftion there was about the Publication of a Libel; and it was held, That writing the Copy of a Libel was not a Publication, but only Evidence of a Publication; but there was no Queftion made how far he was guilty of Libelling; and for the Matter of Publication, the bare having a Libel is not a Publication. If a Libel be publickly known, having a written Copy of it, is an Evidence of a Publication; but otherwise where it is not known to be publifhed.

He that writes a Libel is the Contriver. 3 Mod. 68.

It is objected, That writing a Libel may be a lawful Act, as by the Clerk that draws the Indictment, or by a Student who takes Notes of it; and fo the Defendant's might be a lawful Writing.

Having a written Copy of a known Libel, is Evidence of a Publication. See 5 Mod. 165. 3 Mod. 68.

To this the Chief Juftice answered, That the Matter abfttractedly confidered is unlawful, therefore the general Finding fhall be taken to be criminal; and that if the Writing was innocent, as in the Cafe objected, there ought to be a fpecial Finding of thefe Particulars, which diftinguifh and excufe it. If an Action be brought on the Statute of Maintenance, 'tis fufficient to fay, quod manutenuit; yet in fome Circumftances a Man may lawfully maintain a Suit, as an Attorney or a near Relation; yet becaufe it is unlawful in Abfttracto, that general Allegation is enough, and fhall be underftood of an unlawful Maintenance; and farther, It cannot be underftood of fuch a Writing; for if an * Officer or Student does it, 'tis no Libel becaufe it is not done ad infamiam of the Party, but to bring the Offender to Punifhment, and it is only tenor Libelli, and upon fuch Evidence the Defendant could not be found guilty. The Cafe in 3 Inf. 174. is a ftrong Cafe: In that Cafe J. de Northampton is charged with writing only, and there is no Mention made of a Publication.

Where a Matter is unlawful in general, a general Allegation fhall be fo taken.

* P. 419

I am not under any Neceffity of giving my Opinion, whether writing a Copy of a Libel be writing of a Libel? For if it be not, then the Jury having found the Defendant guilty of writing a Libel, he muft be taken to be guilty of writing the Original, and a Copy could not be given in Evidence. On the other Side, if the Copy of a Libel be a Libel, then the writing of it is a great Offence: But that People may not go away with a Notion, that writing of a Copy, though by one that has no warrantable Authority, is not Libelling, the Chief Juftice faid, That fuch a Copy contained all Things neceffary to the Constitution of a Libel, viz. The fcandalous Matter, and the Writing; and it has the fame pernicious Confequence; for it perpetuates the Memory of the Thing, and fome Time or other comes to be publifhed; therefore he held, That Writing a Copy of a Libel was writing a Libel; and if the Law were otherwife, Men might write Copies and print them with Impunity.

Writing a Copy of a Libel without Authority, is writing a Libel. 5 Mod. 164. 165. Pop. 139. 12 Rep. Dr. Wootton's Cafe. 3 Inf. 134. 1 Vent. 31.

Further, the Chief Juftice faid, That the Defendant had great Favour in the Verdict, for when a Libel appears under a Man's own Handwriting, and no other Author is known, he is taken in the Manner, and it turns the Proof upon him; and if he cannot produce the Compofer, it is hard to find that he is not the very Man.

Man. A Man could have no Temptation to write such Libels, but Rancour against the Government.

Cro. Car. 125.

Lastly, It was objected, That the Defendant being found guilty of Collecting and Writing, and not of Making and Composing, the Verdict is repugnant, or an Acquittal; sed non allocatur; for making is the Genus, and composing and contriving is one Species; Writing a second Species, and Procuring to be written a third Species; so that not finding him guilty of all, but writing only, is finding him Not Guilty of any Species of Making, but Writing. *Justin. Now the Mistake being discovered, the Heir of the Grandson brought an Ejectment against the Heir of the other Coparcener; and upon a Special Verdict found, it was objected in his Behalf, That the Devise was void as to one Moiety; but this being over-ruled, (quod vide Title Descent, pl. 3. S. C. 6 Mod. 240. Rep. A. Q. 38.

The Statute of Limitations never runs against a Man, but where he is actually ousted or disseised; and true it is, one Tenant in Common may disseise another; but then it must be done by actual Disseisin, and not by bare Perception of Profits only; but here the Difficulty is not so great; there is no Tenancy in Common in this Case, for the Heir of the Grandson had the whole by Devise, and the other is a mere Stranger; and where two Men are in Possession, the Law will adjudge it in him that hath the Right. A Man may be Tenant in Common by Prescription, yet he may not be Tenant in Common by Wrong; nor can a Man be disseised of an undivided Moiety; therefore the bringing the Ejectment admits nothing; for if a Man be seised of the whole, and makes a Lease to another of a Moiety undivided, and a Stranger ousts the Lessee, he must bring his Ejectment of a Moiety, and so if they be both ousted, they must bring several Ejectments.

That if any Citizen speaks contemptuous Words of an Alderman, or assaults him in the Execution of his Office, an Information shall be exhibited against him in the Name of the Common Serjeant in the Court of Aldermen, and that they should proceed against him to fine him; and that at a Wardmote held by Sir Robert Jeffreys, the Defendant assaulted him, and said, I have as much to do here as you; you think sure you are among your Bridewell Birds, but you are mistaken; for which an * Information was exhibited by the Common Serjeant. Et per Cur. It had been doubtful if the Offence had been by Words only, because no Indictment lay at Common Law, but he is to be bound to Good Behaviour; yet for Assault he is punishable, and that may be by Information there by the Custom, as well as in B. R. by the Course of the Court, though the regular Course at Common Law is by Indictment. 2dly, The Court held, That the Information lay in the Court of Aldermen, though an Alderman was grieved; otherwise of the Mayor, for he is an integral Part, without which the Court cannot be held, but the other may be severed, and he must not sit; so the Mayor and Aldermen may grant to an Alderman, but the Aldermen and City cannot grant to the Mayor: But the Court held, That a Custom to disfranchise for contemptuous Words spoken of an Alderman, was void, according to 2 Lev. 200.

Hotchpot extends only among Children. Vern. 397.

Where it appears under the Father's Hand, how much a Child has received, the Court will judge whether full Advancement, or not, Vern. 89, 216. Vide Act of Parliament 11 Geo. 1. by which Power is given to Freemen to dispose of personal Estates by Will.

* P. 427

If a Freeman of London has no Wife, but has Children, the Half of his personal Estate belongs to his Children, and the other Half the Freeman may dispose of; so if the Freeman has a Wife and no Children, Half of his personal Estate belongs to his Wife, and the other Half he may dispose of: But if a Freeman hath a Wife and Children, one third Part belongs to the Wife, and another third Part to the Children, and the Freeman may dispose of the other third Part. And if such Freeman dies Intestate, the Custom affects only two Thirds, and the remaining Third is subject to the Statute of Distributions, and so dividing the whole into Ninths, four Ninths belong to the Wife, and five Ninths belong to the Children.

If a Freeman of London has two Sons, and the eldest Son dies leaving a Son, and then the Freeman dies, the Grandchild, though in Law a Representative of the Son, who never was advanced, has no Part by the Custom; for the Custom of London extends only to the Children, and not to the Grandchildren; per Northey; and so it has been certified by the Recorder into Chancery.

If a Freeman of London has but one Child, and he has received some Portion from his Father, and the Father dies, leaving this Child and a Wife, the Child shall have his full Orphan's Part, without any Regard to what he has already received; for that Advancement in Part is only to be brought into Hotchpot with Children, and not with others. Per Sir Edward Northey.

If a Freeman of London has advanced any of his Children with a Portion; yet if it appears what that Portion was by any Writing under the Father's Hand, or by the Father's Will, or his Marriage-Settlement, and by the said Will or Settlement it is said, That the said Portion is or was in full of his Child's Part by the Custom; yet this Child shall come in for the customary * Part of the Rest of the Father's personal Estate, bringing the Portion already received into Hotchpot; otherwise it is, if it does not appear under the Father's Hand what the Advancement was.

Upon which these three Points were stirred and settled.

1st, Whether the Party that comes in is to take the Oaths at his Peril, or they are to tender them, and if he refused, whether it must not appear upon the Return? Et per Cur. He must take them at his Peril; the Magistrate need not tender to him, but he must tender himself to the Magistrate, and demand them; and if it be refused, must sue a Mandamus, and the Magistrate is punishable; if the Law were otherwise, it would be in the Power of the Magistrate to elude the Act in Favour of the Party.

2dly, Whether it be enough to say, he did not take the Oaths before them? And this was held naught; for two Justices have a Power to administer the Oath, and he might take the Oath before them.

3dly, Whether a Person that was only Tenant at Will, should have a peremptory Mandamus? Et per Cur. We do not determine whether there ought to be a good Cause, or not, for such Removal; but suppose it may be without Cause, yet still they must determine their Will: Now they do not return a Determination of his Office by their Will, as the Reason why they do not admit him, but the special Matter of his not taking the Oaths; therefore, since his Office continues, and this Excuse is insufficient, he ought to be restored. A Mandamus was directed Majori, Ballivis & omnibus principalibus Burgenfibus Burgi de A. (except R. and S.) setting forth the Constitution, and that R. and S. were capital Burgesses, chosen by the Commonalty to stand and serve for Mayor for the ensuing Year; and that they were to chuse one of them, Ideo they were commanded to elect one of them accordingly. They returned the Statute 13 Car. 2. Sess. 2. c. 1. and that within twenty Years, prox. post 25 March 1663. R. & S. fuerunt electi Burgenfes principales, and within a Year before their Election had not received the Sacrament, per quod electio eorum vacua devenit & non sunt principales Burgenfes; and this Return was held naught: 1st, The Court considered it without the last Words, Et non, &c. And as to that the Chief Justice said, the Writ supposes them to be Burgesses, and so the Court must intend them, and this is not answered by the special Matter of the Return, which shews only that he was once elected, and that was a void Election; whereas he might qualify himself and be chosen again; and here is nothing to exclude the Intendment of a subsequent Election, which is according to the Supposal of the Writ.

Return must be certain to every Intent. Vide ante 430. Pl. 5. &c. ib. post 436, 586, 589. Mod. Cases 89.

2dly, The Court considered it with the last Words, and held the Et non sunt principal' Burgenfes, &c. to be only Part of the Conclusion or Inference; and the Chief Justice said, the Law requires the most exact Certainty in these Cases, because the Party cannot traverse nor interplead; and it is not enough to offer a Matter, so that the Party may be able to falsify it in an Action; but the Matter must be so alledged, that the Court may be able to judge of it and determine, whether it be a sufficient Cause, or not? If the Matter set forth in this Return had been so alledged * in a Plea in Bar, the Plaintiff might have replied a subsequent Election: Ergo, this Return is uncertain; for there might have been a subsequent Election.

A Rule was made the first Day of this Term, viz. That if the Corporation to which the Mandamus is sent, be above forty Miles from London, then there shall be fifteen Days between the Teste and the Return of the first Writ of Mandamus; but if but forty Miles, or under, but eight Days only: And as to the Alias and Pluries, they made no Rule, but would consider of that, and that the Writ should not be tested before it was granted by the Court; so that the Alias and Pluries may be made returnable immediate, as they used to be: Also the Court said, That at the Return of the Pluries, if no Return was made, and there was an Affidavit of the Service, there should go an Attachment without hearing Counsel to excuse the Contempt.

A Mandamus was directed Ballivis, Burgensibus and Communitat. villæ de Gippo, to restore Serjeant Whitacre to the Office of Recorderhip; the Return was, responsio Ballivorum Burgensium & Commun' villæ de Gipwico sive Burgi Gipwici patet, &c. Nos ballivi, &c. return the Constitution so and so; and that the Recorder is amoveable pro malegesturis per Ballivos & Burgenses vel major' partem eorum quorum Ballivos duos esse volumus: Then they shew Serjeant Whitacre chosen to continue ad libitum, and that at such a Sessions of the Peace, the Serjeant had Notice, but did not attend; and that having Notice to answer, he appeared and answered, and by the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty (the Bailiffs being then present) he was turned out of his said Office. Et ulterius certificamus quod Inhabitantes villæ prædictæ nunquam nuncupati fuerunt per nomen Ballivorum, Burgens. & Com. villæ de Gippo, &c. This Case pended long, and was often argued upon several Objections; and, 1st, The Chief Justice held, That Gippus and Gipwicus were different Names, so that the Writ was misdirected; but then they should have returned the special Matter accordingly, and relied upon it; for * that now they had admitted themselves to be the Corporation to whom the Writ was directed, by returning Executio, &c. And a Corporation may have several Names; and here it being started, Whether a Corporation should lose its old Name by a new Charter? The Chief Justice said it would, where the new Charter altered the very Constitution in the integral Parts of it; as if Bailiffs and Burgesses are made Mayor and Aldermen, or Mayor and Burgesses, or where an Abbot and Convent are translated into a Dean and Chapter; but if the Bailiffs and Burgesses ville de Gippo accept a Charter, constituting them Bailiffs and Burgeses ville Gipwici, and giving them farther Privileges, and that they shall be so called; this is a new Name only, for the old Corporation remains in the integral Parts of it. Powell being not satisfied in the first Point, it vanished without Resolution, by discovering that Gippo in the latter End of the Return was with a Dash, and in the Writ without, so that then it was not ad idem. 2dly, The whole Court held, That though the Bailiffs were only said to be present, they should be intended to be consenting, either actually, or as included in the major Part. 3dly, That the Recorder is bound to attend and assist at the Sessions to direct the Corporation in the Proceedings of Justice, and that his Office being a publick Office relating to Justice, Non-Attendance is a good Cause of Forfeiture. 4thly, Though the Summons or Notice Serjeant Whitacre had to answer this Charge, set no Time when he should appear, yet his appearing and answering cured the Defect of Notice in the Time, and would have cured want of Notice of the Charge. Palm. 453. For though a Man ought to be prepared, and have convenient Time for that, yet he may waive this Benefit if he will; but in this Case, his Notice was to answer his Non-Attendance at a Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, and therefore he was charged; whereas he is turned out for Non-Attendance at a Sessions of Peace, and indeed answered to that, though not charged therewith, which the Court held incurable and fatal, and ordered a peremptory Mandamus, and that it should be directed according to the first Writ, viz. Ville de Gippo, and must not differ; and though Mr. Raymond objected to a peremptory Writ, because he was only Recorder ad libitum, (1 Sid. 14.) non allocatur; for the Corporation have not returned that; they have relied upon his Misdemeanors, and not upon their Power.

Electionem suam*; and that he was turbulent and factious, and procured his Election by Bribery; Et quod non fuit Electus. The Court agreed that several Causes might be returned, and that either, not qualified, or not elected, had been a good Return; but the Chief Justice questioned whether Bribery would vacate the Election, because it did not appear to be an Office concerning the Administration of Justice, and within the Statute E. 6. Also the whole Court agreed, That as soon as D. was chose by the Ward, it was an Election, and that the Aldermen did not chuse, (having but one Person sent them) but approve; and that before Approbation, the Election was complete; as a Presentation is before the Bishop approves a Clerk; or as a Nomination is a perfect Nomination before the other presents. It follows then, that this Return is repugnant, and the Court cannot tell what to believe; for at first they admit an Election, and avoid it; and yet at last they return, there was no Election at all. A peremptory Mandamus was granted.

Eyre Justice held, There was no Difference between a Land-Carrier and a Water-Carrier, and that the Master of a Ship was no more than a Servant to the Owners in the Eye of the Law; and that the Power he has of Hypothecation, &c. is by the Civil Law. *Et per Holt C. able for him, and undertakes for his Care to all that make Use of him: 2dly, The Court held, That all the Owners were liable, for they are charged in Point of Contract, as Employers, and are all equally intitled to the Freight: Either Master or Owners may bring an Action for the Freight; but if the Owners bring the Action, they must all join; ergo they must all be joined; as the Freight belongs to all, so all are equally undertaking; and a Breach of Trust in one is a Breach of Trust in all; as where two make one Officer, the Act of one is the Act of the other. 3dly, The Court held this was not an Action ex delicto, but ex quasi contractu, and it was not the Contract of one but of all: That there was no other Tort but a Breach of Trust. IN Case on a Policy of Insurance, upon Non Assumpsit pleaded, the Case was, Mr. Crisp being at the West-Indies, sent a Letter to Bates to insure Goods on the Mary-Galley of St. Christopher's, Captain A. Hill Commander, at London: Bates carried the Letter to Stubbs, who writ Policies, and he by Mistake made the Assurance on the Mary, Captain Hastewood Commander, &c. This Policy thus made was subscribed by the Defendant: The Mary-Galley was lost, and then Stubbs applied to the Insurers to consent to alter the Policy, to which they agreed, and the Mistake was mended. It was objected at the Trial, that the Mary was a stouter Ship than the Mary-Galley, and that the Insurers ought to have an Increase of Premium for the Alteration: But it was held by Holt C. J. That the Action well lay, and that the Mistake might be set right, and that Stubbs was a good Witness; and he cited this Case, which happened when Pemberton was Chief Justice. An Insurance was made from Archangel to the Downs, and from the Downs to Leghorn; but * there was a Parol Agreement at the same Time, that the Policy should not commence till the Ship came to such a Place; and it was held the Parol Agreement should avoid the Writing. CASE upon a Policy, which was to insure the William Galley in a Voyage from Bremen to the Port of London, warranted to depart with Convoy: The Case was, the Galley set Sail from Bremen, under Convoy of a Dutch Man of War to the Elb, where they were joined with two other Dutch Men of War, and several Dutch and English Merchant Ships; whence they sailed to the Texel, where they found a Squadron of English Men of War and an Admiral: After a Stay of nine Weeks they set out from the Texel, and the Galley was separated in a Storm, and taken by a French Privateer, taken again by a Dutch Privateer, and paid 80*l.* Salvage. And it was ruled per Holt C. J. That the Voyage ought to be according to Usage, and that their going to the Elb, though in Fact out of the Way, was no Deviation; for till after the Year 1703, there was no Convoy for Ships directly from Bremen to London: And the Plaintiff had a Verdict. (7) Deviation or not, must be construed according to Usage. S. C. Holt 469. 2 Stra. 1265.

IN Case upon four several Promises, there was a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and entire Damages : It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, that one of the Promises was ill laid, viz. That whereas the Defendant was indebted to him in 13 l. 10 s. for nine Guineas, he promised to pay, &c. and says not, nine Guineas ad valorem, &c. as he ought, the Value being not ascertained by Proclamation. *Et per Holt C. 1st, Any Piece of Money coined at the Mint, is of Value as it bears a Proportion to other current Money, and that without Proclamation. The Unit was the old Piece, which was 20 s. In King James the First's Time, the Unit was by Proclamation raised 16 d. which was the Reason and Occasion of the Coin of Guineas, and of their being 16 d. short of the Unit.

The Record of the Inquisition is only before the Court, with respect to the Plaintiff.

IT was found by Inquisition, That Ford had forfeited his Office of Warden of the Fleet, upon which it was seized into the Queen's Hands : One Mason brought a Monstrans de Droit in Chancery on the Inquisition, and sets forth a Title, and traverses Ford's being seized of the Office, so that by Consequence he could not forfeit it ; the Attorney General demurred : The Cause was brought into B. R. per proprias manus of the Lord Chancellor ; and now it appeared that Mason's Title, as set forth, was naught ; whereupon Mason, as Amicus Curie, insisted still, That Ford had not forfeited, and so the Queen had no Title ; and therefore it was urged, That no Judgment could be given for the Queen, and that the whole Record was here, and the Record being here, the whole Record was to be affirmed or subverted by the Judgment of this Court. Et per Cur. The very Record of the Inquisition itself is not before us, but only the Record of the Monstrans de Droit : For as to the Inquisition, the Monstrans de Droit recites it, and concludes *prout patet per record. with respect to all Persons or Parties; so as no other Person could at any Time after come into Chancery and shew his Right, for that would be inconvenient; yet it was here with respect to the Party Plaintiff in this Monstrans de Droit, so that if thereby a Title appeared for him, the Court might give Judgment; and if the Inquisition be falsified, it shall be set aside, so far as to make Way for the Party's Right; and if the Party's Right can be collected from the Inquisition, it shall be affirmed by the Judgment; so was Holland's Case, and so is Kel. 93. 3dly, They held, That if it appears that he that sued the Monstrans de Droit has no Right, he cannot mend his Case by Exceptions to the Inquisition taken as Amicus Curiae, tho' by those Exceptions it appears the Queen has no Right, or that a Stranger has Right; for the Party that sues a Monstrans de Droit, is a Plaintiff, and may be nonsuit. 4 H. 6, 12. TRESPASS for taking and carrying away his Goods in D. The Defendant pleaded that the Locus in quo was his Freehold, and that he took the Goods Damage-feasant, &c. The Plaintiff demurred generally, and had Judgment; for the Action being transitory, there is no Locus in quo supposed: Otherwise in Trespas quare Clausum fregit in D. the Clausum is a Locus in quo; but in the principal Case there is no Place in particular supposed, only D. is alleged for a Venue; therefore if the Defendant will make the Place material, it must come on his Part to shew a Place certain: Also in Trespas quare clausum fregit in D. if the Defendant plead Liberum Tenementum, and Issue be joined thereupon, it is sufficient for the Defendant to shew any Close that is his Freehold; but if the Plaintiff gives the Close a Name, he must prove a Freehold in the Close named: So adjudged in *C. Greeves versus Rolls. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R.

THE Judge of Nisi Prius may receive a Non Prof. at the Assizes; so it was held by two Judges, and that Judgment was affirmed in the House of Lords against the Opinion of Holt C. J. For before the Statute of York, the Justices of Nisi Prius had no Power to record a Nonsuit or Default in the Country, and consequently have no Power now to enter a Non Prof. which is not within that Statute. At Common Law they could not record a Non Prof. Default or Nonsuit. Nota; The principal Case was, Ejectment against several, who all entered into the Rule of Lease, Entry and Ouster; at the Assizes some would confess, and others would not: The Plaintiff, as to those who would not confess, entered a Non Prof. and went on against the others, and recovered; upon this a Rule was made, That in like Cases the Plaintiff should go on against those who would confess, and as to those who would not, should be nonsuit; but that the Cause of the Nonsuit should be expressed in the Record, viz. because those Defendants would not confess Lease, Entry and Ouster; and upon the Return of the Posse, the Court would be informed what * Lands were in the Possession of those Defendants, that the Judgment might be entered against the casual Ejector as to them.

It was agreed in the arguing of this Cause, That where there are several Defendants, and they sever in Plea, whereupon Issue is joined, that the Plaintiff may enter a Non Prof. as to one Defendant at any Time before the Record is sent down to be tried at Nisi Prius.

IN Debt upon an Obligation, the Plaintiff declared, Quod cum Robertus Erlin, primo die Julii 1674. per scriptum suum Obligatorium concessit se teneri & firmiter obligari in Quadragint. libris, &c. Et profert, &c. cujus dat. est eisdem die & anno. Upon Non est factum pleaded, the Jury found the Defendant made a Deed in hæc verba, and that was, in premid. vigin. in quadrans libris, dated the 1st of July, Anno Regni Car. 2. Millimo sexcent. septua' q<sup>o</sup>, and signed Robert Erlwin, conditioned to pay 20 l. and if this be the same Deed, &c. ? Et per Cur.

1st, The Variance between the Name signed, which is Erlwin, and the Name in the Obligation, which is Erlin, is not material, because Subscribing is no essential Part of the Deed ; Sealing is sufficient : The Bond is a Deed without it, and so it is of the Year of the King. Vide Relv. 193.

2dly, The Court held the Words in premid. vigin. and also the Anno Regni Car. 2. Millimo sexcent. septua' q<sup>o</sup>, to be void for Insensibility ; and being insensible shall be rejected, the rest being Sense without them.

Occupant and Occupancy.

3dly, They held that the Word quadrans had been void and insensible, if it had stood by itself, as in Case there had been no Condition, or if the Condition had been collateral; but since it has relation to the Condition, they would take it to be explained by the Condition, and to signify 40 l. there being somewhat like quatuor or quadragesim. in it, and there are Cases as strong and of as odd Words. *Hob. 119. 4thly, An impossible Date is no Date; and where there is no Date, the Plaintiff nevertheless must declare of it as made at a certain Time, and it is better to rest there without cujus dat. est eislem, &c. or gerens dat. eislem; for that ties it up to the Bond mentioned in the Declaration; and if that be taken to be the express Date, then there is a Variance; and the Court held, That if the Plaintiff's Declaration had been gerens dat. it had certainly been naught, because that could refer to nothing but the express Date; but being cujus dat. the Court would intend it of the real Date, which is the Delivery, and not of the express Date; because that being insensible, and as no Date, it could not properly be applied to that. Vide 2 Yelv. 193.

And the Chief Justice denied the Case, 2 Cro. 136. and held, That if H. declares on a Bond, as bearing Date the 6th of May, he cannot upon Non est factum give in Evidence a Bond bearing Date at another Day; but he may give in Evidence a Bond that bears Date the 6th of May, though it was delivered at another Day. S. habend. conjunctim & divisim, exercend. per se vel sufficien. deputat.* It was objected, That a judicial Office could not be granted to two ; for if they differ, nothing can be done : Answer, That may be said of four Judges, as in B. R. and in Ministerial Offices, as two Sheriffs : The Court held the Grant good, and said, If an Office be granted to two, and one dies, the Office does not survive, but determines ; as if two Sheriffs, and one dies, the other cannot act ; otherwise if granted to two and the Survivor of them.

Dominus Rex versus Kemp. Trin. 7 Will. 3. B. R. 1 Ld. Raym. 49. S. C.

A Scire Facias was brought to repeal Letters Patent, whereby King Charles the Second granted to the Defendant Kemp the Office of Searcher in the Port of Plymouth. The Case was, King Charles II. had granted this Office to A. durante beneplacito ; and afterwards by other Letters Patent, reciting the first, granted it to B. for Life, to commence after the Death, Surrender, or Forfeiture of A. Afterwards B. surrendered to the King, who in Consideration of the Surrender, granted the Office to the Defendant Kemp, to commence after the * Death, Forfeiture, Surrender, or other Determination of the Estate of A.

It was objected, That the Patent and Grant to B. was void, because A.'s Estate, being at Will, could not be surrendered nor forfeited. Also an Estate of Freehold cannot depend upon an Estate at Will.

Et per Cur. An Estate at Will in Lands cannot be surrendered, because 'tis determinable by the Will of either Party ; but such an Office at Will is not properly at the Will of both Parties, but at the Will of the King only ; the Party cannot determine his Will, but by Surrender ; for if it be an Office of Trust, a mere Forbearance to execute will be an Offence, and fineable ; and Surrender is the constant Practice in such Cases. So did the Chief Justices Hale and Scroggs.

2dly, It may be said forfeitable in some Measure, and the King's Tenants at Will may be said to forfeit ; for in Case of Forfeiture, the King will be informed by Inquisition before he determine his Will, and then upon the Return of the Inquisition the Office is forfeited ; but if it were an Estate for Life, there must be a Scire Facias to repeal the Letters Patent.

IN an Affize of Novel Disseisin for the Office of Clerk of the Peace of Kent, the Recognitors found a Special Verdict, viz. That the Earl of Winchelsea being Custos Rotulorum of that County, made P. Owen Clerk of the Peace, to hold at his Pleasure, by Writing under his Hand and Seal; and because the Justices of Peace at Sessions scrupled to admit him upon this Paper, the Lord Winchelsea came into Court, and said, *I nominate P. Custos Rotulorum may appoint the Clerk of the Peace without Deed. See 3 Mod. 130, quære 147. Vide Noy 147, 148. Carth. 426, S. C.

And the Court held, That it always belonged to the Custos Rotulorum to nominate the Clerk of the Peace, but the Clerk of the Peace was removeable whenever the Custos was removed or changed; and moreover was removeable at the Will of the Custos till 32 H. 8. which makes him to continue in quousque the Custos shall continue in. Now by the late Act, he is to continue for Life; and though the Words be, Give and Grant to him; yet it is only an Appointment, and consequently may be without Deed: That it cannot be a Grant from the Custos, or enure as such, is plain, because the Custos is only at Will; and he that has an Office at Will, cannot make a Grant for Life, because there is no original Estate sufficient to bear it; therefore this must enure as an Appointment, or the Execution of a Power given by the Statute; like a Power to an Executor to sell, or a Tenant for Life to make Leases; the Consequence of all which is, That this was a good Appointment, though without Deed; for whatever is to take Effect out of a Power or Authority, or by Way of Appointment, is good without Deed; otherwise, where it takes an Effect out of an Interest, and is to enure as a Grant; for then, if it be of a Thing incorporeal, it must be by Deed. In Debt on the Bond for Performance, Judgment was given against the Plaintiff. 1st, The Court held this an Office within the Statute 5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 16.

2dly, The Court held, That where an Office is within the Statute, and the Salary is certain, if the Principal make a Deputation, reserving a lesser Sum out of the Salary, 'tis good: So if the Profits be uncertain, arising from Fees, if the Principal make a Deputation, reserving a Sum certain out of the Fees and Profits of the Office, 'tis good; for in these Cases the Deputy is not to pay, unless the Profits rise to so much; and though a Deputy by his Constitution is in Place of his Principal, yet he has no Right to the Fees, they still continue to be the Principal's; so that as to him, 'tis only reserving a Part of his own, and giving away the rest to another; but where the Reservation or Agreement is not to pay out of the Profits, but to pay generally a certain Sum, it must be paid at all Events, and such Bond is void by the Statute.

ON a Certiorari it was moved to quash an Order of Sessions for the Discharge of one Edward Green from his Apprenticeship to the Defendant Gately: The Fact was, That Gately was a Mountebank, and being at a Place in Yorkshire, where he kept a publick Stage, Green was by Indenture bound Apprentice to him in this Manner, viz. to Robert Gately, Surgeon, to learn the Trade he now useth; and immediately he went upon the Stage, and ever since continued in the Employ; after which, being with his Master Gately in Middlesex, he complained to the Justices that his Master did not teach him the Trade, upon which they discharged him; this being done, Green set up the Trade of Mountebank himself. Mr. Norhey moved to quash the Order, the Justices being willing, because they were imposed upon: 1st, He excepted to the Form of the Order, that they ordered the Servant to be discharged from his Master, whereas the Discharge should be mutual. 2dly, Because the Stat. 5 Eliz. in discharging Apprentices is confined, and extends only to Apprentices mentioned in that Clause, and there neither Surgeon nor Mountebank is mentioned: And tho' a Surgeon may be a Trade within the Statute, which a Man cannot exercise without serving an Apprenticeship to, because that Clause of the Statute is general; yet this Part of the Statute relating to the Discharge of Apprentices, extends only to Trades there mentioned. Per Cur: As to the first, the Discharge of the Servant is by Consequence a Discharge of the Master; and as to the second, The Clause of the Statute relating to the Discharge of Apprentices is general, and goes to all Manner of Apprentices, even to those of Merchants, as it was adjudged in Hawksworth's and Hilary's Case, 1 Saund. 314. But afterwards the Court was of Opinion, that the Power of discharging reaches only to the Trades mentioned in the Statute, among which a Surgeon is not mentioned; for that tho' as to the serving seven Years Apprenticeship, a Surgeon comes under the general Terms of Arts and Mysteries; yet * the Power of discharging reaches only to the Trades particularly mentioned, and this Point was not stirred in Hilary's Case; and in Watkin's Case, 2 Keb. 822. Hale C. TWO Justices of the Peace made an Order to remove John Rainsford, his Wife and three Children, from Rowborough in Somersetshire, to Broadchalk in Wilts, which Order, on an Appeal to the Quarter-Sessions, was confirmed; after this Rainsford, with his Wife and three Children, came into the Parish of Downhead; whereupon two Justices, reciting the former Order and Confirmation ordered him to Broadchalk; and now it was objected to this Order, that it did not appear that one of the Justices was of the Quorum. Mr. Northey on the other Side argued, it was not necessary here, because it was not an original Order, but an Order made in Pursuance of an Order of Sessions. Et per Cur', A Settlement by Order upon Appeal, binds all Parties: If the Poor Man goes to the Parish from whence he is removed, the Sessions must set their Order obeyed; but if he goes to another Parish not concerned in the Appeal, then it is proper for two Justices of the Peace to remove him to the Parish where he was settled by the Sessions by original Order; but then it must appear therein that one of them was of the Quorum. AN Order was made to remove a poor Woman from Tarley in Worcestershire, to Swolhill in Warwickshire; afterwards two Justices in Warwickshire made an Order to remove her to King's Norton in Worcestershire; whereupon two Justices of Worcestershire sent her back to Swolhill; and upon an Appeal to the Sessions in Warwickshire, the Justices confirmed her Settlement at King's Norton, and then an Order was made by two Justices of the Peace to execute the said Order: All these Orders being brought up by Certiorari, Caribew moved to quash all except the first, all the others being made coram non judice; for when an original Order * is made, it binds all Persons until it be set aside, and it cannot be set aside but on Appeal to the Sessions. Mr. Northey on the other Hand insisted, That though in this Case two Justices could not send the Woman back again to Tarley, yet they might send her back to a third Place, as King's Norton is in this Case; so that as to King's Norton 'tis but an original Order; but the Court seemed to be of another Opinion, for then King's Norton might send to Tarley, and there would be a perpetual Circuity; but seeing in this Case King's Norton had appeared at the Sessions, and had been concluded there, they would not quash the Order, and several other Questions arising, all was referred to a Judge of Assize.

Several Inhabitants appealed to the Sessions, and the Rate was there quashed; and the Churchwardens, &c. ordered to make a new Rate, upon both real and personal Estates: In the new Rate there was still a great Inequality, the real Estate being taxed ten Times more, in Proportion, than the personal Estate; for this Reason several Inhabitants appealed again, and this Rate was likewise vacated by Order of the Sessions. And now Noribey and Showers moved to quash these Orders, urging, That the Sessions could only relieve particular Persons over-rated or grieved, but could not set aside whole Rates at once. Sed per tot. Cur. viz. Holt, Rokeby and Turton: Surely the Justices at Sessions, upon an Appeal of particular Persons grieved, may, if they see Cause, set aside the Rate; for the Act is, that if any Person or Persons find themselves aggrieved, it shall be lawful for the Justices at the Quarter-Sessions to take such Order therein, as by them shall be thought convenient. 43 Eliz. c. 2. sect. 6. And in either of these Cases, of the first or second Rate, the Justices could not have given Relief without setting aside the whole Rate, because the Rate was burthensome to a whole Set of Men; and they may make a new Rate themselves, or order the Churchwardens and Overseers to make a new Rate, as was done in this Case; they having it in their Discretion to make a new Rate at Sessions, or remand it to the Churchwardens, &c. to make one. In this Case it was objected, That Ditton the Master was bound over to appear, and did not; and the Justices have but a limited Jurisdiction; and 'tis expressly directed by the Act, that this Discharge is to be made on the Appearance of the Master; besides, there is another Remedy to proceed on the Recognizance, which is forfeited by not appearing. S. C. 5 Mod 149: called Rex ver. Inhab. of Wooton-Rivers.

UPON an Order of two Justices, it was objected, 1st, That it was not said that the Woman was poor, &c. but lame and like to become poor, 2dly, That it was not said she did not offer Security. 3dly, That it was said to be upon Complaint only, and not of the Churchwardens, &c. 4thly, It was not said she rented not a Tenement of 10 l. per Annum. The two last were the Objections chiefly insisted upon; and the Court was clear as to the first of these two, viz. That it must be upon Complaint of the Churchwardens, &c. and so appear; but upon reading the Return, another Question arose; for the Return set forth at large, That upon Complaint of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor concerning A. to the Justices; they the said Justices, one of the Quorum, made the following Order, in hæc verba. Forasmuch as Complaint hath been made to us, &c. so that it was urged, That the Defect of the Order was supplied by the Return of the Certiorari: As to the last of the four Exceptions, Holt C. J. said, That before 13 Car. 2. two Justices * removed by Consequence of Law, upon 43 Eliz. because that Statute makes a Provision, That every Parish shall maintain its own Poor; therefore the Justices considered who were properly the Poor of a Parish, and they were held to be such as were there settled a convenient Time, which was thought a Month, so that a Month's Abode made an Inhabitant. Still there remained several Doubts, which occasioned 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12. upon which Statute the present Question arises, viz. Whether the Power to remove be not founded on 13 & 14 Car. 2. but on the Law, as it was before? And since such an Order would serve to remove before, why will it not serve now, since the Statute? Or whether 13 & 14 Car. 2. obliges the Justices to alter the Form of their Order: And this depends upon this Part of the Statute, viz. Whether it be by Way of giving Jurisdiction or Restriction: At another Day Holt C. J. pronounced Judgment; As to the Exception to the not averring that she did not rent a Tenement of 10 l. per Annum, he said, the Secondary had searched the Precedents, and they are without this Clause, according to the Form of the Orders before 14 Car. 2. And this Order therefore is well enough; and if the Party rents a Tenement of 10 l. per Annum, he may appeal to the Sessions: As to the other Exception, it is fatal, for no one can disturb a Man coming into a Parish, but they that have Authority to do it: A Complaint, ex Officio, from one not concerned, is nothing, it may be the Parish are willing to keep him; and as to the Return, that cannot cure the Order, for they had exercised their Authority before; and by the Certiorari they have no Power but to return the Order in hæc verba; and therefore what they think fit to return farther, the Court can take no Notice of.

( 59 )
It is not necessary to shew in the Order, that the Person did not rent a Tenement of 10 l. per Annum. Vide ante 491. Post 524, 536. Farrell. 54. Mod. Cases 88. S. C. Carth. 365. TWO Orders were returned, the first for settling a poor Man, one Thomas Gill, and the second a Confirmation of the first, upon an Appeal to the Quarter-Sessions: The first Order recited, *That whereas Complaint hath been made to us, &c. That T. G. had of late intruded into the Parish of St. George's, We adjudge him to be last legally settled at St. Olave's: These are therefore to require you to convey the said Tho. THE Court of Quarter-Sessions of Middlesex made an Order, and afterwards the same Sessions vacated it by a subsequent Order, and a Certiorari being brought, both Orders were returned thereon. Et per Holt C. J. You should not have returned the vacated Order, but only the latter. This is as if we disliking our Judgment, should the same Term make an Entry of two different Judgments, and return both upon a Writ of Error, which ought not to be: The Sessions is all one Day, and the Justices may alter their Judgment at any Time, while it continues: Thus, at the Old Baily, you see Judgment de Pain fort & dure given; and yet, if the Party will plead, we will set aside that Judgment, and admit him to plead.

H. outlawed for Misdemeanor, cannot be thereon fined for the Fact. See 1 Lev. 33, 34. 2 Lev. 49. Raym. 17. 2 Chan. Caf. 44.

ONE was outlawed upon an Information for seducing a young Gentleman to marry a young Woman of a lewd Character, and fined 5000*l.* And it was moved in behalf of the Defendant, that he could not be fined upon the Outlawry, because in Misdemeanor the Outlawry does not enure as a Conviction for the Offence, as it does in Cases of Treason and Felony; but as a Conviction of the Contempt for not answering, which Contempt is punished by the Forfeiture of his Goods and Chattels; and if he might be fined now, he must be fined again upon the principal Judgment. And the first was held to be irregular, for the Outlawry in these Cases is not a Conviction, as appears by Fleta 42. Quamvis quis pro contumacia & fuga utlagetur, non propter hoc convictus est de facto principali.

ARTHUR was outlawed for Felony upon five Indictments, and afterwards came in, and was brought to the Bar, and asked what he had to say, why Judgment should not be given? He produced five Writs of Error. Et per Holt C. J. If there be no Lands, the Attorney General may confess Error, and then he shall plead presently, and be tried upon the Indictments. If there be Lands, there must be a Scire facias against the Lords, mediate and immediate, to shew Cause why he should not have Restitution. But if it be suggested on the Roll that he has no Lands, and the Attorney General confesses it, there needs no Scire facias. (5) Error to reverse Outlawry for Felony; if there be Lands there must go a Scire Facias; but if Attorney General confess on Record that there are none, no Scire facias is necessary. S. C. Note; The Recognizance was taken pursuant to 31 Eliz. c. 3. Note; Now per 4 & 5 W. & M. one outlawed, except for Treason or Felony, need not appear in Person to reverse an Outlawry, but by Attorney. (6) Defendant need not appear in Person to reverse Outlawry, except in Treason or Felony. Vide ante Pl. 4. 1 Wilson 3. 2 Stra. 1178.

Symmons versus Bingoe and Cook. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R.

THE Defendant Bingoe being a Feme, and waived upon Process of Outlawry, 'twas now moved on her Behalf, that upon filing common Bail, she might have Liberty to reverse the Outlawry. Per Cur', The Writ of Error to reverse the Outlawry, must be brought in the Name of both the Parties that are outlawed; and if one only appears, the other may be summoned and severed, and then the Outlawry may be reversed for the Benefit of him who appears only. Before it can be reversed for want of Proclamations, the Party outlawed must give Bail to appear, and to answer in another Action. (7) If two are outlawed, Error to reverse must be brought in the Name of both, but one may be summoned and severed. Cro. El. 270, 278.

If the Party outlawed comes in gratis upon the Return of the Exigent, Alias or Pluries, he may be admitted by Motion, to reverse the Outlawry, for any other Cause, but want of Proclamations, without putting in Bail. If he comes in by Cepi Corpus, then he shall not be admitted to reverse the Outlawry, without appearing in Person, as in such Case he was obliged to do at Common Law; or putting in Bail with the Sheriff for his Appearance upon the Return of the Cepi Corpus, and for doing what the Court shall order. Appearing by Attorney is an Indulgence by 4 & 5 W. & M. and the Bail is to be special or common in this, as in other Cases. If H. comes in gratis, he may reverse without Bail; otherwise if by Cepi Corpus. Cro. El. 707.

Pardon General and Special.

Dominus Rex versus Parsons. Hill. 3 W. & M. B. R.

PARSONS was indicted, convicted, and attainted for the Murder of Mr. Wade, and pleaded their Majesties Pardon; and Note, it was for Murder by express Words, without any Non obstante, the Non obstante being taken away by the Statute of W. & M. And Holt C. J. asked for the Writ of Allowance, which should certify he had found Surety of the Peace within eight Months after the Pardon; whereupon the Writ of Allowance was read: And Holt C. J. said, That the Court ought not to allow the Pardon till thus certified, and that this was a Condition precedent, by the Statute of Edw. 3. and Winnington moved, that the Pardon ought not to be allowed; arguing, That the Crime could not be pardoned: But Holt C. J. said, There was as good Reason why the King should pardon an Indictment of Murder, which is his Suit, as why a Subject should discharge an Appeal, which is the Suit of the Subject; and that the King was, by his Coronation-Oath, to shew Mercy as well as to do Justice. He said, the Statute of 2 Ed. 3. c. 3. meant only, that the King should be fully informed, before he pardoned any Felony; and that the Reason of that, and other restrictive Statutes, was for that after the Statute of Gloucester, c. 9. upon a Murder done, it was usual to apply to the Lord Chancellor, and gain a Pardon by undue Means and false Suggestions, with general Words in it; and this was the Occasion of those restrictive Statutes, that Application should be made to the King in Person, to the Intent the King himself might be apprized of the Matter. By 13 R. 2. c. 2. great Difficulties are put upon those that shall be Suitors for a Pardon of Murder, they are to incur a Penalty, &c. but this was found grievous to the Subject, and therefore was repealed by 16 R. 2. c. 26. which shews the Necessity there is, that the King should have a Power to pardon; upon which the Pardon was allowed.

Foxworthy's Case. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. 2 Ld. Raym. 848. S. C.

FOXWORTHY pleaded his Pardon, and there was a Mistake in the Proceedings: At another Day he came, and having got the Fault amended, it was allowed. His Creditors now moved that they might have Leave to charge him with Actions, as in Custodia, but were not permitted to do it: For per Holt C. J. That might defeat the Queen's Pardon, by rendering him incapable of performing the Condition, which is, to go beyond the Seas, &c. and this is not unreasonable; for without the Pardon the Attainder had continued, and he must have been hanged; and there is no Reason why the Pardon should put the Creditors in a better Condition than otherwise they would have been, to the Prejudice of the Party; for the Pardon was given for his Benefit, and not for the Benefit of his Creditors.

Prideaux versus Morris. Trin. 2 Ann. B. R.

IN an Action on the Case for a false Return of Parliament-Men, against the Sheriff, the Plaintiff declared, That whereas he was duly elected, the Sheriff returned A. B. to be duly elected, who was, in Fact not duly elected. Mr. King objected, That the Right of Election was only to be determined in the House of Commons; for that it was a Parliamentary Matter, which ought not to be tried here, no more than the Right of Precedence. Mr. Eyre contra, That this Court may determine what is an Act of Parliament, 8 Co. 1. their Privileges, Mo. 67. 1 Ro. 903. Dyer 275. the Right of Peerage: And here the Right of Election is no otherwise in Question, than as it is incident to the Falsity. Holt C. J. The Cause of the Plaintiff's Suit is a Wrong done out of Parliament, and whatever falls under the Regulation of Law, and is done out of the Houses of Parliament, is subject to the Law of the Land, for Laws are to be executed out of Parliament; but as for the Rules of the *House, as Sitting, Meeting, &c. they are within the House, and the Judges

Judges cannot know them, there being no Practice of them out of Parliament: But if the Parliament should make a Law concerning them, or they should become necessary to be determined on the Account of some other Matter cognizable by the Judges, the Judges must take Notice and determine them, as in Bynion's Case.

And Holt C. J. seemed to be of Opinion, 1st, That for a double Return no Action lay against the Sheriff before the Statute of 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 7. not only because 'tis the only Method the Sheriff has to indemnify himself; but when the Right comes to be determined in Parliament, one Indenture returned is taken off the File, and then there is no double Return. 2dly, He seemed to think, that for a false Return the Party could have no Action, where there might be a Determination in the House of Commons, because of the Inconvenience of contrary Resolutions; and so if a Suit be between A. and B. A. is voted elected, B. cannot bring an Action, and say, that he was duly elected and returned, because his Name does not appear upon Record; and he is estopped to say, that A. was not duly elected and returned; but where the Right of Election either is determined, or cannot be determined in Parliament, as in case of a Dissolution, an Action lies for the false Return, for the Courts at Law can neither anticipate nor contradict their Judgment. Upon a Writ of Error of Judgment in C. B. for the Defendant.

THE Defendants having been committed to Newgate by the House of Commons, were now brought into Court by several Writs of Habeas Corpus; and the Cause of their Commitment was returned to be a Warrant signed Robert Harley, Speaker, requiring the Keeper of Newgate to take into his Custody the several Persons, Defendants, for having commenced and prosecuted an Action at Law against the Constables of Aylesbury, for refusing their Votes in the Election of Members of Parliament, in Contempt of the Jurisdiction and open Breach of the known Privileges of the House of Commons. Mr. Lechmere, Page, Mountague and Denion, who were of Counsel for the Prisoners, prayed that they might be discharged for several Reasons. 1st, Because the Warrant was not under Seal, as it ought to be. 2dly, Because the Commitment was to remain during Pleasure. 3dly, Because they had done no unlawful Act; for the Prosecution of a Suit is lawful, and no Breach of the Privilege of that House. But Powell, Powys and Gould, Justices, held, 1st, That the Commitment was well enough in Form; because * it was according to the usual Manner of Commitments by that House. 2dly, That the House of Commons were the proper Judges of their own Privileges; and this Court was now estopped to say, That this was not a Breach of the Privileges of the House of Commons, or that the House of Commons had no such Privilege. Holt C. J. contra said, That this was no Breach of Privilege of the House of Commons; that the commencing and Prosecution of an Action did not necessarily imply a going farther than the bare filing and continuing of an Original, which is no Breach of Privilege: He said, the Suit was no Breach of Privilege, nor can their Judgment make it so, nor conclude this Court from determining contrary; when the House of Commons exceed their legal Bounds and Authority, their Acts are wrongful, and cannot be justified, more than the Acts of private Men: That there was no Question but their Authority is from the Law, and as it is circumscribed, so it may be exceeded: To say, they are Judges of their own Privileges and their own Authority, and no Body else, is to make their Privileges to be as they would have them: If there be a wrongful Imprisonment by the House of Commons, what Court shall deliver the Party? Shall we say, there is no Redress, and that we are not able to execute those Laws, upon which the Liberty of the Queen's People subsists? To conclude, All Courts are so far Judges of their own Privileges, and entrusted with a Power to vindicate themselves, that they may punish for Contempts; but to make them, or any Court, final Judges of them, exclusive of every Body else, is to introduce a State of Confusion, by

This was endeavoured to be made good upon the Statute 7 & 8 W. 3. But Sir Tho. Parker, for the Defendant, answered, That this Declaration cannot be taken to be founded upon that Statute, because the Fact was laid not agreeable to it, nor was it such an Action as was intended by the Statute, which differs from a general Action; for first, an Action grounded upon a general Prohibition of a Statute, ought not to be for the Party only, but the Queen and Party tam quam; for a Fine is due to the Queen for the Breach of the Statute, as well as Satisfaction to the Party injured. Et per Cur. Where a Statute introduces a new Law, by giving an Action where there was none before, or by giving a new Action in an old Case, the Plaintiff need not conclude contra formam Statuti. ### * Peers of the Realm.

Rex & Regina versus Knollys. Trin. 6 W. & M. B. R. 1 Ld.
Raym. 10. S. C.

INDICTMENT was found at Hicks's Hall against Charles Knollys, for the Murder of Captain Lawson, which was removed into B. R. The Defendant pleaded in Abatement, That William Knollys, Viscount Warrington, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of England, which he produced in Court, bearing Date August 18. 2 Car. 1. was created Earl of Banbury, to him and the Heirs Male of his Body: That William had Issue Nicholas, who succeeded him in the said Title; and that the said Honour descended to him the Defendant from the said Nicholas, as Son and Heir: Et hoc paratus est verificare. It was replied, That 14 Decemb. 4 W. & M. the said Defendant petitioned the Lords then assembled in Parliament to be tried by his Peers, and the Lords disallowed his Peerage, and dismissed the Petition.

The Defendant demurred, and the Attorney General joined in Demurrer.

The first Point considered per Holt C. J. was, What an Earldom was, and wherein it consisted?

Before the Time of Ed. 3. there were but two Titles of Nobility, viz. Earls and Barons.

Barons were originally created by Tenure, afterwards by Writ, and last of all by Patent; scil. about 11 R. 2.

As to Earls, 1st, They were always created by Letters Patent. Vide Seld. 536.

2dly, An Earldom consisted in Office for the Defence of the Kingdom. Vide Braet. lib. 1. c. 8. Comites had their Name, not from Counties, but a comitando Regem. 9 Co. 49. It may be intailed as any other Office may, within Westm. 2.

3dly, Earldoms consist of Rent and Possessions, &c. which were anciently great. Vide Mag. Cbar. The Relief of his Heir is 100*l.* This being premised, he went on to consider the Objections:

1st, That it is not alledged by the Defendant, that he is unus parium Regni Angliae, but only unus parium Regni; nor is Banbury alledged to be in England, and an Irish Peer may be made under the Great Seal of England.

Baron.
Earl, his Creation and Office. Note; In the Saxon Times the Earls of Counties being officary, were elected by the Freeholders in their Folkmotes, and were removeable for male Administration Vide LL. Edw. c. 35 LL. Eadgari, c. 5. LL. Canuti, c. 17. and Saxon Chron. sub Anno 1055.

Peers of the Realm.

* To this he answered, That the Great Seal of England is appropriated to King may create an Irish Peer under the Great Seal of England, and what is done under it has Relation to England, and to no other Place; and though the King may create an Irish Peer under his Great Seal of England, yet that must be by express Words, being by special Act of Prerogative. Dyer 303. Words. 2 Vent. 4. * P. 510

The Place from whence an Earl takes his Title, is not material; 'tis not necessary there should be such a Place in England, or indeed any where. Albemarle is not in England; and there is really no such Place as Rivers, though we have an Earl of that Name. Place whence Title is taken, not material.

2dly, 'Tis objected, That the Defendant ought to have concluded his Plea, with prout patet per Recordum, and have produced a Writ to certify the Descents.

As to the Writ to certify the Descents, that is not of Necessity, but used merely for Expedition; and if his Peerage had been created by Writ, then it would have been triable by the Record, and this a fatal Exception: But Letters Patent may be pleaded and shewn to the Court, and the adverse Party cannot deny them: And as this Case is, here being Descents, if the Defendant had concluded as the King's Counsel say he should, it would have been an impracticable Conclusion, and consequently void. And in the Precedents cited of the other Side, there were no Letters Patent pleaded; nor could there in this Case be any such Issue as Earl, or not Earl; for the Letters Patent under the Great Seal could not be denied or questioned, but by pleading Non concessit.

3dly, That the Defendant is concluded of his Peerage by the Order of the House of Lords.

To this Eyre J. said, The Defendant had a Title to his Honour by legal Conveyance, and that it was under the Protection of the Common Law, and could not be taken from him but by legal Means. That the House of Lords could no more deprive one of a Peerage, than they could confer a Peerage: That the Defendant's Right stood upon the Letters Patent, and his Legitimacy; that the Letters Patent could not be cancelled without a Scire facias; and that the Defendant could not now be proved a Bastard, or illegitimate. House of Lords cannot deprive of Peerage. Parliament Cas. 2, 3, &c.

Holt C. J. gave these Reasons: 1st, That this Order was not a Judgment of Parliament; the Parliament consists of the King, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons: The judicial Power is in the Lords only; yet legally and virtually it is the Judgment of the King, if not of the Commons; and Writs of Error in Parliament are coram nobis in presenti Parlamento. Vide Fleta, c. 17. Judicial Power of Parliament is in the Peers, but 'tis virtually the Judgment of the King. All Jurisdiction from the Crown.

All Power of Jurisdiction is derived from the King; if that be an Author to be credited.

* The House of Lords has a double Authority, as Parliament and the Course of the House, between which we must distinguish by their Style. Journals are no Records of Parliament, and therefore we cannot take Notice of them. Hob. 110. King and Hunsdown versus Arundal and Howard. Judgments ought to be given in their proper Style; and therefore if this Court, which is coram Rege, enter Judgment per Justiciarios de B. R. 'tis void. House of Peers has a double Authority, * P. 511

The House of Lords has no Jurisdiction over an original Cause mixed with Matter of Fact; because, 1st, that Supreme Court is the Dernier Resort; besides that, for the most part, original Causes are mixed with Matter of Fact, and it is below the Dignity of so supreme a Judicature to try a Matter of Fact: 'Tis for this Reason, Error in Fact, in the Court of King's Bench, must of Necessity be redressed before the Judges of this Court. 2dly, If the Parliament should take Cognizance of original Causes, the Subject would lose his Appeal, so much indulged by the Common Law in all Cases. Causes come not thither, till they have tried all other Judicatures: For this Reason, within these four Years, Judgment was given against the Earl of Macclesfield in the Exchequer; he brought Error in the House of Lords; and the Question was, Whether by 31 Eliz. 3. the Exchequer-Chamber should not interpose? And the Writ was abated; and it was held, that the Exchequer-Chamber should interpose. This Dignity is a Title by Common Law; and if a Patentee be disturbed of his Dignity, the regular Course is, to petition the King, who indorses it, and sends it into the Chancery. Vide Staundf. Where a Patentee is disturbed of Dignity, how to proceed.

Peers of the Realm.

Staundf. Prerog. 72. 22 E. 3. 5. Long 5° E. 4. 117. The King could give Precedency by the Common Law, but is bound by 31 H. 8. c. 10.

If a Peer commits Treason; he must be tried by his Peers, and they may order a Trial; but the King may chuse whether he will make a High Steward.

2dly, No Plea was depending in the House of Lords, for the Defendant did not petition to enjoy, but supposed himself in Possession.

4thly, Here was no Judgment. A Court can give no Judgment in a Thing not depending, or that does not come in a judicial Way before that Court: Here the Title of the Earldom was not before them. If Trespass be brought for a Trespass done in the Ground belonging to a House, and it appears at the Trial the Plaintiff has no Title to the House, yet the Court cannot give Judgment to turn him out.

Judgment must be complete and formal.

* P. 512

Dismission is no Judgment.

5thly, A Judgment ought to be complete and formal: If a Quo Warranto be brought for usurping Royal Franchises, and the Court give their Opinion that the Defendant has no Title; yet unless they go on, Et quod ab inde excludatur, &c. it is nothing. So in the Case of Lovell, 2 Cro. 284. In Debt on an Obligation the Defendant pleaded a Bar by Verdict and Judgment in a former * Action wherein the Entry was, that the Defendant should recover Costs, Et quod eat inde sine die: Here, because there was no Judgment, quod querens nil capiat per breve, it was adjudged naught; for Dismission is no Judgment in a Court of Law.

Objection: It is said that this Judgment was given secundum legem Parliamenti.

Lex Parliamenti. Ant. 503; 504.

Answ. Lex Parliamenti must be looked on as the Law of the Kingdom; but admitting it were a particular Law, yet if a Question arises determinable in the King's Bench, the King's Bench must determine it. Vide Dy. 60.

Inheritances not originally determinable in Parliament.

14 Car. 2. C. B. Binion versus Eveling. Filing an Original against a Parliament-Man was adjudged to be no Breach of Privilege. If a Man be committed by Parliament, and the Parliament is prorogued, this Court will grant a Habeas Corpus. But no Precedent hath been shewn to warrant the determining Inheritances originally per legem Parliamenti; if it be so determinable, it must be by Act of Parliament, but there is no such; or by Custom, but there is no such Custom: But if Inheritances were determinable in Parliament, without their having Jurisdiction, they would have uncontrollable Power, and res est misera, ubi jus est vagum. And he concluded that Judgment should be given for the Defendant, and accordingly the Indictment was abated: So the Defendant was not tried for the Murder at all.

Perjury.

Perjury.

Dominus Rex versus Greepe. Mich. 9 Will. 3. B. R. 1 Ld Raym.
256. S. C. Comyns 43. S. C.

AN Information for Perjury set forth, That the Defendant, upon giving a Lease and Release in Evidence in a certain Cause, bearing Date the 15th and 16th of July 1681, executed at Albemarle House, to which Mr. Stroud was Witness, swore that Mr. Stroud was the Middle of July 1611. at Newnham, innuendo Newnham in Devonshire, ubi revera non fuit apud N. predicti. A Verdict was for the King but Judgment was arrested; and it was held;

1st, That Newnham was but an individuum vagum without the Innuendo, and might be as well Newnham in Middlesex as Newnham in Devonshire, or some far distant Place: And if Newnham was at the next Door, Stroud might be at Newnham, and yet be at Albemarle House in Middlesex too in the Middle of July.

2dly, That the Innuendo could not restrain the Individuum vagum to Newnham in Devonshire; for it is no Averment, but in the Nature of a Prædict. It may serve for an Explanation to point out where there is precedent Matter, but never for a new Charge: It may apply what is already expressed, but cannot add or enlarge, or change the Sense of the precedent Words: So here, the Word Newnham did not import Newnham in Devonshire; ergo, the Innuendo cannot enlarge the Importance of it, and make it so significant. Vide Sty. 333. 3 Cro. 428. Goldsb. 191. Hob. 3, 6, 45. 1 Ro. 82, 83, 84. 2 Bul. 81, 82. 1 Ven. 337. Hutt. 44. 4 Co. 20. Yelv. 21. 1 Cro. 321. A. 32.

* 3dly, That a Man ought not to be drawn into a constructive Perjury; and that if the Matter of this Oath was certain, it is material to the Issue, and sufficient to be Perjury; and Holt C. J. denied Golds. 191, and held, that if a Man gives Evidence to the Credit of a Witness, though this be not the Issue, yet 'tis Perjury.

4thly As to the Objection, That this was an Information at Common Law, and not on the Statute, that makes no Difference as to the Certainty of the Charge; for 'tis no more infamous now than it was at Common Law; the Difference is only, That where H. is convict upon the Statute, 'tis Part of the Judgment to be disabled; but at Common Law 'tis only a consequential Disability: Ergo, in the later Case the King may pardon, and that restores him to his Testimony; otherwise in the former, for in that Case he must reverse the Judgment, or cannot be restored.

AServant came into the Parish of S. was hired for a Year, and having served Half a Year of the Time, married a Woman in the Parish of Witty; and the Question was, 1st, Whether the Justices on Complaint of the Churchwardens could make an Order to remove him to the Place of his last legal Settlement? 2dly, Whether his serving here would not gain a Settlement? To the first Point it was admitted, That the Contract between the Master and Servant was not dissolved by the Marriage; and that admitting it might be dissolved by an Order made on Complaint of the Master, yet without that, and upon Complaint of the Officers only, it could not be dissolved; therefore Broderick (of Counsel) admitted that the Justices could not in the principal Case so remove him, as that he could not come to serve his Master, but held he might be removed, so as that the Order should disturb him, and prevent a Settlement; and this he said was a Medium * that would neither prejudice the Contract, nor evade the Statute. He compared it to an Order to remove on 14 Car. 2 before forty Days Stay; in which Case the very making of the Order obstructed a Settlement; and it may be executed after the forty Days. Holt C. J. and Powell contra, That an Order to disturb him and not remove him, was not within the Meaning of the Act; disturbing him, without Power to remove, is vain; and this does not unsettle, nor is it like the Case of forty Days. 2dly, It was questioned, Whether such a Stay, &c. would gain a Settlement; because the Statute makes the Party's being unmarried a Qualification as well as his Stay, viz. If any such Person, being unmarried, being hired, &c. Such Service, &c. So that the Words such Service goes to all, not only the Stay, but the State of the Party. To this Powell inclined; *Holt C. He became poor, and his Children under the Age of seven Years were sent back to Cumner, by order of two Justices, which was confirmed at the Sessions. Powell J. held, That when a Child is sent with the Parents by reason of Nurture, it gains no Settlement; but here the Children did not come to Milton by Order. The Childrens Settlement shall not be divided from the Father, for that would be unnatural. When a Man gains a Settlement for himself, his Wife and Servants, he shall gain a Settlement for his Children also; but if a Widow having Children under the Age of seven Years, marries a Man of another Parish, the Children shall go with the Mother for Nurture, but after seven Years of Age they shall be sent back to the Parish where their Father was settled, for she cannot gain a Settlement for them in this last Parish, being under Coverture, and having a Settlement there herself only as Part of her Husband's Family, from whom she cannot be severed. Holt C. J. Birth is a Settlement, and the first Settlement; and there must be another second Settlement by forty Days, &c. to alter the primary Settlement. A Child under the Age of seven Years is accounted a Nurse-Child. If a Child be put out to Nurse, or for Education, though it be above seven Years * old, it gains no Settlement thereby, as it was held in Sir Paul Jenkinson's Case. The Question here is, Whether the first Settlement by Birth be altered? It is hard, I confess, to remove the Child from the Father. Gould J. The Child may be removed after the Age of seven Years, but not before; he is sent with his Father for Nurture only. Holt C. J. Suppose the Father and Mother come to A. and then go to the Parish of B. and within forty Days the Mother be delivered of a Child; the Child, though legitimate, shall be settled where it was born. The principal Case is fit to be well considered; the Father indeed ought to maintain his Children, but the Question is, Whether the Children by living with the Father gain a Settlement? The Justices cannot remove the Children from the Father till he fall to Decay. Afterwards this was moved again. Et per Holt C. J. The Question is, When the Father comes with his Children to Milton, and gains a Settlement there, whether that does not also give a new Settlement to his Children, and unsettle them as to Cumner, the Place of their Birth? If a Father be settled and die, his Wife being big with Child, and after that the Mother dies before she is delivered, and afterwards the Child is born, the Child is settled there by his Birth. In this Case the Settlement of the Father at Milton, is a Settlement to the Children. The Child is settled by Birth only, where 'tis an accidental Settlement. The Order was quashed.

UPON a Special Order of Sessions the Case was, H. was settled at Cumner, and had several Children born there: Afterwards he removed to Milton, and gained a Settlement there, by renting a Tenement of the Value of 10*l.* per Annum. He became poor, and his Children under the Age of seven Years were sent back to Cumner, by order of two Justices, which was confirmed at the Sessions. Powell J. held, That when a Child is sent with the Parents by reason of Nurture, it gains no Settlement; but here the Children did not come to Milton by Order. The Childrens Settlement shall not be divided from the Father, for that would be unnatural. When a Man gains a Settlement for himself, his Wife and Servants, he shall gain a Settlement for his Children also; but if a Widow having Children under the Age of seven Years, marries a Man of another Parish, the Children shall go with the Mother for Nurture, but after seven Years of Age they shall be sent back to the Parish where their Father was settled, for she cannot gain a Settlement for them in this last Parish, being under Coverture, and having a Settlement there herself only as Part of her Husband's Family, from whom she cannot be severed. Holt C. J. Birth is a Settlement, and the first Settlement; and there must be another second Settlement by forty Days, &c. to alter the primary Settlement. A Child under the Age of seven Years is accounted a Nurse-Child. If a Child be put out to Nurse, or for Education, though it be above seven Years * old, it gains no Settlement thereby, as it was held in Sir Paul Jenkinson's Case. The Question here is, Whether the first Settlement by Birth be altered? It is hard, I confess, to remove the Child from the Father. Gould J. The Child may be removed after the Age of seven Years, but not before; he is sent with his Father for Nurture only. Holt C. J. Suppose the Father and Mother come to A. and then go to the Parish of B. and within forty Days the Mother be delivered of a Child; the Child, though legitimate, shall be settled where it was born. The principal Case is fit to be well considered; the Father indeed ought to maintain his Children, but the Question is, Whether the Children by living with the Father gain a Settlement? The Justices cannot remove the Children from the Father till he fall to Decay. Afterwards this was moved again. Et per Holt C. J. The Question is, When the Father comes with his Children to Milton, and gains a Settlement there, whether that does not also give a new Settlement to his Children, and unsettle them as to Cumner, the Place of their Birth? If a Father be settled and die, his Wife being big with Child, and after that the Mother dies before she is delivered, and afterwards the Child is born, the Child is settled there by his Birth. In this Case the Settlement of the Father at Milton, is a Settlement to the Children. The Child is settled by Birth only, where 'tis an accidental Settlement. The Order was quashed.

The Man became chargeable, and was sent back to B. who found that he was last legally settled at A. and sent him thither. Et per Holt C. J. The Reason of the Act of Parliament about Certificates, was only to encourage Parishes where poor Persons were minded to go, to receive * them; and therefore it enacts, That when the poor Person shall be chargeable, the Parish which gave the Certificate shall receive and provide for him as a settled Inhabitant, which Words lay an Obligation upon the Parish which gave him the Certificate to receive and provide for him against that Parish which they gave the Certificate to. But as to all other Parishes, they are as they were before, for the Conclusion is only by reason of the Words of the Act of Parliament, which extend only to the Parish to which he was sent; by Consequence the Conclusion can extend no farther. Powell J. This Way of giving Certificates was a Thing commonly practised before this Act of Parliament, and it was made only to oblige the Parish who gave the Certificate to receive him again of the other Parish to which the Certificate was given: But the Intent of that was not to make a new Settlement which was not before. But per Holt C. J. Such Certificate is a mighty Evidence before the Justices; and so is a Demand and Refusal of a Conversion, which yet being specially found, will not be a Conversion.

T. the Lessor; and that while H. lived there he took his Freedom in the Corporation, and once voted as a Freeman at the Election of Bailiffs for the Corporation. The Justices at the Quarter-Sessions adjudged this to be a good Settlement: But upon the Motion of Serjeant Broderick it was quashed: He insisted that since the explanatory Act 3 & 4 W. & M. nothing makes a Settlement within that Statute that not comes within the Words; an explanatory Act implying a Negative of any Thing else *Et per Holt C. If a Service under several Contracts shall gain a Settlement, one that serves by the Month, by the Week, or by the Day, may, if he continues a Year, gain a Settlement; one may hire by the Day for Charity; but there is Danger of being chargeable in hiring such a Person by the Year: For such a Term as a Year it is not supposed a Master would hire one, unless able of Body, and so a Person not likely to become chargeable. Also the Chief Justice observed, that by the Statute of Eliz. the Retainer of Servants was for a Year; that 14 Car. 2. requires forty Days Stay, and that this was inconvenient, for by gaining a Settlement in forty Days, Servants grew insolent; and that these latter Acts, viz. 3 & 4 W. 3. c. 11. 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. do but turn the forty Days Service into a Year's Service, and the Hiring to be a Retainer for a Year according to the Statute of Eliz.

IN Ejectment a Special Verdict was found, That G. P. was seised of the Manor of M. and on the Marriage of his Son, settled the said Manor to the Use of himself for Life, Remainder to his Wife for Life, Remainder to his Son in Tail, with a Proviso, That he should have Power during his Life, and so the Wife after him, to demise the Premises in Possession, for one, two, or three Lives, or in Reversion for one, two, or three Lives, or thirty Years, or for any Number of Years determinable on one, two, or three Lives, so as such Demise be not of the Demesne Lands. G. P. reciting that J. S. and his Wife held a Copyhold Tenement for Life, demised the said Copyhold Tenement to the Lessee for thirty Years, to begin after the Death, Surrender, or Forfeiture of J. S. and his Wife; and the Question being, Whether this Lease of a Copyhold was pursuant to, and warranted by the Power? It was held in this Case by Holt C. J.

1st, That any Lease, to commence in futuro, is in some Sense a Lease in Reversion, as it is opposed to a Lease in Possession; but a Lease within such a Power must be construed of a Lease to commence in Possession after another Lease or Interest already created before the Reservation of the Power and not after; and that a Lease to commence after any other Lease, is properly a Lease in Reversion; but that a Lease for Life, to commence after another Lease in Being, is a concurrent Lease; because a Freehold cannot expect, but must commence in Possession presently; however, this may be said to be a Lease in Reversion within such Powers.

2dly, That G. P. might make a Lease in Reversion absolutely for thirty Years, by Virtue of this Power, because the Limitations and Restrictions are disjoined, and the latter Part is carried on by Way of Enlargement of the Power; to which Turton and Eyre agreed, Rokeby dissentiente.

3dly, That this Lease was void, because it was of Copyhold Lands; for by a Grant of the Demesnes the Copyholds will pass; and by the same Reason, by excepting the Demesnes the Copyholds * are excepted; and the rather, because the Power is derived out of the Inheritance, and the Tenant at Will by his Leases might destroy the Copyhold, which is unreasonable; and if there were nothing else for the Power to work upon in this Case, he may by Virtue thereof demise the Rents and Services.

Dominus Rex & Domina Regina versus The Bishop of London and Dr. Birch. Mich. 7 W. 3. B. R.

IN a Quare Impedit against the Bishop of London and Dr. Birch, for hindering to present to the Parish-Church of St. James's, the Declaration set forth, That St. Martin's in the Fields being a great Parish, an Act of Parliament was made 1 Jac. 2. to take the Parish of St. James out of it, and make it a Parish of it self with Cure of Souls, and Dr. Tennison, who was then Vicar of St. Martin's, the first Rector; and appointing the Patronage, after the Death of Dr. Tennison, to the Bishop of London and his Successors, and the Lord Jermyn and his Heirs alternately: Virtute cujus Dr. Tennison was first Rector, and being so, was afterwards made Bishop of Lincoln; whereupon it belonged to the King and Queen to present by Prerogative: To this the Bishop demurred, and Dr. Birch pleaded the Statute of 25 H. 8. and that by Virtue of the said Act, the Archbishop of Canterbury gave Dr. Tennison a Dispensation to hold this Church in Commendam; which the King confirmed, from the 22d Day of October till the first of July following, &c. To this the Attorney General demurred. 1st, It was objected for the Defendant that this Prerogative was unreasonable; but the Court answered, That since the King made the Church void, it was no hard Matter that he should be allowed to fill it; and the Patron was not much hurt, for it was only one Life exchanged for another; and Sir Giles Eyre held, That if a Parson be promoted to be a Bishop, the Church was void by the Common Law; but the Reason of it was not from the Incompatibility, because originally the Bishop was incumbent of the whole Diocese, and served the Cure by others: and the Court did admit that the Crown did not anciently exercise this Prerogative, but the Pope did by Usurpation; and that notwithstanding the Statute of Provisors, 25 E. 3. the Pope would collate if the Incumbent was made a Bishop, 4 E. 3. 5. Owen 144. 3dly, This being a new Patronage created by Act of Parliament, not in esse before, which appoints a particular Person to have the first Turn after the next Avoidance; it was objected, That no Body could say the King should present, when the Act said otherwise; and this was therefore a Case exempt from the Prerogative: But the Court held, that the Act did not interfere with the Prerogative. UPON a Conviction of Deer-stealing by Justices of Peace, on the late Statute, the Question was, Whether one not present, but procuring, advising, and abetting, by lending his Gun, Dog, &c. before the Fact, should be said to be aiding and abetting therein? Holt C. J. inclined, 1st, That he was not within the Words, not being actually present at the Fact, because the Statute is to be construed strictly, for that it takes away the Privilege of a better Trial, viz. per pares. 2dly, Because it adds a farther Penalty to what was an Offence before: He said there might be an aiding and abetting before the Fact, viz. by Advice, &c. or in the Fact, by being present; or after the Fact, by abetting the Party. Vide Dy. 187. Co. Ent. 56. The other Judges held Aiders in the Fact would be Principals, and then Aiders and Abettors would mean nothing. Quod Holt negavit, saying, All that are present may be said to be Principals as to an Action of Trespass, but not as to the Penalty of this Statute: And this Diversity is apparent in other Cases, for one aiding and assisting upon the Statute of Stabbing shall have his Clergy, whereas a Principal shall not; so in the Case where two went to break a House, one broke it and entered, the other stood upon the Ladder and received the Goods; he that stood upon the Ladder shall have his Clergy, and the other shall not, being a Principal.

Powel, Powys and Gould, Justices, held that it was; but Holt C. J. contra held, That the Conviction ought to be quashed; for that where a Statute makes that Felony, which was not so at Common Law, Aiders and Abettors, according to the Notion of the Common Law, are within the Statute, tho' not expressed; but where an Offence at Common Law is only made more penal, Aiders and Abettors are not to be understood of such as aid before and after the Fact, but such as are present only: These were only Accessaries at Common Law, and are not within the Act. AN Executor being sued for a Legacy in the Spiritual Court, pleaded Payment, and offered to prove it by one Witness, which the Judge refused, and gave Sentence against him. Upon this Matter suggested, a Prohibition was moved for. Et per Cur', 1st, Where the Ecclesiastical Court proceed in a Matter merely Spiritual, if they proceed in their own Manner, tho' that is different from the Common Law, no Prohibition lies; as in Probate of Wills; there, if they refuse one Witness, no Prohibition lies. Noy 12. 2 Ro. 300. 2dly, Where they have Conusance of the original Matter, and an Incident happens which is of temporal Conusance, or triable by the Common Law, they shall try the Incident, but must try it as the Common Law would: Thus in a Suit for Tithes or for a Legacy, if the Defendant pleads a Release or Payment, or in a Suit to prove a Will, if the Defendant pleads a Revocation. 1 Ro. So in the Case at Bar, they shall try the Matter of Payment or no Payment, but then they must admit such Proof as the Common Law would, or otherwise they reject the Cause themselves, and ought to be prohibited. 3dly, A bare Suggestion, That the Defendant has but one Witness, and that they take Exceptions to his Credit and Reputation, is no Cause of

for that by Custom Time out of Mind the Vicars of S. had by themselves, or others, said and performed Divine Service in the Chapel of Charbury, for which there was such a Recompence; and that he neglected. The Defendant came for a Prohibition, and without traversing this Custom, suggested that all Customs were triable at Common Law: And Mr. Harcourt urged, That it was enough for a Prohibition, that a Custom appeared to charge the Vicar with a Duty for which he was not liable of common Right. Et per Holt C. J. A Parson may be bound to an Ecclesiastical Duty by Custom, and when he is bound by Custom, the Spiritual Court may punish him if he neglects that Duty;
the Custom might have a reasonable Commencement by Composition in the Spiritual Court, and begin by an Ecclesiastical Act: And a bare Prescription only is not a sufficient Ground for a Prohibition, unless it concerns a Layman; whereas here it is an Ecclesiastical Right, an Ecclesiastical Person and an Ecclesiastical

INDICTMENT was for assaulting, beating, wounding, and endeavouring to ravish the Wife of B. upon which the Party was convicted, and afterwards the Husband brought an Action of Trespass for the same Cause; and now the Party being also libelled against in the Spiritual Court for the same Fact, viz. for soliciting her Chastity, moved for a Prohibition to the Proceedings in the Spiritual Court; and it was urged for the Jurisdiction of the Spiritual Court, That they may punish for the Solicitation and Incontinence, and that this Suit was pro salute anime, the other for Fine and Damages. Sed per Cur. A Prohibition was granted; for it being an Attempt and Solicitation to Incontinence, coupled with Force and Violence, it does by reason of the Force, which is temporal, become a temporal Crime in toto; as if one say, Thou art a Whore and a Thief, or Thou keepest a Bawdy-house, which are temporal Matters; the Party shall not proceed in the Spiritual Court; whereas, if it were only, Thou art a Whore, a Libel lies in the Spiritual Court. So if it be said of a Woman that she is a Bawd only, and not that she keeps a Bawdy House. But *per Holt C. And to grant a Prohibition might be inconvenient, for without Probate the Executor cannot sue for Debts, which by this * Means may be lost, and the Will unperformed. As for granting it quoad the Land, it would be vain, (Vide 2 Ro. 315. 1 Sid. 141. this was the Practice heretofore) because it is no Evidence either pro or con in any Court of Law, but a Proceeding coram non judice; yet it is good as to the Goods.

ON an Appeal from the Commissioners of Excise to the Commissioners of Appeals, according to 12 Car. 2. c. 23. the Question was, Whether the Depositions of the Witnesses, and their Examination written down by the Clerk of the Commissioners of Excise, should be allowed to be read in Evidence on this Appeal? Or whether the Witnesses should not be brought in again personally, and be examined viva voce? The Commissioners of Appeals thought the Depositions sufficient, and proceeded thereupon; and a Prohibition was moved for, but denied at first, because this had been the Course ever since the Statute, and it was a summary Proceeding: That it would occasion Trouble and Delay to the Revenue to bring in all the Witnesses again; and it was but proper the Commissioners of Appeals should have just the same Evidence the first Commissioners had: So it is in an Attaint, and the Law does not make viva voce Evidence necessary, unless before a Jury. In other Cases Depositions may be Evidence: If it were not so in this Case, they would be to try the Matter de novo, instead of trying an Appeal. Sed postea Pasch. 9 W. 3. B. R. mutata opinione, the Court held, That the Commissioners of Appeal ought to examine the Witnesses de novo on the Appeal; that it was the Intent of the Act, and the Commissioners had a Power given for that Purpose, to administer Oaths: That this was just, because the first Sentence might be by Default, or the Depositions might misrepresent, or not represent the whole Case; and that on Appeals upon Orders of Justices, Examination is always de novo. And a Prohibition was granted; but Holt C. J. said, his private Opinion was, That if the Witnesses were dead, they might use their Depositions.

Glover versus Rogers. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R. 2 Ld. Raym. 1155. S. C.

PLAINTIFF declared that the Defendant, in Consideration that the Plaintiff's Testator had transported for him such and such Merchandizes, promised to pay the Plaintiff's Testator tantas denar. summas pro transportatione Merchandiz. prædict. rationabiliter habere meruisset, and avers that he deserved so much. Upon Non Assumpsit, Verdict was for the Plaintiff, and Judgment in C. B. And now a Writ of Error was brought thereupon in B. R. and objected that the Word Quantum was wanting, and it is not said who had deserved, and he avers he deserved so much for Transportation of Merchandizes. But the Court affirmed the Judgment: Tantum is enough, viz. The Defendant promised him to pay him so much he deserved, and meruisset signifies as much as ipse meruisset; and there being but two Persons in the Record, it could be no Body but the Transporter, and they must have been the same Merchandize for which the Promise was made,

To be taken according to the Intent of the Parties.
ASSUMPSIT, and declares quod cum the Defendant, in Consideration that the Plaintiff would provide him Meat and Drink, promised to pay him as much as the Plaintiff habere meruit, and avers that he deserved so much: There were also other Counts. Non Assumpsit was pleaded, and Verdict for the Plaintiff, and entire Damages. Upon Motion in Arrest of Judgment it was objected, that meruit should have been meruerit. The Court held at first, That this was not False Latin, but False Sense, which is not cured by a Verdict; and though a Dash would help it, yet they could not by Intendment supply a Dash, for that was to make another Word. This was moved several Times, and having rested two Terms, the Court gave Judgment for the Plaintiff, saying, they must take the Words of the Declaration to be the very Words of the Promise, as if the Words of the Promise had been put in Writing thus by the Parties under their Hands: in which Case the Court ought not to pursue a grammatical Sense or Construction, which makes the Promise void, but to construe it so as to make the Parties mean somewhat, as it's plain they did, and that was to pay tantum, quantum habere meruerit. * Dominus Rex versus The Bishop of Chester, Pierce and Cook. Hill.
9 Will. 3. B. R. 1 Ld. Raym. 292. S. C.

IN a Quare Impedit the Plaintiff declared, That Q. Elizabeth, on the 14th Day of February in the 14th Year of her Reign, was seised of the Advowson of Bedel, ut de uno grosso, and presented Syms: That the Queen died, and it descended to K. James, and he was seised ut de grosso: So to K. Charles, and that he was seised ut de grosso, and presented Wickham; and that afterwards Wickham died, and one J. Peirce, non habens jus, sed usurpando presentavit Metcalf: That K. Charles I. died seised, and it descended to K. Charles II. &c.

Defendant pleads that K. Charles I. was seised in Gross; but that he after his Presentation of Wickham, by Letters Patent, granted the Advowson aforesaid to one Thackston, adjuuc. Armigero, postea Militi.

Et quod predicto tempore quo Peirce is supposed to have usurped super Dominum Regem, ipse idem Peirce usurpavit super dict. W. Thackston, and presented Metcalf: Et quod postea the said Thackston released the Advowson, and his Right therein, to him the said J. Peirce and his Heirs, and traverses the dying seised of K. Charles I.

The Attorney General prayed Oyer of the Letters Patent, which reciting that Q. Elizabeth, in the the 13th Year of her Reign, granted the Manor of Bedel, with the Advowson adinde spectan. to the Earl of Warwick, and that the said, Manor was come to Sir W. Thackston, Knt. Sciatis igitur Nos dedisse & concessisse prefato Will'o Thackston mil. advocatorem Ecclesie predict. and thereupon demurred to the Plea. Judgment was given in C. B. for the King, and a Writ of Error brought; and thereupon it was objected, That the Advowson which the King meant to pass, was an Advowson which Q. Elizabeth granted to the Earl of Warwick, and that the said Grant to the Earl of Warwick was void; for the Queen, Anno 12 Regni sui, being seised of this Advowson ut de grosso, could not Anno 13. grant this as an Advowson appendant, and that this is admitted by the Defendant: And if this was an Advowson in Gross, and so descended to Charles I. his Confirmation or Grant to Thackston upon a Supposal wherein he was deceived, will be void; and that the said W. Thackston in the Letters Patent, and the W. Thackston in the Grant, appear to be different Persons. On the other Side it was urged, That the Queen might be seised of this Advowson as in Gross at the Time she presented, and at the Time she died, and yet might be seised of it as appendant when she granted it to the Earl of Warwick, for she might have the Advowson again after the Grant to the Earl of Warwick, and then present; and that the Court ought to intend every Thing to make the King's Grant good. To clear this, the Chief Justice, Rokeby and Eyre Justices, held, 1st, That the Time of the Seisin laid in the Count was immaterially alledged, for 'tis sufficient to say, tempore pacis, tempore Domine Regine, and therefore 'tis not traversable: In Trespass Quare, &c. It is necessary to lay a certain Time; yet even there the precise Time is not material nor traversable, but any Time before the suing of the Writ may be given in Evidence; a fortiori here, &c.

2dly, That which is not material nor traversable is not admitted nor confessed when it is alledged, and not traversed: Ergo, as the Plaintiff, upon Non present. modo & forma, might give in Evidence a Presentation any Time, so the Court may intend it. Vide 1 Inst. 352. Hob. 71. 2 Leon. 99.

3dly, The Grant of the Queen, as recited, is said to be inter alia, so there may be other Words which are sufficient to pass an Advowson in Gross to the Earl; and the Intent of K. Charles I. is plain, and this Consideration might be sufficient, as the relinquishing of a Suit against the King, or the surrender of a void Patent is a good Consideration for a new Grant. And as to the Recitals, which were not all answered, Holt C. J. said, Where it appears by the Recitals the King intended not to pass any Thing he had an apparent Right in, but only what was concealed, the Recital will qualify the Grant; which is Legat's Case. 10 Co. But where there are Words in the Grant which shew the King designed designed to pass the Land, though they were not concealed, there the Grant shall be good to pass the Lands. Hard. 231.

4thly, Holt C. J. Turton and Eyre Justices, held, That William Thackston Esq; in the Plea, could not be W. Thackston Knt. mentioned in the Letters Patent, for Esquire is drowned in the Name of Knight, so that a Knight cannot be an Esquire; and a Grant to A. B. Knt. is absolutely void, if A. B. be only an Esquire. Knight is a Name of Dignity, and Parcel of a Man's Name, as much as his Christian Name. It was said that it should have been averred, That W. Thackston was revera an Esq; but cognit. & reputat. Miles at the Time of the Grant; but that would not have aided it, for a Man cannot be a Knight by Reputation, for there can be no Foundation for such a Reputation; and it is not the Party's saying in his Plea, I am the Man, that will explain the Grant, but the Identity must appear on the Face of the Grant itself. Upon this the Judgment was affirmed by Holt C. J. Turton and Eyre Justices; but Rokeby J. held that there was a sufficient demonstratio Personæ, and that it ought to have been reversed.

And that he being possessed of the Reversion died, and it came to his Executor, and for Rent-arrear he avowed. The Plaintiff demurred, and shewed for Cause that the Avowant had not shewn who was Lessor of J. S. And for this it was held naught. Per Holt C. J. In Debt for Rent it is enough to say dimisit: And if it be brought against an Assignee, that he demised to such a one, whose Estate the Defendant hath, is enough for the Lessor or his Executor, (Quere tamen of the Heir) without making a good Title to himself; yet an Avowry differs from a Declaration in many respects. In a Declaration in Debt for Rent, Nil debet is a good Plea, and traverses the whole Declaration; but there can be no general Issue to an Avowry but some special Point must be traversed; and therefore, because it does not appear out of what Estate, or in what Manner this Term was derived, Judgment must be for the Plaintiff. Vide Cro. Car. 571. The Reason why the Commencement of particular Estates must be shewed in pleading, is, because they are created by Agreement out of the primitive Estate; and the Court must judge whether the primitive Estate and Agreement be sufficient to produce the particular Estate claimed: And this is a fundamental Rule, which ought not to be broken upon fancied Inconveniencies.

The Court held not: It was objected, That before Entry by the Conusee, this was like an Interesse termini, or the Interest of one that has a Lease to commence at a future Day, which is assignable; so here the Conusee hath an Estate before Entry: Sed per Holt C. J. By Return of the Extent an Interest vested in the Conusee: The End of the Liberate is to have an actual Possession of the Interest; and it must be taken that he has by the Return of the Liberate; the Sheriff returning thereupon liberari feci, the Conusee is estopped to say otherwise: If then the Conusor continues to keep Possession after this Return, the Conusee's Estate is turned to a Right, like the Case of Disseisor making continual Claim, as soon as ever the Disseisor leaves the Premises, the Continuance of Possession by the Disseisor, makes a fresh Disseisin. *Vide 1 Inst. 156. IN a Writ of Ayel the Issue was, Whether the Grandfather died seised in Fee?
The Jury found that the Grandfather covenanted to stand seised to the Use

To prove the Recovery void, it was insisted, that Owen and Morgan's Case was the Baron might make a Tenant to the Præcipe for the Whole. *Pemberton con-

ERROR of a Judgment in C. B. in Ejectment, wherein a Special Verdict was found, viz. That a Writ of Entry was brought against Miles Corbet, Ret. Quintena Martini. That upon the Return Miles Corbet appeared, and the Demandant counted against him, That he vouched Lacy the Tenant in Tail, and a Summons ad Warrantizandum issued, returnable octabis purificationis. After the Ieste and before the Return of the Writ of Summons, viz. the 1st Day of January, Lacy the Tenant in Tail conveyed to Miles Corbet by Lease and Release for Life. At the Return of the Summons, Lacy the Tenant in Tail appeared and entered into the Warranty, and vouched over the Common Vouchee, and so a Common Recovery was had. This *Recovery being held good in C. B. Serjeant Pratt, for the Plaintiff in Error, insisted, That Miles Corbet was not Tenant to the Præcipe at the Return of the Writ of Entry. He agreed that if he had purchased before the Return of the Writ of Entry, the Recovery had been good, (otherwise if after, as in this Case,) to bind Strangers or the Issue in Tail, tho' it might be good between the Parties by Way of Estoppel. Where the Tenant appears on the Return of the Writ of Entry, and a Recovery is then had, in such Case the Tenant must have the Freehold at the Return of the Writ, because 'tis a Recovery then suffered; but otherwise where there is a Voucher over, or Interpleader, as in this Case; for 'tis sufficient if he become Tenant before Judgment. 41 E. 3, 5. 8 E. 3, 32. 10 E. 3, 1 Roll Abr. 863, 21.

*Holt C. NICHOLAS SEARLE by his Will devised to his Niece Mary Bryant and the Heirs Male of her Body, upon Condition and provided that she intermarry with and have Issue Male by one surnamed Searle; and in Default of both Conditions he devised to Eliz. Bryant [in the same Manner] and in Default thereof he devised to George Searle for sixty Years, if he so long live, Remainder to the Heirs Male of the Body of the said George, and their Issue Male for ever. Mary, and Elizabeth with her Husband, (for she had then married one Cliff,) joined in a Fine to make a Tenant to the Præcipe, who was one Isaac Savery. Isaac Savery vouched Mary Bryant, Eliz. Cliff and her Husband, and the Wife of the Devisor with her Husband, she being again married, and vouched them all jointly, and they vouched over the common Vouchee. Et per Hol. C. J. & tot. Cur., it was adjudged.

1st, That the Estate devised to Mary was a good Estate-Tail, and so was the Estate to Elizabeth; but it is a special Intail; 'tis an Estate to her and the Heirs Male of her Body begotten by a Searle, which is a middle Intail; not the highest nor the least; for it might have been to her and the Heirs of her Body begotten by J. Searle, which had been more particular; yet this is a good Estate-Tail within the Statute de donis, for it is within the Reason of the Statute.

2dly, The Words, upon Condition, &c. tho' they are express Words of Condition, shall be taken to be a Limitation; so it is held in 1 Vent. 199, 202. And Hol. C. J. said, he saw no Reason why they might not be so construed in a Deed, tho' the Law had not been carried so far; and so the Sense is, if she has no Issue by a Searle, upon her Death, the Estate shall remain over.

3dly, That the Estate-Tail of Mary and Elizabeth, or either of them, does not cease by marrying one that is not a Searle; for the Remainder over is in Default of both Conditions, and in the mean Time it is limited to her and the Heirs Male of her Body, and she may survive the first Husband and marry a Searle, and so there is a Possibility as long as she lives.

4thly, If the Estate had been to Mary and the Heirs Male of her Body by a Searle to be begotten, provided and upon Condition if she do marry any but a Searle, that then it shall remain and be to J. S. and his Heirs; a Common Recovery suffered before Marriage will bar the Estate-Tail and Remainders; and tho' she after marry with another, it shall not avoid the Recovery: And the Court took a Difference between a collateral Condition and a Condition that runs with the Land: If the Donor reserve *a Rent with a Condition to re-enter, a Recovery will not bar it; otherwise if it be to re-enter for Non-payment of a Sum in Gross. Vide 1 Mod. 108, 111. 2 Lev. 28.

And as to Common Recoveries (being of great Use) the Chief Justice desired to speak largely.

1st, If Tenant to the Præcipe vouches Tenant in Tail in Possession, and him in Remainder jointly, and they jointly vouch over the common Vouchee, this is good; not but that it may be more regular, that the Tenant vouch Mary Bryant, and she Elizabeth, and she over the common Vouchee, that the Recovery in Value may not be joint, but enur'd severally: Yet the other Way is sufficient; for where in an Adversary Action a Præcipe is brought against several, 'tis enough that one hath the Tenancy of the Land; and if he would plead that he is sole Tenant, and traverse that the others have any Thing, the Demandant may admit that, and proceed as to him, and the Writ shall only abate as to the rest; also the others may disclaim; and as a Joining a Stranger with a Tenant does not hurt, so a Joining a Stranger with a Vouchee does not; for he is but in loco tenentis, 2dly, If Tenant in Tail makes a Tenant to the Præcipe, and he vouches a Stranger, and the Stranger vouches a Tenant in Tail, and he the common Vouchee, that is good; for his being a Stranger is not material, because in Judgment of Law he is become Tenant by the Voucher to the Præcipe, and a Release to him is good, and the Voucher is good whether there be a real Warranty or not: At Common Law, if a Stranger was vouched, the Demandant could not counterplead it; but by West. 1. c. 40. he may, if he be absent counterplead the Voucher, viz. That the Voucher and his Ancestors never had any Thing in the Land; not if he be present: It is enough that Tenant in Tail comes in and owns a Warranty, for there may be a Warranty. Suppose an Adversary Action against Tenant in Tail who has a Warranty, and he makes a Feoffment in Fee with Warranty, or has levied a Fine with Warranty, and the Feoffee or Conufee vouch the Tenant in Tail, he may make Use of his Warranty, and yet he was not seised of the Estate-Tail; but in that Case he may dereign the Warranty, and then he recovers in Recompence of his Estate-Tail; for whenever Tenant in Tail comes in as Vouchee, he comes in in Privy of all Estates he ever had, and consequently may dereign the Warranty. Vide 1 Inst.

CLAYTON, the Executor of Clayton, the Executor of Wintershall, brought Covenant against Kynaston upon Articles, and declared as on Articles made between Killigrew and the said Kynaston, and others ex una parte, and Wintershall ex altera parte; wherein it was covenanted, that if Wintershall should be minded to give over acting Plays, and should give Notice in Writing three Months before he left off, that then three Months after such Notice in Writing, Wintershall should be allowed for every acting Day 5 s. per Day, and that after the Death of Wintershall, 100 l. should be paid to his Executors within three Months; Provided such Notice should not be given but in an acting Week; and for Breach assigns that the 100 l. was not paid within three Months after Wintershall's Death. The Defendant pleaded that at the same Time another Deed was made between the said Wintershall of the one Part, and the said Kynaston of the other Part, wherein was contained the same Agreement; and then it was farther covenanted by Wintershall in the same Deed, that in case he gave Notice as aforesaid, then the said Kynaston should be discharged of all Debts, and be indemnified and saved harmless from all Agreements or Securities at any Time before made, or hereafter to be entered into; then he avers Notice was given, and that three Months elapsed, &c. and so relies upon this as a Defeazance. To this there was a Demurrer.

* 1st, It was urged for the Defendant, that this was a Defeazance; for whatever the Defendant lost in this Action would be recovered against him on his Covenant, which was but Circuity of Action. Vide 1 And. 307. Mo. pl. 80. 2 Saund. 47, 48. One Deed a Defeazance to another made at the same Time with it. Vide 1 Inst. 265. Rebutter founded on the same Reason.

The Court agreed, That if A. be bound to B. and then B. reciting this Bond, covenants to save him harmless, this is an absolute Defeazance; and if it be to save him harmless on a Contingency, 'tis a conditional Defeazance, because it hath an express Relation to the Deed; but in the principal Case there is not a Relation between the Deeds; but on the contrary, the Plaintiff's Deed is only to indemnify against all Covenants heretofore made, or hereafter to be made. There is therefore no Necessity to contrive the Defendant's Deed to be void and useless as soon as made, or that one Deed has destroyed the other which was made at the same Time with it, or that Kynaston may play fast and loose at his Pleasure. Also the Court agreed, That where two are jointly and severally bound in a Bond, a Release to one discharges the other; and in such Case, if the joint Remedy is gone, the Several is gone too; and that in the Case at Bar, the joint Remedy was lost: But the Chief Justice, who delivered the Opinion of the rest, said, they did not determine, That on Covenant, where the joint Remedy failed, there could not be a several Remedy.

2dly, It was objected to the Declaration, That he declares of a Deed made between Kynaston of the one Part and Wintershall of the other, and does not say prædicti Wintershall, for Want of which he does not appear to be the same Person: This Exception was not much heeded. Cases cited pro and con were, Yelv. 103. 3 Cro. 913. Bridgm. 99. Dyer 70. Hard. 178.

Where a Proviso goes by Way of Defeazance of a Covenant, it must be pleaded on the other Side; otherwise where by Way of Explanation or Restification of the Covenant.

CLAYTON, the Executor of Clayton, the Executor of Wintershall, brought Covenant against Kynaston upon Articles, and declared as on Articles made between Killigrew and the said Kynaston, and others ex una parte, and Wintershall ex altera parte; wherein it was covenanted, that if Wintershall should be minded to give over acting Plays, and should give Notice in Writing three Months before he left off, that then three Months after such Notice in Writing, Wintershall should be allowed for every acting Day 5 s. per Day, and that after the Death of Wintershall, 100 l. should be paid to his Executors within three Months: Provided such Notice should not be given but in an acting Week; and for Breach assigns that the 100 l. was not paid within three Months after Wintershall's Death. The Defendant pleaded that at the same Time another Deed was made between the said Wintershall of the one Part, and the said Kynaston of the other Part, wherein was contained the same Agreement; and then it was farther covenanted by Wintershall in the same Deed, that in case he gave Notice as aforesaid, then the said Kynaston should be discharged of all Debts, and be indemnified and saved harmless from all Agreements or Securities at any Time before made, or hereafter to be entered into; then he avers Notice was given, and that three Months elapsed, &c. and so relies upon this as a Defeazance. To this there was a Demurrer.

* P. 574

* 1st, It was urged for the Defendant, that this was a Defeazance; for whatever the Defendant lost in this Action would be recovered against him on his Covenant, which was but Circuity of Action. Vide 1 And. 307. Mo. pl. 80. 2 Saund. 47, 48. One Deed a Defeazance to another made at the same Time with it. Vide 1 Inst. 265. Rebutter founded on the same Reason.

The Court agreed, That if A. be bound to B. and then B. reciting this Bond, covenants to save him harmless, this is an absolute Defeazance; and if it be to save him harmless on a Contingency, 'tis a conditional Defeazance, because it hath an express Relation to the Deed; but in the principal Case there is not a Relation between the Deeds; but on the contrary, the Plaintiff's Deed is only to indemnify against all Covenants heretofore made, or hereafter to be made. There is therefore no Necessity to construe the Defendant's Deed to be void and useless as soon as made, or that one Deed has destroyed the other which was made at the same Time with it, or that Kynaston may play fast and loose at his Pleasure. Also the Court agreed, That where two are jointly and severally bound in a Bond, a Release to one discharges the other; and in such Case, if the joint Remedy is gone, the Several is gone too; and that in the Case at Bar, the joint Remedy was lost: But the Chief Justice, who delivered the Opinion of the rest, said, they did not determine, That on Covenant, where the joint Remedy failed, there could not be a several Remedy.

2dly, It was objected to the Declaration, That he declares of a Deed made between Kynaston of the one Part and Wintershall of the other, and does not lay prædict. Wintershall, for Want of which he does not appear to be the same Person: This Exception was not much heeded. Cases cited pro and con were, Yelv. 103. 3 Cro. 913. Bridgm. 99. Dyer 70. Hard. 178.

Where a Proviso goes by Way of Defeazance of a Covenant, it must be pleaded on the other Side; otherwise where by Way of Explanation or Restriction of the Covenant.

3dly, It was objected to the Plea, That the Notice is not said to be given in an acting Week; and tho' it was urged to be by Way of Proviso, and therefore ought to come on the other Side, (5 Co. 78. 3 Cro. 405. 7 Co. 10. Poph. 28. Plo. 376. 1 Leon. pl. 202.) and that the Plea said he had Notice secundum formam & effectum articulorum; yet Holt C. J. answered, That where the Proviso goes by Way of Defeazance, it must be pleaded by him that takes Advantage of it; but this is not so, but alters the Sense of the Covenant, by explaining and tying up the Notice to a particular Time, which would not have been understood on on the general Covenant, by which means it becomes a Part of the Covenant, so that you must plead accordingly; and secundum formam & effectum articulorum is only Matter of Conclusion, which cannot serve without Premises. And upon this single Point, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff.

Lacy versus Kynaston. Pasch. 13 W. 3. B. R. 1 Ld. Raym. 688. * P. 575 S. C.

THE Plaintiff brought Covenant as Administrator to Lacy, and declared on the same Indenture in the Case before between Kelligrew and Kynaston, and they ex una parte, and Lacy ex altera parte, reciting former Articles, and they hereby covenant jointly and severally with Lacy, That if he be minded to leave acting, and gives three Months Notice thereof to the Company, he shall be paid 6 s. 3 d. per Day for his Life, and that within three Months after his Death, his Executors shall be paid 100 l. And that if he die without such Notice, his Executors shall be paid 100 l. within six Months after his Death, in the Nonpayment whereof the Breach was assigned: The Defendant craved Oyer, and pleaded another Deed made the same Day and Year, whereby Lacy and others covenant jointly and severally with the Defendant, that if he left off Acting, and gave Notice, he should be freed and indemnified of and from the said Covenant, and avers he left off and gave Notice, and became discharged, and so prayed Judgment of the Action. The Plaintiff demurs, &c. And the Question was, Whether this was a Covenant or a Defeazance? And the Court held, 1st, That this Covenant in its Nature was not a Defeazance, because it wanted Words of Defeazance, viz. that the Thing be void.

2dly, If A. and B. are jointly and severally bound to H. and H. covenants with A. that he will not sue A. this is not a Defeazance, for still there is a Remedy on the Bond against B. otherwise if A. only had been bound, for then such Covenant excludes him from any Remedy for ever, to avoid Circuity of Action. Vide 43. Aff. pl. 44. This Difference being applied to the principal Case rules it, and it is but reasonable; because to construe this to be or enure as a Release or Defeazance, is to discharge all; otherwise of a Covenant. 34 H. 8. A Devise was to Simon Leach for Life, Remainder to his first, second and third Sons, &c. Remainder to Sir Simon Leach in Tail, the Remainder to the right Heirs of Simon Leach; Simon Leach the Tenant for Life surrendered his Estate by Deed to Sir Simon Leach, and after that had a Son born and died, and the Son brought an Ejectment against Sir Simon, and Simon his Father was found to be Non Compos at the Time of the Surrender. Et per Cur', Taking the Surrender to be voidable only, it was held, That the Plaintiff could have no Title; for his Estate in Remainder was a contingent Remainder, and if the pre- cedent Estate was gone and determined by the Surrender, the Contingency could not arise. There must be a particular Estate actually in Being, or a present Right of Entry, [Vide Bigot and Smith's Case, Cro. Car.] And it is not enough that there be a Right of Action, but it must be a Right of Entry: And they held, that it was not for Want of Right to the Thing, but of Capacity to do the Act, that a Madman is hindered to avoid his own Grant. 1 Cro. 102. 2 Saund. 387. 3 Keb. 2. And if this had been done in the Life of the Surrenderer by Inquisition, that would have preserved the contingent Remainder; but that cannot be done now, because the particular Estate is determined. To shew this, Holt C. J. said,

If there be Tenant for Life, with a contingent Remainder to H. and Tenant for Life is disseised, and after that a Discent cast, and five Years expire, now the contingent Remainder is gone, for there is nothing now to support it, the Right of Entry being turned into a Right of Action: But before the Discent the Right of Entry was sufficient.

But they held the Surrender in this Case to be merely void, so that the particu- lar Estate remained in him, notwithstanding the Surrender, and the contingent Remainder rightly vested.

If there be Tenant for Life with a contingent Remainder, and he makes a Feoffment in Fee upon Condition, and the Contingency happens before the Con- dition broken, the contingent Remainder is destroyed; for there must be a par- ticular Estate, or a present Right of Entry when the Contingency happens; but if Tenant for Life enters for Breach before the Contingency happens, the contin- gent Remainder is revived, and may vest.

That Right of Entry must be present.

THE Plaintiff declared upon a Lease for Years, reddend. 30 s. at Lady- day and Michaelmas, and assigns for Breach Non-payment of a Year's Rent, due and ending at Ladyday 1689. The Defendant pleaded a Release da- ted the 18th Day of November 1688, of all Demands; and upon Demurrer, Judgment

Judgment was given for the Plaintiff: For the growing Rent not due, which is incident to the Reversion, was not discharged; though the first Half Year's Rent, which was a Duty demandable, was released; but here the Release being pleaded as a Bar to all, which it is not, the Plea is naught, and Judgment must be given for the Plaintiff.

UPON a Habeas Corpus it was returned, that Watts was in Custody by Virtue of a Capias in Withernam: and the Case was, That upon a Homine Replegiando, the Sheriff returned an Inquisition, finding that the Party was eloigned, whereupon a Withernam, issued, returnable o<sup>e</sup>stab. Martini, which was not yet come; but the Defendant was taken thereupon and moved to be bailed, and the Matter was four Times moved and debated. It was objected, That he could not be bailed upon the Withernam; for it was an Execution, and he had no Day in Court, and the Plaintiff could not have a new Withernam: And the Lord Gray coming into Court upon an Elongata found, was committed and lay by a Fortnight: Also they cited Raymond 474. and said the Return of the Elongata was a Kind of Conviction, and the Defendant thereby estopped from pleading Non cepit. That which seemed to be the Sense of the Chief Justice, to which the rest agreed, was,

The Sheriff cannot return they were not taken.

After Elongata returned, and Withernam awarded, the Defendant may plead Non cepit. See 2 Show. ut supra. Farell. 17.

1st, That a Homine Replegiando does not differ from a common Replevin de Averiis; and that in a Replevin for Cattle, the Sheriff must either return a Deliberari feci, or an Excuse thereof, viz. That no Body came to shew him the Cattle, or Elongata; But he cannot return they were not taken, for that goes to the Point of the Writ which the Defendant is to falsify, and not the Sheriff; that therefore the Sheriff must return an Elongata where he cannot make a Deliverance, and the Defendant is not concluded by the Return of the Elongata to plead Non cepit, because it was necessary, and he could not avoid it: And as for this Reason,

Replevin and Homine Replegiando.

Reason, no Action lies against the Sheriff for a false Return of an Elongata, where he cannot make Deliverance; so the Defendant is not concluded to plead Non cepit to the Action, because he cannot falsify the Return.

2dly, That the Capias in Withernam does not alter the Case, nor make it the stronger, because it is the mere Consequence of the Return of the Elongata; therefore he is no more estopped by the Withernam than he was by the Elongata to plead Non cepit, or to claim Property if it were a common Replevin de Averiis.

3dly, That in Replevin de Averiis after an Elongata and Withernam, if the Defendant pleads Non cepit, he shall have his Cattle again, and even a Capias in Withernam against the Plaintiff for them; so it is if the Defendant claims a Property. Since the Taking of Property is in Question, the Law deems it reasonable that the Defendant should have his Goods again during the Dispute: And by the same Reason in a Homine Replegiando * the Defendant, upon pleading Non cepit, should be restored to his Liberty; and the Court denied the Withernam to be an Execution, for that cannot be before Judgment, and held it only to be a mesne Process: Also they disliked the Case in Raymond, and the Case of the Lord Gray, but affirmed the Case in the Reg. 79. a. and thought it made for them, and that upon Non cepit pleaded, he might be bailed. Keil. 71. a. F. N. B. 74. were cited. Adding this farther Reason, that hereby the Supposal of the Writ is denied and balanced, and the Matter stands indifferent, according to the Rule of Bailing laid down by my Lord Coke, upon West. 1. c. 15.

4thly, The Court held, That there might be a new Withernam, but observed it was not necessary nor material to determine that in this Case; for the Bail must be in a Sum certain, with Condition that he appear de die in diem; and if Judgment against him, that he render his Body in Withernam ibidem remansurus quousq; he render the Party, and permit him to go at large; therefore if he be rendered again, he is in Custody upon the Withernam, as before. So if H. brings an Audita Querela, and is bailed, and Judgment is against him, when H. is rendered back, he is in Custody again upon the first Execution; and so in an Appeal of Murder, if the Defendant be bailed and makes Default, Process shall go against the Bail, and also a Capias against him; but if he render, he is in Custody upon the Appeal: Yet Note: Upon his Default a new Capias lies against him. So in this Case if before the Withernam the Defendant had pleaded Non cepit, that had stopped the Withernam; but if that had been found against him, the Impediment was removed, and a Withernam should have gone; so here, if after the Withernam, he plead Non cepit, which is found against him, and he is not rendered, a Capias in Withernam lies against him, as well as Process against his Bail; for there is nothing to hinder it. Vide 8 H. 4. 2. T. Mainprize 23.

The Plaintiff's Counsel seeing that by the Opinion of the Court the Defendant could not be bailed, unless he pleaded Non cepit, would not deliver a Declaration; which the Court said, was putting a Difficulty upon them; and upon this, in order to nonsuit the Plaintiff, the Question was, Whether the Plaintiff was demandable upon the Withernam? Also there was a former Question, Whether he might be bailed upon the Habeas Corpus before the Return of the Withernam?

As to the last Point the Court held, That before the Return of the Withernam the Defendant could not be bailed; and so it is of an Appeal of Murder, the Defendant ought not to be bailed before the Return of the Writ; and though this has been done in an Appeal by some Judges, yet per Holt C. J. It was done minus rite; he would not therefore allow Bail before the Return of * the Withernam, and said, that in a Homine Replegiando after an Elongata returned, if the Defendant comes in gratis, and pleads Non cepit, he shall not be put to find Bail; (Ratio videtur esse, because hereby the Withernam is estopped or suspended,) but if he comes in in Custody upon a Capias in Withernam, he must give Bail, and cannot be admitted to that till he call for a Declaration, and plead Non cepit.

As to the other Point the Chief Justice said, that whenever a Writ is awarded, Plaintiff is demandable on which is returnable, the Return-Day is a Day to both Parties to appear, and though Upon pleading Non cepit or claiming Property, the Defendant shall have his Goods again. So in Homine replegiando he shall be bailed on Non cepit.

UPON a Motion made by Mr. Broderick for a Procedendo in a Case of an Inquisition taken by Justices of Peace, and a Forcible Detainer found, and a Warrant granted by them to restore the Possession, which was suspended by a Certiorari * issued out of this Court, it was said by Holt C. J. That if the Party against whom the Inquisition was found would traverse the Force, that was always a Reason to stay Restitution; nay, that it had been held a Supersedeas to the awarding Restitution, and that it was so in Sir Richard Bray's Case: There an Inquisition found a Forcible Entry: The Defendant offered immediately before the Justice to traverse the Force, the Justice refused the Traverse and granted Restitution; and Kelynge C. J. granted Re-restitution. He said also, that all Inquisitions of Office are of common Right traversable; so is a Distingas proximas villatas, in case of pulling down Hedges in the Night, on the Statute of Westm. 2. though the Statute mentions no such Thing: And if in case of an Inquisition of Forcible Entry taken before a Justice of Peace, the Defendant tenders his Traverse immediately, the Justice must adjourn to another Day, and award Process to return a Jury. Powel J. said, That in the Case in Dyer 122. a Traverse of the Indictment was held to be a Supersedeas only at Election, but latterly it had been held an absolute Supersedeas: And he said also, That if H. licence another to enter into his Land and take the Profits, 'tis a Lease at Will; and if the Licence was for a Year, 'tis a Lease for a Year; otherwise of a Licence to hunt: And if H. licence another to come upon his Dock, (which was the principal Case) and carry on his Trade, 'tis a Lease; because 'tis all the proper Profits of a Dock. Note; Trin. 11 W. 3 Rex versus Scarlet, The same Question was, viz. Whether Re-restitution should be granted, because the Justice had refused a Traverse to an Inquisition of Forcible Entry? Abbot versus Burton. Trin. 7 Ann. C. B. Comyns 160. S. C.

J. S. being seised in Fee of certain Lands descended to him a parte materna, covenants to levy a Fine thereof to A. and B. to the Use of them and their Heirs, to the Intent that a Common Recovery should be suffered against the said Conusees to the Use of J. S. for Life, Remainder to his Wife for Life, Remainder to his first, second and third Sons in Tail, &c. Remainder to the right Heirs of J. S. The Fine is accordingly levied, and then the Common Recovery is suffered against the Conusees of the Fine, as Tenants to the Præcipe with Voucher of J. S. Afterwards J. S. and his Wife die without Issue, and the Lessor of the Plaintiff is Heir of J. S. a parte materna, and the Defendant Heir general. This Matter being found upon a Special Verdict in Ejectment, the Question was, Whether this Limitation of the Remainder to the Use of the right Heirs of J. S. did create a new Estate descendible to the Heirs general, or was only the ancient Use: And the Resolution of the Court delivered by Trevor C. J. was for the Plaintiff, that it was the ancient Use, and that there was no Difference when upon the Conveyance of an Estate, any Part of the Use results by Implication of Law, and when it is referred by express Declaration to the Party from whom the Estate moved; for there is no Reason that a greater Alteration should be wrought in a Use which a Man by express and plain Words reserves to himself upon a Conveyance of his Estate, than when the Law makes a Construction of this Intent to reserve it, not from express Words, but from other Circumstances and Presumptions, which in the Consideration of Law do as strongly and manifestly declare his Mind: And for this was cited the Case of Godbolt and Freestone, 3 Lev. 406.

But the Difference whereby that Case was endeavoured to be distinguished from the Case in Question was this: That was upon a Feoffment to the Use of the Feoffor for Life, Remainder to his first, second, and other Sons in Tail, Remainder to the right Heirs of the Feoffor; and adjudged, that this Remainder was to the Heirs of the Feoffor a parte materna, according to the ancient Estate and Use which the Feoffor had before the Feoffment: And the Reason was, because this Remainder of the Use did arise out of the Estates which immediately moved from the Feoffor, and was no more than what the Law would have reserved, if no Use at all had been declared of the Remainder. But in the present Case, the Use limited in Remainder to the right Heirs of J. S. does not arise out of an Estate that moved immediately by that Conveyance from J. S. but out of the Estate of the Conusees, who were seised in Fee both of the Estate and Use by the Fine, and did by the Common Recovery convey over that Estate, out of which all the new Uses and the Remainder in Question arose. To this the Chief Justice said, That the Fine and Common Recovery were both to be taken as one entire Conveyance, consisting of these several Parts, and directed as to the Use of them by the same Covenants. That though the Conusees had a Seisin in Fee of the Estate and Use vested in them by the Fine for a special Purpose, and upon that Seisin the Common Recovery was had, and in Strictness the Estate passed by it was her Estate; yet upon Consideration of the whole Conveyance the Estate did originally move from J. S. who was the Conusor of the Fine; and for that Reason, if there had been no Limitation at all of this Remainder of the Use upon this Recovery, he took it to be very clear, that so much as remained unlimited should result to the Conusor and his Heirs, and not to the Conusee in whom the Estate was not vested with a Purpose to create him any Interest, but in Order to forward and complete the Conveyance of the Conusor's Estate, which was taken as one Conveyance; then does the Use limited upon the Common Recovery, as properly arise out of the Estate that moved from the Conusor of the Fine, as if he had made a Feoffment or Fine, or any single Conveyance to that Use. Judgment for the Plaintiff.

* Revocation.

Hitchins versus Basset. Trin. 5 W. & M. B. R.

IN Ejectment, the Jury found a Special Verdict: That Sir H. Killigrew being seised in Fee, made his Will, and devised his Lands to B. for Life, Remainder to C. in Fee; they find likewise that Sir H. Killigrew made aliud Testamentum in Writing; but what were the Contents of that Will they don't know: The Question was, if the first Will was revoked? Finch argued, That every later Will is not a Revocation, for a Man by one Will may dispose of one Acre, and by another Will of another Acre: So if a Man purchase Lands after he has made his Will, he need not make his Will over again, but make another Will as to these: Vide Cro. Car. 293. Therefore this other Will might be of other Lands, and no Revocation, and the aliud Testamentum might be no Revocation, but might be consistent. Cro. Eliz. 721. Cro. Car. 24. Levinz. contra argued, That Revocations are favoured, because they are in the Nature of Restitution to the Heir, and all Restitutions are favoured. Vide Dyer 310. Moor 429. 1 Roll. 614. A Deed of Feoffment without Livery, a Bargain and Sale without Inrolment, a Grant of a Reversion without Attornment will revoke a Will, and yet these are void Acts; but the Reason is, That it appears now it was not the Testator's Intent that it should remain his Will, the first Will must be supposed to be perfect and include all; and if a Man claims by devise, he must in Pleading say, that the Testator by his last Will devised, &c. 44 Aff. 36. 2 Ric. 2. 3. b. But the Court were of Opinion, That it was no Revocation, and the aliud Testamentum might concern other Lands, or no Lands at all, or be a Confirmation of the former: And the Judgment was afterwards affirmed in the House of Lords. *Vide Hard. 374. Sed per Holt C. J. A Riot is a specifick Offence, and the Battery is not laid as a Charge of itself, but as a Part of the Riot; for the Riotose & Routose runs thro' all, and is ascribed to the Battery as well as the Assembly. The Consequence is, That these Defendants being discharged of the Riot, are discharged likewise of the Battery; and no Judgment can be given; and Judgment was arrested.

INDICTMENT against four Defendants, for that they did riotously assemble, and Vi & Armis beat and wound one Ellis. Upon Non cul. it appeared at the Trial, that Ellis who was the Enfield Stage-Coachman driving to London in the Highway, the Defendants, one in a Chaise, and the rest on Horseback, overtook him, and that the Chaise was overturned by the Coach, but not through any Fault of the Coachman; but that the Driver of the Chaise and his Company taking Offence at it, followed the Coachman and beat him barbarously. It was objected upon this Evidence, that this was a Trespass, but not a Riot, because the Company was lawfully assembled. Et per Holt C. J. 1st, If several are assembled lawfully without any evil Intent, and an Affray happens, none are guilty but such as Act; but if the Assembly was originally unlawful, the Act of one is imputable to all.

2dly, If three, or more, are lawfully assembled, and quarrelling, all fall upon one of their own Company, this is no Riot; but if it be on a Stranger, the very Moment the Quarrel begins, they begin to be an unlawful Assembly, and their Concurrence is Evidence of an evil Intention in them that concur; so that it is a Riot in them that act, and in no more. So ruled, and so found by the Jury.

AN Administrator brought a Scire facias on a Judgment recovered by his Intestate against H. and the Writ was general, against such as were Tertenants of the Land of H. at the Time of the Judgment. The Sheriff returned several Tertenants warned; among the rest one A. seised of a Messuage and of a Manor called D. The Tenants appear, and all join in this Plea, viz. That J. S. is seised of the Freehold of the Manor of D. & petunt judicium de brevi, & quoad breve ill. cassetur. Et per Curiam, The Plea was held ill; and resolved, 1st, That the Tertenants cannot join in this Plea, because they are severally returned, one for one Part, and another for another.

2dly, This is pleading a Non-tenure by Implication as to the Manor of D. Now in a Scire facias on a Judgment in Debt, or any personal Action, the Defendant cannot plead Non-tenure generally, because 'tis contrary to the Return of the Sheriff, but he may plead a special Non-tenure in such Case; and so the Law is now after long and great Difficulty settled. 3 Cro. 872. 8 E. 4, 19. 9 H. 5, 11. But in a Scire facias for Execution in a real Action, the Defendants may plead a general Non-tenure; because their Freehold, which is much favoured in Law, is in question.

3dly, The Tertenants in this Case may plead there be other Tertenants not named in the same County, and pray Judgment if they ought to answer, quousque the others be summoned, but ought not to pray, quod breve cassetur; for the Court ought never to abate the Writ, but where the Plaintiff can have a better Writ; otherwise if the Writ had been particular in naming the Tenants. *Vide 2 Saund. SCIRE FACIAS against Bail, setting forth, quod cum querens recuperasset against one Ruffel, and the Defendants devenuerunt plegii; that he should either pay vel se reddere prisonæ Maresc. Mareschal. nostræ. The Defendant prayed Oyer of the Recognizance; and that was, That he should pay, vel se reddere Prisonæ Maresballi Mareschalsæ Domina Regina coram ipse Regina, quo lecto & audit. the Defendant pleaded, that there was no Capias ad satisfaciend. returned against the Principal; the Plaintiff replied, there was a Capias ad satisfaciend. and set it out; the Defendant demurred. It was objected by Pengelly, That the Oyer given was defective, not shewing of what Term the Recognizance was, so that it did not appear to warrant the Scire facias, or that it is what the Scire facias is brought upon: That the Capias set forth appears to have but four Days between the Teste and Return, and that there is no Breach assigned by the Scire facias, for the Render by the Recognizance ought to be to the Marshal of the King's Bench Prison; but the Breach is, That he did not render himself Prisonæ Maresballi Mareschalsæ nostræ, which is the Prison of the Palace. Vide 10 Co. 68. b. Thef. Br. 233. N. Br. 251. J. 5 E. 3. c. 8. and Spelm. Gloss. in hoc verbo. To this it was answered and resolved by the Court, 1st, That though the Oyer be imperfect, yet there is no Variance between the Scire facias and Recognizance, and since they agree together, the Recognizance is a sufficient Ground for the Scire facias; but the Defendant should not have gone on, but insisted upon his Want of Oyer.

2dly, There ought to be eight Days between the Teste and Return of the Capias ad satisfaciendum against the Principal, by the Practice and Course of the Court; and if the Defendants had moved for the Irregularity, the Court would have helped them: But in Point of Law, the Process of this Court may be returnable de die in diem, especially into Middlesex; and therefore they shall not take Advantage of this which is but an Irregularity, upon Demurrer.

3dly, All other Marshalseas were derived from the Earl Marshal of England, and the Marshal of the Household is never styled Maresballus Mareschalsæ nostræ; and this being a Scire facias on a Recognizance of Bail taken here, the Marshal here must be intended the Marshal of this Court. Judicium pro quer.

A Writ of Error was brought upon the Award of Execution on a Scire facias against Bail, and thereupon the Record of the Judgment against the Principal was also returned: It was assigned for Error, that the Scire facias was sued out and prosecuted by J. S. his Attorney, but no Warrant of Attorney entered of Record. It was answered, That J. S. appears to have been the Attorney in the principal Cause, and in that to have had a Warrant, but the Court reversed the Judgment; for the Record against the Principal need not have been certified upon this Writ of Error, and the Suit against the Principal was another distinct Suit; therefore there ought to be a particular Warrant of Attorney for this Scire facias against the Bail, and this Warrant ought to be entered, not before the Writ sued; for any Body may sue out the Scire facias; but upon the Return thereof, for then the Suit commences.

Costs allowed to them, because the Churchwardens of St. Andrew's Holborn neglected to attend, upon which the Appeal was allowed, and the Order of the two Justices vacated ; and then ordered, That for good Reasons shewn unto this Court, It is ordered, that the said recited Order of this Court made on Monday last, be vacated and discharged, and that the said Appeal be reheard. 3dly, An Order setting forth, That upon hearing the Appeal of St. Clement Danes, it not appearing that Mary Gear hath any legal Settlement in St. Andrew's Holborn, or elsewhere, save in St. Clement Danes ; this Court doth dismiss the said Appeal, confirm the Order of the two Justices, and order the said Mary Gear to be continued in St. Clement Danes. TRESPASS and Special Verdict found; the Case was, A Gentleman had a Coach and Harness of his own, and gave an Inn-holder 100 l. per Annum to find him a Pair of Horses and a Coachman: And the Question was, Whether he could do this without a Licence to keep a Hackney-Coach, upon 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 22? Et per Cur. Though in the Beginning of the licensing Clause, sect. 3. and in the prohibiting Clause, sect. 5. Hackney-Coach or Coach-Horses are mentioned in the Disjunctive, yet that must be understood of Coach-Horses to be used with a Hackney-Coach, because all other Provisions in the Act, viz. the Number, the Fine, the Rent, and the whole Revenue reserved, is confined to Hackney-Coaches; and the Party cannot forfeit, but where the Commissioners may licence; and 'tis an Act of Restraint.

A Warrant of Attorney for entering up a Judgment was written upon a Paper, which likewise contained a Bond, and had only one Stamp, whereas by the Act concerning Stamp-Duties it ought to have two Stamps: Judgment was entered up by Virtue of this Warrant. IN Debt on the Statute of Hue and Cry, a Special Verdict was found, That the Plaintiff was travelling in the Highway in the Hundred of Michael-River, where he was set upon and carried into the Hundred of Basingstoke, and robbed in a Coppice in the Highway of this Hundred: The Question was, Which Hundred should be liable? And it was adjudged, That the Hundred of Basingstoke should, for there the Robbery was committed, and not before; and if these had been two Counties, it is certain the Indictment of Robbery must have been brought in the latter where the Goods were taken, and not in the first where the Assault was made: Also the Hundred is not liable for not preventing the Robbery, but for not taking the Robbers; for if they are taken, the Hundred is excused. Vide Hutt. 125. Golbsb. 86. It was objected, That the taking, &c. should relate to the Assault, and so it was a Robbery ab initio, like the Case of Murder, where 'tis certain there shall be a Relation to the Stroke, which was the Cause. In Answer to which the Court took this Diversity. As to Forfeitures there shall be a Relation to the first Cause; so if there be a Pardon of the Stroke, it shall discharge the Murder; but after the Stroke, if one knowing thereof receives him, or if a Constable arrests him and lets him go, the Receiver is not Accessary to Felony, nor the Constable a Felon; * for it is not a Felony till Death ensue. 11 H. 4. 12.
b. Otherwise as to collateral Purposes; for if the Stroke and Death are laid at different Days, and the Indictment concludes, Et sic murdravit die & loco of the Stroke, it is naught; but the Day and Place of his dying is well. 4 Co. 41.
Plowd. 401. But here the Assault is not a necessary efficient Cause of the Robber-ry, as a Stroke in Murder is; therefore there is no Relation in this Case, because no Necessity. It was objected, that if one be taken in the Hundred of
A. and carried into the Hundred of B. into a House there, viz. a Mansion-House, and robbed, or taken in the Day-time in A. and carried to B. and there robbed in the Night, there shall be no Remedy? And the Court said, those Cases were not provided for by the Statute. Adjudged per Holt & totam Cur'. Also he said as to the Assault's being in the Coppice, That it was not necessary the Robbery should be in the Highway to charge the Hundred. And yet

Subsidies, Taxes, and Customs.

Brewster versus Kitchel. Hill. 9 Will. 3. B. R. Vide The State and Resolution of this Case, Title Covenant, pl. 4. pag. 198.

IN the Debate of this Case it was laid down by Holt C. J. That the Word Taxes, generally spoken with Reference to a Freehold, or where the subject Matter will bear it, shall be intended parliamentary Taxes propter excellentiam. 34 H. 8. Quinzim. 9. But there be other Taxes not parliamentary, as Repair of Churches, Commission of Sewers; for any Imposition which takes away Part of his Goods or Rent, is a Tax. 2 Inst. 532.

The ancient Way of Taxing was by Tenths and Fifteenths, then by Subsidies, after that by Royal Aids; at last by a Pound-Rate: The former were all on the Person or personal Estate, and were much the same Thing: The latter was upon Rents and Lands. * Tenths and Fifteenths were the most ancient. Vide Spelman verbo Quindecima. In 8 Ed. 3. a Valuation was made on all the Towns in England. and returned into the Exchequer, which became the standing Measure for taxing. 2 Inst. 76, 77. From this when a Tax was given, the Officers of the Exchequer could easily compute what each Town was to be charged with, and what it came to. Vide 11 H. 4. 35, 36. Bro. Quinz. 9.

* P. 616

The first Subsidy was in and by 32 H. 8. cap. 50. which was a Tax upon the Person for his Lands and Goods, payable by the Party where he lived. This continued till 15 Car. 1.

The Assessment or Tax, according to a Pound-Rate, came in 17 Car. 1. In these Assessments there was a Clause to empower the Tenant to deduct: So it was in 1642, 1644, 1649. And then, and upon this Account it was, that in Conveyances it came to be provided, that there should be no Deduction for Taxes.

Trowel versus Ellford. Trin. 5 Ann. B. R.

TRESPASS against the Collectors of the Land-Tax; the Case was, That the Plaintiff lived in Middlesex, but exercised and followed the Business of a Factor in Smithfield; and the Question was, whether the Commissioners of Middlesex where he lived, could tax him as living in Middlesex, or he should be taxed by the Commissioners of London as following his Business in Smithfield? And Holt C. J. held, That the Action lay, and that he was not taxable by the Commissioners of Middlesex; for by the very Words of the Act, he is to be taxed in the Place where his Office is exercised: Ceteri Jusse contra, for this is not an Office which is local, but an Employment which is personal, and the Person is taxable where he lives; and the affirmative Words of the Act are directory: He is taxable in either Place.

H. may be assessed to the Land Tax either where he dwells or carries on his Employment.

Robinson versus Stephens. Mich. 8 Ann. In Canc.

IF one covenants to pay an Annuity to Y. S. the Covenantor shall not deduct for Taxes; for the Charge is on the Person of the Covenantor, and not the Land: So if H. having a Term for Years, devises an Annuity to Y. S. and his Heirs, there can be no Deduction for Taxes, for the Term for Years is no otherwise chargeable with it, than as it is Part of the personal Estate; for it cannot be said to issue out of the Term, when in Point of Duration it may continue much longer: So if H. grants an Annuity to Y. S. and afterwards secures it out of a real Estate, there shall be no Deduction for Taxes; for the Subsequent Security * cannot lessen the Effect of his former Grant, which in its Creation was Tax-free. Prisage, an ancient duty on Goods granted away by the Crown is chargeable with other Duties charged on the same Goods while in the Grantee's Hands. Concerning Prisage, vid. Hardr. 56, 57, 218, 301. &c. 477. Davis 17.

ASSUMPSIT for 500*l.* received to the Use of the Plaintiff; on Non Assumpsit a special Verdict was found, That King Charles I. gave to J. S. and his Heirs, the Duty of Prisage of all Wines imported, to hold discharged of all Aids and Taxes; and the Question was, Whether the Grantee should pay Tonnage for this upon 9 & 10 W. 3.? Note; The Duty of Tonnage was first imposed *per 12 Car. 2. c. 4. viz. 4*l.* 10*s.* on all French Wine*; then comes 1 Jac. 2. c. 3. and imposes 8 l. per Tun on French Wine, with a Clause, that the Grantee of Prisage should pay the Duty; then comes 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 20. which imposes 25 l. per Ton; after that comes 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 23. which imposes over and above, a Duty of 4 l. 10 s. to be levied according as it was by 12 Car. 2. And it was adjudged in the Exchequer, that the Grantee should not pay this Duty of Tonnage: Upon this Error was brought; and it was said for the Grantee, That this was an ancient Royal Revenue, that if the Crown now held it, Tonnage could not be due, the Queen could not pay a Duty of Tonnage out of her own Prisage; that the Grantee claimed under the Crown, and ought to have the same Privilege and Exemption, the rather because it was granted with this Immunity. But per Trevor C. J. and seven other Judges in the Exchequer-Chamber, it was answered and resolved, That immediately on Importation, this Duty of Tonnage attached upon the Wine, and the Grantee receives whatever Part he takes for Prisage charged with the Duty; and this must be presumed to be the Intent of the Law; for it cannot be imagined the Law meant to raise this Duty on the People to enrich a private Man, which would be the Effect, if he may have his Prisage Custom-free: And the Grantee paid the Tonnage imposed by all former Laws.

As to the Reasons on the other Side, they answered, If Prisage had remained in the Crown, it could not have paid by reason of the Unity of Possession, it being absurd, that the Queen should be chargeable with a Duty to herself; but this Exemption is only personal, and the Duty revives when Prisage comes to a Subject, whom may pay the Duty to the Crown, as where a Parson leases his Glebe. And as to the Covenants or Clause of Discharge in the Grant, that could only extend to the Tonnage then in being, which he, tho' King had himself, and not to what he had not, but might be given to his Successors. And the Judgment was reversed.

TENANT in Tail covenanted to stand seised to the Use of himself for Life, Remainder to John his eldest Son in Tail, and afterwards suffered a Common Recovery with single Voucher, wherein he was Tenant to the Præcipe: And the first Question was, What Operation the Covenant had? For if it made any Alteration in the Estate-tail, the Recovery did not bar; and if it did not, the Recovery and single Voucher did bar. The Court held the Recovery good, and affirmed the Judgment; and Holt C. J. delivered the Opinion of the Court, and gave the Reasons for it, the Sum of which was, 1st, That if Tenant in Tail by Covenants to stand seised, or by Lease and Release, or Bargain and Sale, conveys to another and his Heirs, 'tis a base Fee, not determined nor determinable till the Entry of the Issue; for before the Statute de donis, he had a Fee simple; and the Statute does not alter the Nature of the Estate, but restrain the Power of Alienation; and therefore as he might before the Statute, so he may since; the Statute only makes it voidable.

2dly, He has the whole Estate in him, and therefore must be able to divest it, and so he said was Seymour's Case in Point, viz. Tenant in Tail bargained and sold, the Bargainee has a descendible Fee. This Case he held for Law, but denied the Case of Took and Glascock, 1 Saund. 260. and likewise Litt. § 612. if it be taken literally.

3dly, This appears from 3 Coke 84. If Tenant in Tail grants a Rent, Advowson, &c. 'tis not void as to their Issues, but voidable; for if he brought a Formedon, the Defendant may plead a Warranty. Vide Winch 5. But this is still more apparent from the common Case, where Tenant in Tail makes a * Lease not warranted by the Statute, 'tis not void as to the Issue, but voidable; and Tenant in Tail may exchange with a Tenant in Fee, in which Case a Fee is given and taken without Livery: Ergo, Tenant in Tail may also by Covenant to stand seised. If Tenant in Tail by Lease and Release, by Bargain and Sale, or by Covenant to stand seised, convey to another and his Heirs, the Estate-tail is not in Abeyance, but in the Alienees, for the Law puts nothing in Abeyance, but of Necessity; and 'tis not in the Tenant in Tail; for he cannot bring Waste, &c. Vide Hob. 339. Yelv. 51. 1 Leon. 110. 1 And. 191. 3 Cro. 895. But he held that the present Conveyance did produce no Alteration in the Estate-tail, because the Estate in Remainder was to commence after his Death; and took this Difference.

If Tenant in Tail make a future Lease for Years, which by Possibility may be to commence during the Life of Tenant in Tail, it is not void, but voidable as to the Issue.

But if it be a future Lease to commence after the Death of Tenant in Tail, 'tis merely void in its Creation; for 'tis not to commence till the Title of the Issue commences, and that is an elder Title concurring with it; and if the Law should make it otherwise than void, the Law would make him a Trespasser. Vide Dy. 279. Pl. 7. 2 Cro. 565.

So in Covenant, if one covenant to stand seised to the Use of A. and his Heirs, or to the Use of A. for Life, Remainder to B. in Fee, the Covenant is not void, but puts the Estate-tail out of the Covenantor.

But if Tenant in Tail covenant to stand seised to the Use of A. and his Heirs after his Death, 'tis void.

VOL. II.

Covenant by Tenant in Tail to stand seised to the Use of himself for Life, Remainder to A. in Tail, is void; because the Remainder is to take Effect after his Death. 1 Mod. 98, 121, 159, 175. 3 Lev. 126, 306, 307, &c. 2 Lev. 75, 213, 225. 2 Mod. 207. 1 Vent. 372.

Bargainee of Tenant in Tail has a descendible Estate.

What Conveyances by Tenant in Tail are defeasible by the Entry of the Issue.

* P. 620

Tenant in Tail covenants to stand seised to the Use of A. and his Heirs, or A. for Life with Remainders. it divests the Estate-tail; otherwise if the new Use be to take So Effect after his Death.

Tail.

So it is in the Case at Bar, Tenant in Tail covenants to stand seised to the Use of himself for Life, Remainder to J. S. and his Heirs; for the Remainder is to take Effect after his Death, when by his Death the Title of the Issue commences, and the Covenant as to the Estate for Life to himself is void in this Case, because here is no Transmutation of Possession; such Covenant is in any Case only good in respect of the Remainders, and since the Remainders are void, the Covenant and the first Estate are likewise void.

* 1st, That a Limitation of Uses in a Copyhold Surrender must be construed by the same Rules, and in the same Manner as if it were a Limitation in a Deed of Feoffment, or any other Conveyance at Common Law; and that the Intent of the Party is not sufficient as in a Will, for the Statute 21 H. 8. leaves the Testator at Liberty to express his Intent as he pleases; but the Common Law ties up Conveyances to set Form and set Words.

In a Gift in Tail it must appear of what Body the Issue are to come.

2dly, In a Gift in Tail it must be limited of what Body the Issue is to come; so as it may appear by the express Words, or something tantamount or equivalent; and therefore a Gift to H. and his Heirs-Males, or a Gift to H. and his Heirs-Females, is not an Estate-tail; because it is not said, nor does it appear of whose Body they are to issue. At Common Law this would not have been a Fee conditional; and the Statute de donis does not create Estates-tail, but preserves them: A Fee at Common Law was either absolute or restrained; those restrained Fees were either restrained as to Duration, as a Gift to A. and his Heirs, while such a House stood, &c. which was a base Fee; or restrained as to what particular Heirs, or of whose Body issuing should inherit, which was a Fee conditional, and is by the Statute turned into an Estate-tail; Ergo this is a Fee-simple at Common Law, and is so at this Day; for there are Words to create an Estate of Inheritance; but none to restrain that to Issue or Heirs to the Body of the Party: But a Gift to a Man and the Heirs-Males of his Body, is an Estate-tail; so is an Estate to Husband and Wife, & heredibus de ipsis procreatis, for de ipsis is tantamount; so if a Gift be to H. and his Heirs, if he have Issue of his Body; and if he die without Heirs of his Body, the Remainder to himself and his Heirs, for here is an Inheritance created, and it is manifest he meant Heirs of his Body, & voluntas donatoris in Charta doni sui manifestè expressa de cætero observetur, and this is a necessary Implication. Jenk. 171. 5 H. 6. 6. So if a Gift be to A. & heredibus suis si heredēs de carne sua habuerit, & si nullos heredēs de Carne sua habuerit, Remainder to the Donor: So if Lands be given to A. & si contingat ipsum obire sine heredibus de corpore suo, Remainder to the Donor, is an Estate-tail, *per Holt C. To B. and the Heirs Males of the said B. lawfully begotten, and for Default, &c. over is Tail.

3dly, They agreed Beresford's Case, viz. A Feoffment to the Use of A. for Life, Remainder to B. and the Heirs-Males of the said B. lawfully begotten, and for Want of such Issue lawfully begotten, to, &c. to be an Estate-tail; for of the said B. is de dicto B. or ex dicto B. which is sufficient to denote ex quo corpore; so if it were in Latin, remanere prædict. B. & heredibus de dicto B. or ex dicto B. But if it were in Latin remanere dicto B. & heredibus suis, or heredibus ipsius & pro defectu talis exitus, Remainder over, it had been no Estate-tail.

* 4thly, It was agreed per Holt C. J. Powys and Powel Justices, That Valentine and Alice had a Fee-simple, and not an Estate-tail, because the Words, & pro defectu talis exitus import nothing of their dying without Issue; it is not said *pro defectu talis exitus de corporibus dict. INDEBITATUS Assumpsit and Quantum meruit, and that being requested at such a Day and Place, the Defendant refused to pay: The Defendant pleaded, That at such a Day before the Request, he tendered, and the Plaintiff refused; and that afterwards he was always ready, and tenders the Money into Court: Plaintiff demurred, because the Defendant had imparled, and because it is not pleadable in an Assumpsit, and because here was no Answer to the special Request. Et per Holt C. J. Where the Agreement is to pay at a certain Time, Tender at that Time, and always ready, is a good Plea; but where the Money is due and payable immediately by the Agreement, the Party must plead tout temps prist from the Time of the Promise: But this cannot be after Imparance, for by that it appears he was not always ready; otherwise if no Imparance, then he might have pleaded tout temps prist notwithstanding the special Request laid in the Declaration, because it was immaterially alledged there; so in Debt, tho' the Plaintiff lay a special Request, the Defendant may plead semper paratus, and pray Judgment de dampnis: And the Plaintiff may reply a special Request to shew the Defendant was not always ready: So in the principal Case: Yet there is a Difference between Debt and Assumpsit; for in Debt the Damages are but accessory; but in Assumpsit are the Principal: Therefore in Debt, The Defendant may plead in Bar of the Damages; but in Assumpsit the Defendant ought to plead Always ready, with a Profert in Cur', and demand Judgment de ulterioribus dampnis.

REGINALD Tucker brought a Writ of Error to reverse an Attainder of High Treason, upon an Indictment against him for the Rebellion in Monmouth's Time: The Indictment was, That the Defendant and another, *Ligeantie sue * debitum minime ponderant*, did traiterously wage War against the King verum & naturalem Dominum suum contra pacem, &c.

It was held, 1st, That the Want of the Words, contra Ligeantie sue debitum, supposing them to be necessary, were not supplied by the first Words, *Ligeantie sue * debitum minime ponderant*, &c. for a Man may not consider his Duty, and yet may not act or offend against it: And contra Ligeum supremum Dominum suum, are not now necessary, nor were they anciently used. These do not positively express, but imply only, That the Defendant acted against his Allegiance; and Indictments shall not be made good by Intendments.

2dly, Without the Duty of Allegiance there can be no Treason, therefore an Alien Enemy cannot commit Treason; an Alien Amy being here may: That for Want therefore of these Words, the Crime wants a due Description.

'Tis true, some Precedents of Indictments want the Words Contra Ligeantie sue debitum. But to these the Chief Justice said, They were Cases of Treason made by particular Acts of Parliament, and not where the Fact was Treason in its Nature; and that in such Case 'twas sufficient if the Indictment pursued the Words of the Statute, and concluded contra formam Statuti, without concluding contra ligeantie sue debitum. The Attainder was reversed.

THE Question was at the Trial, Whether Words could be an Overt Act of Treason in compassing the Death of the King? For Hale, Placit. Coron. 13. says, Words are not an Overt Act of Treason, unless set down in Writing. Et per Holt C. J. Loose Words spoken without Relation to any Act or Project, are not Treason: But Words of Persuasion to kill the King are Overt Acts of High Treason; so is a Consulting how to kill the King; so if two Men agree together to kill the King; for the bare Imagination and Compassing makes the Treason, and any external Act that is a sufficient Manifestation of that Compassing and Imagining, is an Overt Act: It was never yet doubted, but to meet and consult how to kill the King, was an Overt Act of High Treason. *Vide Cro. WRIT of Error to reverse a Judgment against the Defendant in an Indictment of High Treason: The Judgment was, Quod interiora extra ventrem trabentur; but these Words, in conspectu ejus & ipso vivente comburentur, were omitted: It was agreed, That if this be a necessary Part of the Judgment and omitted, the Judgment is erroneous; for the Judgment, in capital Cafes especially, is stated, and not arbitrary; and 'twas held, that this was a necessary Part; for though Death is the Ultimum supplicium, yet Death inflicted one Way is more severe than another, and more formidable; and if this Judgment be right, all other Judgments are wrong; for all others have these Words, viz. In conspectu, &c. Vide 1 H. 7, 24. Br. Coron. 121. Stow's Annals 513. Plowd. 387. Rast. 545. Staund. 128. Co. Ent. 422, 423. Harrison, one of the Regicides, rose up and struck his Executioner after his Bowels were cut out, which shews the Thing is not impossible, though that be not very material: At another Day 'twas insisted, That the Record below was right on an Affidavit, that swore, That the Words ipso vivente were in the Record below, and therefore it was prayed, That the Clerk of the Peace might attend by Rule, which was granted; and upon his Attendance it appeared upon Examination, That the Minutes of the Judgment taken and entered upon the Record of the Indictment had these Words in; but Mr. Turner, Clerk of the Peace, said, That Sir Robert Sawyer, then Attorney General, after the Trial said, That Use was to be made of the Record in Ireland, and therefore examined it before it was transcribed, and then this Record which is now certified, was entered at large; so that the Question was, Which was the Record? Et per Cur', That which was entered at large is the Record: Then the Counsel moved it might be amended by the Minutes: And Holt C. J. said, That if it were amendable, they could not amend it here; for if a Record in C. B. be erroneous, we cannot amend it here; but upon Diminution alledged here, we grant a Certiorari; but there can be no Diminution alledged at the Old Bailey.

Record of Judgment in Treason refused to be amended by the Minutes of the Court of Old Bailey. Vid. 2 Hawk. P. C. 247.

2dly, He questioned much if it were at all amendable, and cited Sampson's Case, Jones 421. where the Court were divided, and 'tis there said by Kelynge, That there were no Precedents of any such Amendments: And after the Case had been argued several Times at the Bar, upon the Matter in Law, the Court, Trin. 8 W. 3. unanimously, upon solemn Arguments, reversed the Attainder, for want of the Words, ipso vivente, or in conspectu ejus.

CRANBURN, a natural-born Subject of England, was indicted of High Treason contra Ligeantiae suae debitum. It was objected, That it ought to be naturalis Ligeantiae suae debitum, or contra supremum naturalem Dominum suum, to distinguish it from that which is local Allegiance; for there are two Sorts of Allegiance; a natural Allegiance, as that of Subjects; and a local Allegiance, as that of Strangers residing here; and this is the Allegiance in the Indictment mentioned. Sed per Cur', If an Alien be indicted for Treason contra naturalem Dominum suum, or naturalis Ligeantiae suae debitum, the Defendant may give in Evidence that he is an Alien; for the Indictment is restrained to that Species of Allegiance which is not due; but a Subject may be indicted so, or contra Ligeantiae suae debitum; for Allegiance is the Genus, which being set forth, all Species are comprised under it.

Subject indicted for Treason contra Ligeantiae suae debitum, well; otherwise if naturalized, &c. in the Case of an Alien. Ante 631. 3 Inst. 5, 11. Hob. 271. Co. Lit. 129. S. C. Holt. 686. 4 S. T. 686. 6 S. T. Ap. 56.

The Indictment was, That at such a Time and Place proditorie tractaverunt proposuerunt & consultaverunt de viis & modis quomodo Dominum Regem interficerent & consenserunt & agreaverunt quod quadragint. homines equestres should be provided, &c. for that End.

In Indictments for Compassing the King's Death, the Treason being first laid, the Overt-Act need not be laid proditorie. See 1 Hawk. P. C. 38, 39, &c.

It was objected, That here are two distinct Acts of High Treason, and the latter is not laid to be done proditorie. Sed non allocatur; for by Mr. Cowper, the Et makes the whole but as one Sentence; at least it conveys the Force of the Words in the former Sentence to this, and makes it partake of them. Et per

Treason.

Otherwise where the Treason consists in the Act.

Holt C. J. Here is but one Treason alledged, viz. Compassing the Death of the King, and that is said to be proditorie; therefore it need not be repeated again in setting forth the Overt-Act; for the Overt-Act is not the Treason, but Evidence of the Treason. The Treason itself lies in Compassing, which is an Act of the Mind. Accordingly in the Case of the Regicides it was agreed, That the Indictment should not be for killing the King, but for Compassing and Imagining his Death, and that the Killing should be alledged as the Overt-Act; for by the Statute the Treason consists in the Intention. But if a distinct Treason, as that of levying War, had been alledged, where the Treason consists in the Act and not in the Intention, the Act must have been said to be done proditorie; for the Act of levying is a Treason, and not an Overt-Act of Treason or bare Matter of Evidence.

IN the Indictment against Cook, after the Court was sat and the Jury called, but not sworn, Sir Bartholomew Shower of Counsel for the Prisoner made Objections to the Indictment, but it was held right enough; upon that he urged, That then he had not had a Copy, and the Prisoner could not be tried. Et per Cur', By the Words of the Act he is to demand it, and he has it to enable him to plead, and till then he is not to plead. In this Case he has pleaded; therefore this Benefit is waived, and the Prisoner has admitted he has a Copy, or did not think it for his Service to require it, but was able to plead without the Help of it.

Indictment for Treason in levying War, or adhering to the King's Enemies generally, without shewing particular Instances, not good. Vid. 1 Hawk. P. C. 37, 38. S. C. Holt 689. 5 S. T. 17. 6 S. T. Ap. 57.

THE Defendant was indicted for Treason, in adhering to the King's Enemies, cum pluribus subditis Gallicis inimicis Domini Regis, and that they did navigate a certain Vessel, called Clancarty, with a Design to destroy the King's Ships. And it was held by Holt C. J. and the other Justices at the Trial, That an Indictment for levying War, or adhering to the King's Enemies generally, without shewing particular Acts or Instances, is not good; for the Words of the Statute are, And thereof be provably attainted by some Overt-Deed, which comes after the Particulars of Compassing the King's Death, levying War, and adhering to the King's Enemies; and it would be Violence to restrain them to the first Article only without Regard to the last, to which they are equally connected; if they are to be restrained to a single Article, it ought rather to be referred to the Article of adhering only.

And if it be not a good Indictment without special Acts, &c. the Question is, Whether those that are alledged ought not to be proved, and no others? Et per Holt C. J. A distinct Overt-Act cannot be given in Evidence, unless it relate to that which is alledged, or conduces to the Proof of it. But if it conduce to prove an Overt-Act alledged, 'tis good Evidence; as if Consulting to kill the King be alledged, any Actings or Doings in Pursuance of that Consultation may be proved; for it proves their Agreement and Consent, and is a farther Manifestation of the Act alledged in the Indictment.

It was also objected, That in Evidence the Seamen must appear to be Frenchmen born; for if they were Dutch, they are not subditi Gallici.

* P. 635

* 2dly, That though he was said to adhere to the King's Enemies, yet it was not said to be against the King.

3dly, That this was not a sufficient Act of adhering, without fighting, or some Act of Hostility. Et per Cur', Joining with Rebels Subjects of the King's Ally, fighting under the Command of an Enemy Prince, is Treason in adhering, &c.

1st, If the States be in Alliance, and the French at War with us, and certain Dutchmen turn Rebels to the States, and fight under Command of the French King, they are Inimici to us, and Gallici Subditi: For the French Subjection makes them French Subjects in Respect of all other Nations but their own; and if such cruise at Sea, and an Englishman assist them, he is a Traitor, but not a Pirate, for none are Pirates that Act under the Command of a Sovereign Prince.

Trespafs.

2dly, Adhering to the King's Enemies must of Necessity be against the King; and therefore if an Englishman assist the French, being at War with us, and fight against the King of Spain, who is an Ally of the King of England, this is Treason, as adhering to the King's Enemies against the King; for the King's Enemies are hereby strengthened and encouraged, and so is within the express Words of 25 E. 3. of adhering to the King's Enemies; and it is sufficient to alledge the Treason in the Words of the Statute.

3dly, Cruising is a sufficient Overt-Act of Adhering, Comforting and Aiding; as if Englishmen would lift themselves and march, this is sufficient without coming to Battle, and there may be levying War without actual Fighting. Vide Vaughan's Trial.

TRESPASS was brought by Lessee of a Copyholder for Life, for breaking his Close and cutting down his Trees; the Defendant justified as Servant to the Earl of Kent, Lord of the Manor: The Plaintiff replied, That the Copyholder was Tenant for Life, his House in Decay, and that the Trees growing on the Land were not sufficient to repair, &c. Upon Demurrer Holt C. J. held, That 3 Cro. 5. was not Law, and that the Copyholder was Tenant of the Trees as much as of the Land; that the Fruit and the Acorns belonged to the Tenant; and he held, That if H. has all the Thorns in such a Place for Estovers, he may maintain Trespafs against any one that cuts them, even his Grantor, and in such Case need not aver that he burnt them. But where H. hath only Estovers to be taken in such a Wood or Place, and the Grantor cuts the Whole, the Grantee may maintain Case against the Grantor, but not Trespafs Vi & Armis; and the whole Court held the Action was well maintained by the possessory Right which the Plaintiff had: The Judgment was affirmed in Cam. Scacc. but reversed in the House of Lords; for the Tenant could not cut the Trees; and if the Lord could not, they must rot on the Land; for then no Body could.

TRESPASS for entering his Close and Hunting such a Day continuando transgr. præd. quoad the Hunting; diversis diebus & vicibus, from the Day of the Trespass alledged till such a Day. Salkeld urged that this appeared not to be continued; that some Acts were permanent without Intermission or Repetition, which properly lie in Continuance; others not.

* 2dly, That some Acts terminate in themselves and cannot be repeated, as killing a Dog; when once done it cannot be done again; therefore this cannot be laid with a Continuando. Vide 1 Lev. 210. 2 Ro. Abr. 549. And as to repeatable Acts, wherever the first Trespass is without an Ouster, there every several Entry is a distinct Trespass and a new Trespass, and not a Continuance of the first; for a Release of the first would not discharge the Second. Vide Cro. Jac. 107. Yelv. 126. [which Holt C. J. denied; for the Continuance must be answered as well as the first Act.] But where the first Entry is with an Ouster, there every other Act or Entry during the Ouster is but a Continuance of the first Trespass, and a Release of the first discharges all. Vide 1 Brownl. 223. Cro. Eliz. 210. 1 Lev. 210. compared with 1 Sid. 319. and so is F. N. B. 91. b. to be intended. So is 20 H. 7. 3. 2 Ric. 3. 15. 21 H. 8. 43. Holt C. J. held, That of Acts that terminate in themselves, and once done, cannot be done again; there can be no Continuando, as Hunting and Killing a Hare or five Hares, but that ought to be alledged, That diversis diebus & vicibus inter such a Day and such a Day, he killed five Hares, or cut and carried twenty Trees: And where a Trespass is laid in Continuance; that cannot be continued, Exception ought to be taken at the Trial, for he ought to recover but for one Trespass. The Court held, That Hunting might be continued as well as Spoiling and Consuming his Grass, or Cutting his Grass; and as to the Case of an Entry and Ouster the Court held, That the Plaintiff being ousted and having made a Re-entry, might bring Trespass, and declare that he entered such a Day, continuando, &c. or that he entered such a Day & diversis diebus & vicibus between such a Day and such a Day. TRESPASS, Assault and Battery laid on the first of October, 3 Reg. The Defendant as to the Vi & Armis pleaded Non cul. And as to the Residue says, That long before, viz. on the 13th of September, a Stranger's Bull had broke into his Close, that he was driving him out to put him in the Pound, and the Plaintiff came into the said Close, & manu forti impedivit ipsum ac Taurum præd. rescussisse voluit, & quod ad præveniend. &c. ipse idem Defend. parvum flagellum super querentem molliter imposuit, quod est idem residuum, &c. absque hoc quod cul. fuit ad aliquod tempus ante eundem 13 Diem. The Plaintiff demurred. Rep. 406. Et per Cur', There is a Force in Law, as in every Trespafs quare clausum fregit: As if one enters into my Ground, in that Case the Owner must request him to depart before he can lay Hands on him to turn him out; for every Impositio manuum is an Assault and Battery, which cannot be justified upon the Account of breaking the Close in Law, without a Request. The other is an actual Force, as in Burglary, as Breaking open a Door or Gate; and in that Case it is lawful to oppose Force to Force; and if one breaks down the Gate, or comes into my Close Vi & Armis, I need not request him to be gone, but may lay Hands on him immediately, for it is but returning Violence with Violence: So if one comes forcibly and takes away my Goods, I may oppose him without any more ado, for there is no Time to make a Request.

LESSOR brought Debt for Rent against his Lessee, upon a Demise at London, of Lands in Jamaica. The Defendant pleaded to the Jurisdiction of the Court, That the Matter ought to be tried in Jamaica; and it was urged that the Lessor cannot bring Debt here against the Assignee of a Term of Lands in Ireland, and that if Entry and Ouster were pleaded, it could not be tried here; and in this Case the Right of the Plaintiff and Defendant depends on foreign Laws which cannot be given in Evidence here. Et per Cur', Where an Action is local it must be laid accordingly; therefore if the Lessor declares on the Privy of Estate, and that lies in Ireland, the Action must be brought there, for the Estate is local; therefore such Lessor cannot maintain Debt here against an Assignee of a Term in Ireland; for the Action is founded on a Privy of Estate: Otherwise where it is founded on a Privy of Contract, which is transitory; as Debt for Rent by Lessor against Lessee; for that may be maintained where the Land lies not. Here it is by the Lessor against the Lessee on the Privy of Contract; and if a foreign Issue, which is local, should happen, it may be tried where the Action is laid; for that Purpose there may be a Suggestion entered on the Roll, That such a Place in such a County is next adjacent; and it may be tried here by a Jury from that Place, according to the Laws of that Country; and upon Nil debet pleaded you may give the Laws of that Country in Evidence.

If the principal Cause be within the Jurisdiction, and an Issue depending on foreign Laws arises it may be tried in the next County, and foreign Laws given in Evidence. SIR Jacob Banks was indicted at the Quarter-Sessions in Berks, and the Indictment was moved hither by the Prosecutor, and now both the Prosecutor and Defendant made up the Record, took out Process, and carried down the Cause to Trial at the Assizes; and the Defendant put in his Record first, tried it, and was acquitted: The Prosecutor upon this moved for a new Trial, and had it.

Trial by Proviso cannot be in the Case of the Crown; nor Nisi Prius, unless by Warrant from the Attorney General. 6 Mod. 246, &c. infra.

Et per Cur'. 1st, Before the 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 11. and 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 33. H. indicted in any County might remove it into B. 2dly, That Removals by Defendants are provided for, but Removals by Prosecutors are not within those Acts; and that this Removal being before the Plea pleaded, the Defendant was out of Court & sine die, but may come in gratis, or be brought in by Process; and in the last Case on Pleading shall give Security to try it, which he is not obliged to do when he comes in gratis.

In what Cases the Defendant may carry down a Cause by Proviso. 2 Lev. 5, 6, &c. infra. 6 Mod. 240. & 123. Savil. 2. 2 Sid. 336.

3dly, That in Civil Actions the Defendant shall never carry down a Cause by Proviso, till there be a Laches in the Plaintiff; except in Causes where the Defendant is as a Plaintiff, as in Replevin, Prohibition, Quare Impedit, which are to have Return, Consultation, and Writ to the Bishop.

4thly, There can be no Trial by Proviso in a Cause of the Crown; because there can be no Default nor Laches, nor can the Crown be compelled to try any Cause by Nisi Prius; and therefore every Cause of the Crown in this Court must be tried at Bar, unless the Attorney General allows a Warrant of Nisi Prius, which implies his Consent to try the Cause in the Country.

5thly, That as in Indictments of Treason or Felony, if the Attorney General will delay, the Court may give the Defendant Leave to bring on the Trial as they see fit (and so it has been done): So in Indictments for Misdemeanors, as in this Case; the Defendant may in the first Instance by the Consent of the Prosecutor, and Leave of the Attorney General, carry down the Cause to Trial; but it shall not be allowed by Surprise on the Attorney General, as here in this Case, and also without Consent of the Prosecutor, or any Default in him.

* 6thly, It was ordered to be a Rule hereafter, That when an Indictment is removed hither by the Prosecutor, the Defendant shall not carry it down to Trial without Leave of the Court on Motion.

IN a Cause to be tried at the Sittings, the Defendant entered a Ne recipiatur; and the Question was, Whether the Plaintiff could go on at the next Sittings without a new Notice? It was agreed, That if no Ne recipiatur had been entered, there must have been two Days Notice. The Clerks upon the principal Question thought no Notice necessary; their Reason was, because the Defendant himself had hindered the Plaintiff's Proceeding, and therefore ought at Peril to attend the next Sittings. But Holt C. J. contra. The Notice fell to the Ground with the Trial: A Rule was made, That where a Ne recipiatur was entered, the Plaintiff shall give Notice the same Sittings, and before they are over, that he will proceed to Trial the next Sittings: And it was said, that if a Cause be not entered two Days before the Sittings, the Defendant may enter a Ne recipiatur.

IN Attachment sur Prohibition, the Plaintiff declared of a Custom in such a Hundred, to pay no Tithe for Agistment of Cattle barren: Issue was taken upon the Custom, and found for the Plaintiff, but Judgment was arrested with this Entry, Et quia apparet Curie Domini Regis hic quod consuetudo præd. nullius Vigoris in lege existit, ideo fiat Consultatio, &c. Et per Cur', 1st, Tithe of Agistment is due of common Right, because the Grass, &c. which is eaten, is de jure titheable, and must have paid Tithe if cut at Perfection: And the Court took this Difference, viz.

That a Hundred or a County cannot prescribe in a Non decimando, for a Thing that is in its Nature de jure titheable; for, as no one single Person, or his Estate, can; no more, by the same Reason, can the Hundred, which consists but of many single Persons Estates. Vide March 26. 1 Ro. Ab. 653.

* But of Things which in their Nature are not titheable de jure, a Hundred or County may prescribe in a Non decimando, because they are discharged in such Case without a Custom to the contrary, and they do but insist on their ancient Right, and that Custom hath not prevailed against it: Ergo the Case of Wood, 1 Ro. Ab.

INFORMATION for that the Defendant being evilly disposed to the Government, did make a Libel, in which Libel were contained divers scandalous Matters secundum tenorem sequent, and in setting forth a Sentence of the Libel, it was recited with the Word nor instead of not; but note, the Sense was not altered thereby. The Defendant pleaded Not guilty; and this appeared upon Evidence, a Special Verdict was found. Et per Curiam;

1st, Cujus quidem tenor imports a true Copy. Vide Reg. 169. 8 Co. 78. Co. Ent. 508. 2 Saund. 121. in hac quæ sequitur forma, 5 Co. 53. Tenor is a Transcript, and implies the very same.

2dly, They held that this was not a Tenor, by Reason of this Variance; for not and nor are different; different in Grammar and different in Sense: And Powys J. held as to the Point where literal Omissions, &c. would be fatal, that where a Letter omitted or changed makes another Word, 'tis a fatal Variance; otherwise where the Word continues the same: And in the principal Case, no Man would swear this to be a true Copy.

* 3dly, The Court held, That there was a Difference between Words spoken and Words written; of the former there could not be a Tenor; for there was no Original to compare them with, as there is of Words written; and tho' there has been Attempts to plead a Quorum Tenor of Words spoken, it has never been allowed; and therefore where one declares for Words spoken, Variance in the Omission or Addition of a Word, is not material; and it is sufficient if so many of the Words be proved and found as are in themselves actionable. Vide Dy. 75. 3 Cro. 503. Hard. 470. Otherwise in Debt upon a Bond; for upon Non est factum, any Variance is fatal.

4thly, Holt C. J. held, That in pleading there were two Ways of describing a Libel or other Writing, by the Words or by the Sense: By the Words, as if you declare of a Libel cujus tenor sequitur, &c. or quæ sequitur in his Anglicanis verbis sequentibus, you describe it by its particular Words, of which each is such a Mark, that if you vary, you fail in making good their Description. Vide Dy. 203. If a Man bring Trespass quare clausum fregit, and sets forth Abutments and Bounds, and fails in proving them, he is gone; and yet he needed not to have described it after that Manner. 2dly, You may describe it by its Sense and Meaning; thus it is a good Information to shew, That the Defendant made a Writing, and therein said so and so, translating it into Latin; in which Case, Exactness in Words is not so material, because it is described by the Sense and Substance of it.

J.* In Strictness of Law, an Action for a transitory Matter, as Battery is, may be laid any where. If by Law the Place were material, the Defendant might give in Evidence, as he does in criminal Prosecutions, that the Battery was done in another County: However it is now allowed and become the Course of the Court to change the Venue for the Defendant upon the common Affidavit; a Practice which, as he had heard by old Practisers, came up first in King James the First's Time; but that Rule had never obtained in Cases of privileged Persons, as Barristers, &c. who are to attend at Westminster; and therefore have the Liberty of laying their Actions in Middlesex: So it was held in the Case of Mr. Thompson against Scroggs. The Plaintiff is an * Officer, he is bound to attend the Assizes at Norfolk, and to attend at Westminster to return the Postea's. By the Statute of Westminster Justiciarii habeant Clericos suos irrotulantes; and in Dyer, upon a Question who should return the Postea's in Case both the Justices of Assize died before the Day in Bank, 'twas held the Clerk of Assize should return them. Argued whether a Prohibition lay to the Ecclesiastical Court in a Suit for teaching School without Licence from the Ordinary before the Act for preventing the Growth of Schism. Quære. S. C. Salk. 318.

1st, That the Law favours Means of Livelihood; that Grammar was equally useful to all literate Professions; and that a Lawyer or Physician could be no more without it than a Divine. That all the Colleges in the University were lay Corporations; that tho' the Members of the College might be all of them Spiritual Persons, yet the Corporation was Lay and Temporal; because the Institution and End was Temporal, viz. to advance Learning, which shews that a Schoolmaster is a Lay Employment, and was formerly under the Care of the Civil Magistrate. Stillingfleet's Orig. Brit. 210, 212, 213. That the Common Law takes no Notice of it but as Temporal. Vide 11 H. 4. 47. Poph. 170. Reg. 35. And that the only Mention of it before the Reformation, is Anno Domini 1408. Per Lyndewode 282. That Schoolmasters permit not their Scholars to dispute of Religion, under Penalty of being censured for Heresy, to which every Body was liable; which Provision was to prevent the spreading of Wickliffe's Doctrine: That no Law or Canon required a Licence till the Council of Lateran, Anno Domini 1215. Decret 6. Tit. 5. cap. 1, 2, 3. and that is, That there shall be a Schoolmaster in every Cathedral, and that he shall be licensed by the Bishop. That the several Acts of Parliament which require the Schoolmaster's taking a Licence from the Bishop, shew it was not necessary before, nor was there any such Usage or Practice that can be made appear. Vide Stat. 23 Eliz. c. 2. 1 Jac. 1. c. 4. 14 Car. 2. c. 4.

2dly, That if this was a Calling which a Lay-Man might follow by the Common Law, a Canon cannot restrain him of the Liberty the Law gave him; the Common Law and Custom of the Realm cannot be altered or abrogated, but by Act of Parliament, and therefore a Canon cannot do it, though ordained by the King's Royal Licence, or afterwards confirmed by his Royal Authority. Vide 12 Co. 72. 2 Inst. 97, 647, 653, 657. 2 Ro. Ab. 454. Mo. 782. Ratio est, because being a Lay-Man, he is not represented, and therefore his Consent is not given, and a Man cannot be under the Obligation of a Canon without his Consent express or implied. In the Primitive Church the Laity were present * at all Synods. When the Empire became Christian, no Canon was ever attempted without the Consent of the Emperor; and his Concurrence included the Assent of the whole Body of the People; because he had the sole legislative Power in him: But this is not the Case of our King; for he has not the whole legislative Power in him: Ergo, his Consent to a Canon in re Ecclesiastica, makes it a Law to bind the Clergy, but not to bind the Laity. *Vide 20 H. 6, 13. ## Void and Voidable.

3dly, Where the Common Law or a Statute gives a Remedy in foro seculari, whether the Matter be temporal or Spiritual, the Conusance of that Matter belongs to the King's Temporal Courts only, unless the Jurisdiction of the Spiritual Court be saved by that Statute which gives the Penalty; for otherwise one might be twice punished for the same Thing. Vide Lit. Sect. 136, 137. Cro. Car. 229. 1 Mod. 21, 22. 1 Jon. 320. Where a Crime which was punishable in the Ecclesiastical Court, is made Felony, their Jurisdiction is gone. For Nota; The Nature of the Crime is altered. So 2 Leon. 53. 4 Leon. 92. That in this Case the Act of Parliament which gives a temporal Penalty, does not save the Jurisdiction of the Spiritual Court; which was urged as an Argument that the Parliament did not look upon it as an Ecclesiastical Matter; for in all Cases where Acts of Parliament have imposed farther Penalties in Ecclesiastical Offences, there is a Saving added for the Jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Court; so is 13 Eliz. cap. 5. Of Usury, 31 Eliz. c. 6. Of Simony. 4 Jac. 1. Of Drunkenness, 3 Car. 1. c. 1. Of the Observation of the Sabbath. 3 J. 1 c. 4. Of Recusancy. And they urged also that these Parliaments had not added these Savings, if they had been useless; but it was their Opinion, That imposing a Penalty made it a Temporal Offence, and that their Jurisdiction would have been lost without such a Saving. And lastly this Difference was taken, That where an Act of Parliament gives a Remedy for a Spiritual Matter in the Temporal Courts, the Spiritual Jurisdiction is gone; but where an Act gives a Remedy in a Temporal Matter to be prosecuted in the Spiritual Court, yet the Remedy at Common Law remains, as pro violenta injectione manuum in Clericum. Note; In the Statute de circumspete Agatis, the Words are, commissum fuit alias; which must be understood of a Jurisdiction before granted to them.

On the other Side it was said, That the Canon of Lateran before mentioned, was received in England as well as the other Canon of the same Council for Parochial Tithes, and that it appears by Custom, that the Bishop is to superintend the Education of Youth. Vide Lyndw. l. 5. tit. De Magistris, and the several Statutes, requiring that he shall have a Licence from the Ordinary: And it was said, That the Toleration Act did not influence * this Case, for that did not exempt Men in Places of Trust from qualifying themselves according to the Rites of the Church of England.

They have Issue, the Wife dies, the Issue dies, and the Husband dies; and now the Question in Ejectment was, Whether the Heir of the Husband, or the Heir of the Wife should have the Lands? Et per Cur, 1st, Here can be no Estate for Life to the Husband by Implication; because the Estate was the Wife's, to which he is a Stranger.

2dly, This Limitation to the Heirs of the Body of the Husband, &c. was merely void; for taking it as a Remainder, there is no precedent Estate of Freehold to support it; and taking it as a springing Use, then it is a springing executory Use, to arise after a dying without Issue; which the Law will not expect; so that it is either Way void, and yet must be one of them: But in this Case the Chief Justice held, That a Feoffment to the Use of A. and his Heirs, to commence four Years from thence, was good as a springing Use, and that the whole Estate remained to the Feoffor in the mean Time; so it is if it were to commence * after the Death of A. without Issue, if he die without Issue within twenty Years.

UPON the Trial of this Cause at Nisi Prius in Middlesex, before Holt C. J. a Case was made for the Opinion of the Court, viz. H. levied a Fine, and afterwards suffered a Common Recovery, wherein the Conusee was Tenant, and there being no Deed in the Case, it was objected, That the Use of the Fine resulted to the Conusor; and though the Intent of the Fine might be to make a Tenant to the Præcipe, yet no Use or Trust can be averred since 29 Car. 2. c. 3. Sed non allocatur; for at Common Law the Use was always intended to be to the Feoffee or Conusee, and in pleading, never was averred. Co. Ent. 114, 273. Plowd. 477. But if it be to the Use of the Feoffor or Conusor, then it must be averred.

2dly, The Court held the Party was in by the Fine immediately, and so there was a good Tenant to the Præcipe.

2dly, He held, That where the Uses of a Recovery are declared by Deed precedent, no new or other Use can be averred by Parol, unless there was some Variance between the Deed and the Recovery; and that in Case of a Deed precedent, if the Party set up other Uses, he must confess and avoid: But where they are by Deed subsequent, new or other Uses may be averred without shewing the Deed, though there be no Variance, &c. because there was an intermediate Time when there might be such Agreement made, and the Uses arise by the Recovery according * to that Agreement; and if a Deed subsequent be set up, the other may traverse those Uses. Adjournatur.

UPON a Special Verdict in Ejectment it was found, That Bowyer being seised in Fee, in Consideration of Marriage, by Indenture of Lease and Release conveyed to A. and B. to the Use of herself in Fee, till the intended Marriage with Edward Morley should take Effect, and until the said Morley should settle upon her a Jointure of 300 l. per Annum, and then to the said Morley and his Heirs: The Marriage took Effect, and on the 29th Day of January 1665, they covenanted and agreed to levy a Fine next Hilary Term; and the Use thereof was declared by the same Deed to be to E. Morley and his Heirs. Afterwards, viz. the 31st Day of the same Month, by Indenture between the Husband and Wife, it was agreed and declared, That the Uses of the Deed of the 29th should be revoked. After this, the same Hilary Term, a Fine was levied; and this Writing of the 31st being no Deed, it was resolved.

1st, That by the Agreement of the 29th, the Parties meant a Fine to be levied Hilary Term come twelve Months, and not the Hilary Term then current, and therefore this Fine was not pursuant to that Covenant.

2dly, That if the Fine had been levied pursuant to that Covenant, no parol Averment could have been allowed to declare other Uses, or that the Fine was not to the Uses of that Deed, and all Parties had been estopped to aver the contrary by Parol; but by Deed subsequent, and before the Fine, other Uses may be averred.

3dly, That since the Fine is not according to the Deed, other Uses may be averred, though they were declared by Writing, and not by Deed; for by the Variance there is Room and Occasion given to inquire and receive Information, that the old Agreement was relinquished; and by the same Reason the Use of a Fine may be declared by Parol upon an original Agreement, it may now, as in this Case, where the original Agreement was relinquished: Yet without such Averment the Fine shall be intended to the Use of the first Agreement, notwithstanding the Variance.

4thly, That this is a good Revocation of the Uses of the first Deed, though it be but a Writing; for where the Conveyance enures by Way of Transmutation, the Use is according to the Intent of the Party, and 'tis no Matter how that Intent is manifested, so as it may be known; but where the Conveyance is by Way of Covenant to stand seised, there must be a valuable Consideration, or a binding Agreement by Deed.

H. Brought Covenant as Assignee of a Reversion, and shewed, That the Lessor in Consideration of 5*l.* bargained and sold to him for a Year, and afterwards released to him and his Heirs, virtute quarundam Indentur' barganiæ venditi- onis & relaxationis necnon vigore Statuti de usibus, &c. he was seised in Fee: And it was objected, That the Use must be intended to be to the Relessor and his Heirs, because no Consideration of the Release nor express Use appeared by the Pleading; so that without considering the Operation of the Conveyance, the Question was upon the Pleading, Whether the Use shall be intended to the Relessor, unless it be averred to be to the Lessee? Et per Holt C. J. to which the rest agreed,

If a Lease and Release be pleaded to A. and his Heirs, and no Consideration appears, nor said to whose Use it was; it shall be intended to be to the Use of the Releasee and his Heirs. Dyer 146.

This Way of Pleading was certainly good before the Statute 27 H. 8. so is Plew. 478. and many Precedents in Co. Ent. of Feoffments averred in the same Manner; for the Use was a Matter that was extrinsical to the Deed, and depended upon collateral Agreements at Common Law, and then the Use might, as since the Statute of Frauds by Writing, be averred by Parol, and therefore in pleading the Conveyance was taken to the Use of him to whom the Conveyance was made; till the contrary appeared; if it were otherwise, it ought to come on the other Side; and 27 H. 7. has not altered the Course of Pleading, which is rather confirmed by the Statute; because, if now the Use be construed to be to the Relessor or Feoffor, the Conveyance will be to no manner of Purpose, it being still the old Estate to which the old Warranty and other Qualities remain annexed; whereas before the Statute there might be some End in making the Feoffment, viz. to put the Freehold out of him and prevent Wardship; and Co. Lit. goes no farther, than where there is a Feoffment to particular Uses and Estates, the Residue of the Use shall be to the Feoffor, which is reasonable; for the raising those particular Estates appears a sufficient Reason for the Conveyance. And Powel J. doubted, Whether there could be a resulting Use on a Lease and Release, unless where particular Uses are limited; for this Way of Conveyance is grounded on the ancient Way of Releasing at Common Law, wherein there was a Merger of Estate, which is a good Consideration, as where the Lessor confirms to the Lessee and his Heirs. ONE seised of Lands in Fee, devised them to Trustees and their Heirs; to the Uses, Intents and Purposes herein after mentioned, viz. to the Intent and Purpose to permit A. to receive the Rents and Profits for his Life, and after that the Trustees should stand seised of the Premises to the Use of the Heirs of the Body of A. with a Proviso, that A. with the Consent of his Trustees, might make a Jointure for his Wife; and the Question was, Whether A. had an Estate-tail executed, or not? And it was adjudged he had. Holt C. J. pronounced the Judgment of the Court, and gave these Reasons: 1st, That this would have been a plain Trust at Common Law, and what at Common Law was a Trust of a Freehold or Inheritance is executed by the Statute, which mentions the Word Trust as well as Use; and the Case in 2 Vent. 312. Burchet and Durdant, is not Law; and that the Change of Expression in the principal Case by using the Word permit in the first Clause, which are Words of Trust, and afterwards making Mention of a Use, is immaterial, in regard Trusts at Common Law and Uses are equally executed by the Statute.

Devise to Trustees and their Heirs, on Trust to permit A. to take the Profits for his Life, and afterwards to stand seised to the Use of the Heirs of A.'s Body, is a Use in A. and he has a Tail. S. IN a Scire facias on a Judgment against Tertenants, it was found by Special Verdict, That one Savage being seised in Fee, conveyed by Lease and Release to Trustees and their Heirs, to the Use of himself for 99 Years, Remainder to the Use of the Trustees for twenty-five Years, Remainder to the Heirs Male of his own Body, Remainder to his own right Heirs; the Question was, Whether Savage was Tenant in Tail, or only Tenant for Years? And the Court held the Limitation to the Heirs Male of the Body to be void, because there was no preceding Estate of Freehold limited to support it; and it shall not be implied contrary to the Intent of the Conveyance; and if it could be implied, it must be out of the Estate given to the Heirs of the Body, which cannot be, because this is a new Use; whereas a resulting Use is always from the old Estate, and Parcel of the old Use; and here the Estate takes Effect by Transmutation of Possession out of the Seisin of the Trustees; and not like * Fenwick and Milford's Case, where the Owner covenanted to stand seised to the Heirs of his Body: And yet per Powel J. Method of performing Wager of Law. 2 Vent. 171.

ACTION of Debt was brought on a By-Law; the Defendant waged his Law, and a Day was given upon the Roll for him to come and make his Law; and now upon the last Day of the Term he came: And Nortbey for the Plaintiff insisted, That if he swear falsely or rashly, and without Reason, the Court is not bound to receive him to it, and prayed a Day to speak to that Point. Sed per Holt C. J. We can admonish him; but if he will stand by his Law, we cannot hinder it, seeing it is a Method the Law allows; and the Defendant was set at the right Corner of the Bar, without the Bar, and the Secondary asked him, If he was ready to wage his Law? He answered, Yes; then he laid his Hand upon the Book, and then the Plaintiff was called; and a Question thereupon arose, Whether the Plaintiff was demandable? And a Diversity taken where he perfects his Law instante, and where a Day is given in the same Term, and when in another Term: As to the last, they held he was demandable, whether the Day given was in the same Term or another: Then the Court admonished him and also his Compurgators, which they regarded not so much as to desist from it; accordingly the Defendant was sworn, That he owed not the Money modo & forma, as the Plaintiff had declared, nor any Penny thereof. Then his Compurgators standing behind him, were called over, and each held up his right Hand, and then laid their Hands upon the Book, and swore, That they believed what the Defendant swore was true. Per Nortbey, This will be a Reason for extending Indebitatus Assumpsit further than before. Holt C. J. We will carry them no farther.

Wager of Law lies not in Debt on a By-Law, nor any Action where a Wrong is supposed. 1 Show. 75. 3 Keb. 337. 2 Lev. 142, 174. 9 Co. 87, 88. 1 Lev. 15. 2 Roll. Abr. 106.

IN Debt for the Penalty of a By-Law the Defendant waged his Law ; and it was over-ruled in the Court of the Lord Mayor, and a Commission of Error sued out before Holt C. J. Ward Chief Baron, and other Commissioners. Et per Holt C. J. Debt on a By-Law made by a Corporation, is founded on the Wrong of the Party in not submitting to the Order of the Government of the Corporation, and it arises from his Contempt and Disobedience, and in such Cases no Wager ought to be allowed : So it is in Debt for an Escape, for it supposes a Wrong, and the Action lies not against the Executors : So it is in Debt for Subtraction of Tithes : So it is in Debt against an Executor on a Devastavit, because it supposes a Wrong, and therefore the same Action lies not against the Executor of the Executor.

By Common Law, if a Contract was secret and wanted Witnesses, it was a Privilege on the Plaintiff's Side as well as the Defendant's; for if the Contract was secret, the Plaintiff had the Privilege of putting the Defendant to his Oath. This appears from Magna Charta. Nullus ballivus ponet aliquem ad legem manifestam, nec ad sacramentum simplici loquela sua sine testibus fidelibus. Before this, the Plaintiff, on his Declaration upon bare Affirmance, might make the Defendant swear there was nothing due. At this Day, if the Plaintiff produce Witnesses to prove his Demand, the Court may put the Defendant to wage his Law ; and in such Case the Defendant is not at Liberty to cross-examine, no more than where the Plaintiff in a Prohibition produces Witnesses to prove his Suggestion.

Wager lies in Account if he received of the Plaintiff, not of a Stranger. And in Detinue, whether his Receipt was of the Plaintiff or a Stranger.

No Wager lies but where the Debt arises from a simple Contract that is secret, and not where the Action is founded on any Thing that is notorious. In Account, if the Receipt was by the Defendant, the Defendant may wage, not if by the Hands of a third Person : It is true, the Law is otherwise in Detinue on a Bailment ; for though the Bailment was by the Hands of a third Person, the Defendant may wage his Law ; but here the Bailment is not traversable, but the Detainer, and that is the Point of the Action, and the Redelivery might be private.

In Debt sur Arbitrament.

In Debt on an Arbitrament (I intend where the Submission is by Parol) the Defendant may wage his Law ; because, though the Arbitrators, who are Strangers, are concerned, yet the Submission might be secret ; and that is the Foundation from whence the Debt arises.

In Debt for an Amerciament in a Court Baron. But not on a Judgment in a Court Baron. 2 Med. 140. 2 Vent. 171.

In Debt for an Amerciament in a Court-Baron, the Defendant may wage his Law ; the Reason is, because the Matter is of small Value which concerns the Lord only ; transacted in Pais, * which might be without his Knowledge : But in Debt on a Judgment in a Court-Baron, the Defendant cannot wage his Law ; for the Judgment could not be but by Confession or Verdict, and it was in a proper Court ; all which the Defendant cannot by his bare Oath falsify ; and the Authorities to the contrary are not Law ; And so it is in Debt on a Judgment in a Court of Ancient Demesne. Br. Leygager 11, 34.

Lies not in Debt for Rent, and the Reason.

In Debt for Rent on a Lease Parol, the Defendant cannot wage his Law, because his Occupation is notorious, which is a better Reason than because it favours of the Realty ; and so it is in Account against a Bailiff for the same Reason, his Management and Transaction being notorious.

Not in Debt by a Gaoler for Meat and Drink.

In Debt brought by a Gaoler against his Prisoner for Meat and Drink, the Defendant cannot wage, not because the Gaoler is obliged to find him Victuals ; that is not true, as appears by Plowd. 68. a. but because the Defendant is in Durance, and the Plaintiff cannot take Security from him for Repayment ; for a Bond will be void, so that he must be content with a Promise : And he did not deny the Case of 9 Co. 87. b. 88. a. which was Debt by a Labourer ; it is but just that the Plaintiff should prove he was retained, rather than that the Defendant should be put to wage his Law.

In

Warranty.

In Debt on a By-Law made by a Company, the Defendant in a Case cited to be in B. R. about two Years before, waged his Law; but Holt C. J. said it was, because the Counsel for the Plaintiff did not challenge it; for he wondered at it then; but this is not so strong as Debt on a By-Law by a Corporation; for this obliges all Strangers without Notice; but the other only their own Members, till Notice: And the Chief Justice denied the Case in Co. Ent. 118. and the Case 2 Ro. Ab. 106. Pl. 9.

* Warranty.

Smith versus Tyndal. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R.

IN Ejectment, a Case was made for the Opinion of the Court; Maximilian Taylor being seised in Fee made his Will in the Year 1674, and thereby gave several personal Legacies; and amongst others, four Coats to four poor Boys of the Parish of J. S. for ever; and then he devised all his Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments whatsoever, and likewise all his Goods, Chattels, Money, and personal Estate, to Margaret his Wife, and her Assigns, and made her Executrix; and left 1000 l. personal Estate. Margaret married Archibald Tyndal; and they two by Indenture covenant to levy a Fine to the Use of them two for their Lives, Remainder to Archibald and his Heirs with Warranty, and accordingly a Fine was levied.

1st, The Court held this Devise to Margaret was a Fee, because it was subject to a perpetual Charge *.

2dly, That in Case it was not, yet that the Heir of Margaret was bound by this collateral Warranty.

3dly, That though a Cestuiq; Use is in the Post, and not in the Per, yet he may take Advantage of a Warranty annexed to his Estate, according to Lincoln College's Case; ratio est, because by the Statute of Uses, the Estate in Law in Possession is transferred to his Use, and he is Tenant of the legal Estate, and has all Advantages that the Tenant had before to defend his Estate; therefore he may rebut, for that is to defend; but he cannot vouch, for that is to recover in Value for the Loss.

4thly, The Court held, That the Plaintiff in Ejectment may make Title by a collateral Warranty, and give it in Evidence as his Title, according to 10 Co. 97. So if a Disseisor dies after five Years quiet Possession, and the Disseisee enter, the Heir may maintain an Ejectment, for the Right of Possession belongs to the Heir, though the mere Right be in the Disseisee: So if a Man enters by Wrong and disseises another, and continues twenty Years in quiet Possession, yet in these Cases, if a Writ of Right were brought, and the Mife joined upon the mere Right, the Verdict must be for the Plaintiff, notwithstanding the Statute of Limitations in the one Case or the collateral Warranty in the other.

* 5thly, That Rights of Entry are bound by collateral Warranty as well as Rights of Action.

6thly, That no Warranty extinguishes a Right, but only binds or bars it as long as the Warranty continues in Force; for if the Warranty be released, the ancient Right revives: Litt. § 708.

Waifs, Estrays, &c.

Henly versus Walsh. Mich. 4 Ann. B. R.

Owner of a Stray may seize it, tendering Satisfaction. S. C. 3 D. 282. D. p. 2, 284. p. 2, 3. Rep. A. Q. 89. Holt 563.

TRESPASS for his Horse: Defendant pleaded, That one Pooly was Owner of the Horse, and that the Horse estrayed out of his Possession, and came to the Hands of the Plaintiff, and that he by Command of Pooly demanded the Horse within a Year, &c. and tendered Amends, and that the Plaintiff refusing to deliver him, he took him. To this there was a frivolous Replication, and upon that a Demurrer. Et per Cur', 1st, Without telling any Marks or making any Proof of Property (which may be done upon the Trial) the Owner may seize his Horse where he finds him. Vide Co. Ent. 40, 170. b. Rast. 680. 7 H. 6, 2. 44 E. 3, 14. Br. Estray 1.

And 2dly, Though the Defendant does not plead directly that he tendered Amends, but only that he demanded the Horse proferendo Satisfaction; yet the Court held this a direct Affirmation, like the Case of Warrantizando vendidet; where the Participle affirms as directly as a Verb; so dans plagam mortalem is well enough. Vide 2 Cro. 630. 4 Co. Long's Case.

And in Pleading it, he need not shew a certain Sum. Cro. El. 813.

3dly, The Court held, That though it was said he tendered Amends generally, and did not express any certain Sum, yet that was good in this Case; and a Difference was taken between this Case and that of a Tender of Amends for a Trespass. In that of a Trespass if the Defendant pleads a Tender of Amends, he must shew what he tendered; for he must tender a certain Sum; and the Law puts this Difficulty upon him, because he is the Wrong-doer, and the other is confessedly a Party injured: But * the Owner of the Stray is no Wrong-doer, and it is impossible he should know how long his Horse had been in the Lord's Custody, nor how much will make a proper Satisfaction.

Another Exception was, That the Defendant does not aver the Amends tendered was refused. Et adjournatur. Vide Cro. El. 888, 889. 1 Ro. Ab. 879. 2 Ro. 92. 1 Sid. 13.

UPON a feigned Issue, the Question was, Whether the Will was made according to the Statute of Frauds? Dominus Rex versus Crosby. Pasch. 7 Will. 3. B. R. 1 Ld. Raym.
39. S. C.

ON a Trial at Bar for High Treason, the Prisoner, Mr. Crosby, took Exception to Aaron Smith's Evidence, having stood in the Pillory upon a Judgment in an Information against him for a Libel. Mr. Solicitor and Mr. Cowper insisted, That the Infamy flowed from the Crime and not from the Punishment, and that Mr. Smith's Crime was not infamous, nor did it deserve such Punishment. Holt C. J. without determining this Point held, That Aaron Smith was restored by the general Pardon of 2 W. & M. which operated by Way of Restoration, and made him a new Creature. 3 Lev. 427. Vide the Case of Chester versus Hawkins, That the Disability flows from the infamous Judgment, and not from the Nature of the Crime ; for if a Man be convicted for a Cheat, and adjudged to stand in the Pillory, he cannot be a Witness ; otherwise if he be not adjudged to stand in the Pillory : Also they held the Infamy was by the Judgment to stand in the Pillory, and not from the actually standing there, and that he was disabled to be a Witness, though he never stood. Nota ; In these Cases the Disability is a Consequence, and the Pardon, which makes him de cætero a new Creature, discharges all Consequences, Dependencies, &c. And therefore in the Case of the King and Weeden Ford, Mich. 12 W. 3. B. R. The Question being where the King could pardon the Disability, and where not ? Holt C. J. took this Difference ; Where the Disability is only the Consequence of the Judgment, the King may pardon it ; but where the Disability is Part of the Judgment itself, the King's Pardon will not take it away ; therefore if a Man be convicted of Perjury on the Statute, the King's Pardon will not restore ; for it is not a Consequence, but Part of the Judgment, viz. Quod imposterum non sit receptus ut testis. Vide Co. Ent. 368. But a Pardon by Act of Parliament will restore him in that Case. *Quod nota. UPON a Special Commission issued out of Chancery, an Inquisition was taken, which found, That Weedon Ford had committed five voluntary Escapes Ford traversed, and upon the Trial, one who was suffered to escape, but was returned again, was produced to be a Witness: And it was objected, That this was to save his own Bond which he had given to be a true Prisoner, and would intitle him to an Action of false Imprisonment against the Marshal, and compared it to the Case of an usurious Bond. Sed per Cur', The Bond given by the Prisoner is a collateral Matter to the Escape; and the Consequence of his Evidence as to that Bond, is not material to disable his being a Witness; and it is not like the Case of Usury; for that renders the Bond void; and this is a Matter privately transacted between the Party and the Officer, of which there can be no other Evidence.

THE Plaintiff declared, That being a Justice of Peace and Deputy-Lieutenant, and having served as Knight of the Shire for the County of Gloucester, and intending to stand Candidate again to be Knight of the Shire for the said County, the Defendant in Discourse with J. S. speaking of the Plaintiff and his standing Candidate, said, Do not vote for him, for he is a Jacobite, and for bringing in the Prince of Wales and Popery, to destroy our Nation: Verdict for the Plaintiff, and entire Damages.

In Arrest of Judgment 'twas objected,

1st, That it was incertain where the Prince of Wales should be brought in.
* 2dly, That there was no such Person, and the Court could take no Notice of him.

3dly, He might mean it legally by Act of Parliament.

4thly, He is not charged with any Act.

5thly, The Offices recited were not Offices of Profit. Sed per Cur;

1st, The Words being spoken with respect to an Englishman, therefore the bringing in must be supposed to be into England; the rather, because 'tis said to be, to destroy our Nation; and the Defendant could not have been found guilty, if he had appeared upon Trial to be a Dutchman, as in Cromwell's Case, Thou art a Murderer; upon Evidence, it appeared to be spoke in the Sense, a Murderer of Horses; and the Defendant was acquitted.

2dly, We will take Notice of the Prince of Wales, not as really such, but pretendedly such, being mentioned in Acts of Parliament; and one may gain a Name by Reputation, as a Bastard does that of his reputed Father.

3dly, We cannot suppose he can mean to do this fairly; but if he does, 'tis Scandal; for the King and Government being Protestant, 'tis good Reason for them to displace him, as not fit to be trusted.

4thly, As to his not being charged with any Act, Inclination and Principles are sufficient without an Act. 3 Lev. 90. 1 Brownlow 5 March 4. 1 Ro. 86: Ellis's Case, and so was Sir Tbo. Clargis's Case.

In Offices of Profit Words
imputing Want of Ability, are actionable; otherwise in Offices of Honour.
Vide post, 698. Cro. Car.

5thly, In Offices of Profit, Words that impute either Defect of Understanding, of Ability or Integrity, are actionable; but in those of Credit, Words that impute Want only of Ability, are not actionable, as of a Justice of the Peace: He a Justice of Peace? He is an Ass, and a beetle-headed Justice: Ratio est, because a Man cannot help his Want of Ability, as he may his Want of Honesty; otherwise

It might be more doubtful if the Words were of a Patent-Officer; for then it is an Aspersions to the Queen and Government * that employs him: Here it does not appear the Mayor was a Justice of Peace: at least not by Commission from the King; Yet if these Words had been written, an Indictment would have lain. *Vide 1 Sid. 270. 1 Lev. 139. But for these Petit Offences, which are contra bonos mores, the Law has another Provision, by requiring Surety for the Peace and Good Behaviour; in Default whereof the Magistrate may commit him, when spoken out of Court; and when in Court, then the Magistrate may proceed summarily against him, and fine him for the Contempt. A Mandamus was directed Jacobo Courteen Majori Ballivis & omnibus principalibus Burgenfibus Burgi de Abingdon, who by the Constitution were to chuse the Mayor out of such Persons as should be proposed by the Commonalty, commanding them to chuse accordingly: It was objected to the Writ, That it was misdirected; for that this was but a Part of the Corporation, viz. Chief Burgeses; whereas the Name of the Corporation was, Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses; and it was urged that Persons constituting a Corporation could be considered but * in one of these two Capacities, viz. their Corporate or their Natural; and that the Writ must be directed to them, either by their Names, or as a Corporation; and they cited Holt's Case, 2 Jones 52. in Point. Holt C. J. said, that Case was not Law, That Serjeant Pemberton, Sir William Jones, and all the learned Part of the Bar wondered at the Resolution: And though it should be true, that a mandatory Writ might be directed to the whole Corporation, yet it could not be necessary it should be directed to more than those, or that Part of the Corporation that was concerned in the Execution of the Thing required; for it is not in the Power of others to put the Command of the Writ in Execution: And the Writ was held good.

1 Lev. 254. 1 Saund. 161, 162. 2 Lev. 109. Writ bearing Teste out of Term is void, but the Sheriff is justifiable.

Pleadings to the Cases.

" And the said Margaret and Mary in their proper Persons come and defend the Force and Injury, &c. and pray Judgment of the said Bill of her the said Rebecca, and that the same Bill may be quashed, because they say that the Close and Court-yard, and also the Places in which the said Trespasses are supposed to be done, are, and at the same Time when, &c. were one Acre of Land, and that the said Rebecca at the same Time when, &c. had nothing in the same Acre of Land, unless together and undividedly with the said Mary Bonner, who is in full Life at the Parish of Stepney in the County of Middlesex: And this they are ready to verify. Wherefore they pray Judgment of the said Bill, and that the same Bill may be quashed, &c.

" And the said Rebecca saith, that the aforesaid Bill of her the said Rebecca for Replication. the Reason before alledged ought not to be quashed, because she saith she, at the several Times the several Trespasses aforesaid are supposed to be committed, was sole seised of the said Close and Court-yard in the Declaration of her the said Rebecca first mentioned, and also of the said Close and Court-yard in the Declaration aforesaid of her the said Rebecca secondly mentioned, and of the aforesaid Fountain in that Declaration in like manner mentioned, and also of the third Court-yard in the said Declaration of the said Rebecca thirdly mentioned, and that the aforesaid Margaret and Mary at the said several Times when, &c. did commit the several Trespasses aforesaid, as the said Rebecca by her said Declaration above complains against them; without that, that the said Mary Bonner at the respective Times aforesaid, or any of them, had any Thing in the said Premises, or any of them: And she prayeth that this may be inquired by the Country.

" And the said Margaret Davis, otherwise Davison, and Mary Bonner says, that the Plea aforesaid by her the said Rebecca Haywood in Manner and Form above by their said Replication pleaded, and the Matter in the same contained, are not sufficient in Law to compel them the said Margaret and Mary to answer the Bill of her the said Rebecca, to which said Plea they the same Margaret and Mary need not, neither by the Law of the Land are they bound in any Manner to answer: And this they are ready to verify. Wherefore for Want of a sufficient Replication of the said Rebecca in this Behalf, they the said Margaret and Mary as before pray Judgment of the said Bill of her the said Rebecca, and that the same Bill may be quashed. And for * Causes of Demurrer in Law in this Behalf, according to the Form of the Statute in such Case lately made and provided, the said Margaret and Mary here shew to the Court these Causes following; For that the said Plea of her the said Rebecca is double, uncertain, and wants Form, and concludes to the Country.

" And the said Rebecca Haywood saith, that the Plea aforesaid, by her the said Rebecca in Manner and Form aforesaid in her Replication above pleaded and the Matter in the same contained, are good and sufficient in Law to compel them the said Margaret Davis and Mary Bonner to answer the Bill aforesaid of her the said Rebecca; which said Plea, and the Matter in the same contained, the same Rebecca is prepared to verify and prove as the Court, &c. And because the said Margaret and Mary have not answered that Plea, nor have hitherto in anywise contradicted it, the same Rebecca prays Judgment; and that the said Margaret and Mary may further answer the said Bill of her the said Rebecca, &c. But because the Court of our said Lady the Queen now here, are not yet advised of giving their Judgment of and concerning the Premises, a Day therefore is given to the said Parties before our Lady the Queen at Westminster, until Tuesday next after Eight Days from the Day of St. Martin, for Hearing their Judgment of and concerning the Premises, For that the Court of our said Lady the Queen now here is not yet thereof, &c.
